HOUSE VOTES TO GIVE ROOSEVELT 9 SECRETARIES

Would Add Six to Household Staf.

BY WILLARD EDWARDS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 27.—[Special.]—The house today passed the ironically labeled "pack the White House" bill, awarding six new $10,000 a year personal secretaries to President Roosevelt. The measure was sent to the senate. The roll call was 260 to 88.

Mr. Roosevelt already has three $10,000 a year secretaries, making a total of nine assistants if the bill becomes a law. Each of the secretaries has a big clerical force. There are, in addition, more than 100 administrative workers in the President's personal staf.

A riotous climax to a day of whooping oratory came when an amendment was offered providing that Elliott, Franklin Jr., and John Roosevelt, sons of the President; Mrs. Anna Boettiger, daughter; "Sistie" and "Buzzie" Dall, grandchildren, should be appointed to fill the six new positions.

They're Errand Boys, Anyway.

While cries of indignation from the Democratic majority arose at this sarcastic thrust, Representative Dewey Short [R., Mo.], author of the amendment, arose solemnly to declare: "This amendment is offered in all seriousness. What are to be the duties of these new secretaries? We find from an examination of the report on which this bill is based that they are to have no power to make decisions or issue instructions.

"They are to be mere errand boys between department heads and the President. They are also to have a 'passion for anonymity,' and that perhaps might disqualify the six I have named from occupying the position. In all other respects they could quality."

[The President now has one son, James, as a secretary. The other two secretaries are Stephen Early and Marvin McIntyre.]

Considers Another Idea.

For a few minutes the house toyed thoughtfully with an attractive amendment offered by Representative Ross Collins [D., Miss.], providing a new secretary for each member of congress.

"The President may need additional assistants," remarked Collins. "How about the overworked members of congress? We need extra help also."

There were loud huzzas, but the chair quickly ruled that the amendment was not germane to the bill.

Wants Back Door Sliders.

"What the President wants," he declared, "is six persons willing to slip in and out the back door of the White House, willing to scheme quietly in the dark for his program. Cohen and Corcoran have shown the way. They have avoided publicity except when it was unavoidable in the case of threatening a congressman."

Gifford alluded to the notorious incident last year when Cohen and Corcoran met Representative Ralph Brewster [R., Me.] in the statuary hall of the capitol and threatened him with a "cutting off" of federal funds in his district if he did not vote "right" on the utilities bill.

"It would be extremely dangerous to give the President any more Cohens or Corcorans," said Gifford.

Sees Dictatorship Move.

Representative George H. Tinkham [R., Mass.], asserted that the formation of a huge secretariat was another indication of the President's aspiration to dictatorship.

"One way to ameliorate the danger and to avoid the terrors of a dictatorship is to have a plural executive," he said. "If the executive power in this country rested in three persons instead of one, hatred of our form of government would be less brazenly manifested."

Tinkham introduced an amendment providing for an investigation to determine the desirability of amending the constitution to vest the executive

NEW COURT BILL IS APPROVED BY SENATE GROUP

President May Name New Justice.

Washington, D. C., July 27.—[Special.]—The senate judiciary committee carried out last week's agreement which accompanied the junking of President Roosevelt's Supreme court packing proposal by unanimously approving today a procedural reform bill for the lower federal courts.

Stanley Reed Considered by President Roosevelt for U. S. Supreme court.

About the same time President Roosevelt revealed he had asked the department of justice for an opinion on the legality of a recess appointment to the Supreme court vacancy caused by the retirement of Justice Willis Van Devanter.

Provisions of Bill.

The senate committee's bill, which was completed today, provides for:

1. Direct appeals to the Supreme court from decisions in the District courts involving the constitutionality of federal statutes.
2. Intervention by the department of justice in all suits involving the validity of federal statutes.
3. Trial of all suits to enjoin the operation of federal statutes by a three judge court, consisting of one Circuit [appeals] judge and two District judges.
4. Reassignment of district court judges by the senior Circuit judge of each circuit, wherever additional help may be needed to relieve congested dockets. Judges sitting away from home will receive $10 a day extra pay.

Eager to Avoid Further Fight.

Mr. Roosevelt said he did not know whether he would be ready to appoint a successor to Justice Van Devanter before congress adjourns.

From sources close to the White House it was learned the President is anxious to avoid prolonging the Supreme court fight in the senate.

Recess appointments ordinarily are made only when a vacancy occurs while congress is not in session. Under federal procedure those who receive recess appointments for vacancies which occurred while congress was in session draw no salaries until the appointments have been confirmed.

Solicitor General Stanley Reed of Kentucky has been mentioned most prominently in connection with the report that Mr. Roosevelt will not name an extremist to the court.

Would Tend to Heal Wounds.

Reed's nomination would tend to heal the wounds of the court fight because he is known as a conservative follower of the administration. His coming from the south also is in his favor, for on geographic considerations, it is said, the appointment should go to a southerner or midwesterner because the court is top heavy with easterners.

Other prominent candidates for conservative and geographic reasons are Judges Joseph C. Hutcheson Jr. of Houston, Tex., and Sam G. Brattan, of Albuquerque, N. M., both on the federal Circuit bench.

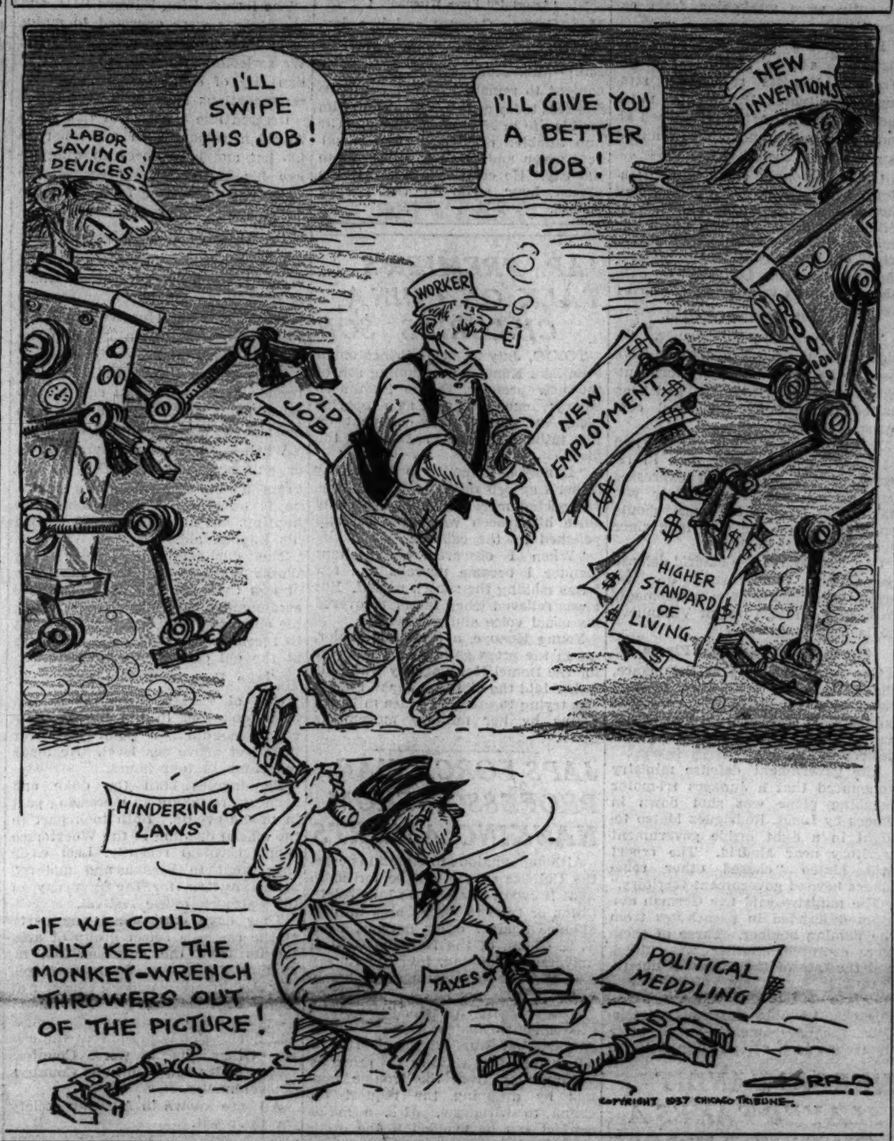
BOLD SLEUTHS GET A SURPRISE IN DARK ALLEY

Several women complained to the Hyde Park police last night that there was a man acting suspiciously in the alley at 4167 Berkley avenue. Policemen Edward Barchardt and Charles Dean went to the scene, drew their pistols as they heard some one moving in the dark, and shouted, "Put up your hands!"

When the policemen turned on their flashlights they saw a man standing next to a strange looking instrument on a tripod. The man identified himself as Paul Haradon, 1043 East 42d street. He said that he was a member in good standing of the Chicago Amateur Telescope Makers' club and that the instrument was a homemade telescope.

"I was just making some heavenly observations," Haradon explained, "and picked this alley because it was dark enough not to have the street lights interfere with the light from the stars." The policemen departed.

HOW THE MACHINE AGE IS SUPPOSED TO WORK



Urge Uniform Hygienic Laws for Marriages

Only by enactment of uniform hygienic marriage laws in all neighboring states can Illinois and the rest of the central west hope to achieve the goal of more healthful, happier, and lasting marriages, experts on riage and divorce legislation agreed yesterday.

This view was held despite an increase in business at the marriage license bureau in the county building. The increase, however, falls far short of bringing the number of licenses up to the months before the Saltiel hygienic law and the three day anti-gin marriage law went into effect.

Since July 1 only 445 licenses have been issued, compared to 3,658 licenses during July last year. Although the daily average has now risen to 45, County Clerk Michael J. Flynn predicted it will never reach the old summertime level of 140 a day, until nearby states adopt similar legislation.

Wisconsin Joins Illinois.

Like Illinois, Wisconsin will issue no license without a physician's certificate that the couple is free from venereal disease. This provision, applying the health requirement to women as well as men, was recently added to the Wisconsin law.

But in Indiana and Iowa licenses can be had upon application, without restriction except as to minors. This has enabled Crown Point, as one example, to increase its business as an easy marriage mill.

Judges John C. Lewe and Rudolph F. Desort, who have had considerable experience in the divorce courts, were among those urging that Indiana, Iowa, and other middle western states follow the lead of Illinois and Wisconsin. The same view is also held by Attorney Nicholas Socrates, an expert on divorce laws.

Out of State Marriages Valid.

But they also asserted that marriages contracted outside the state by couples desiring to evade the Illinois marriage health requirements are valid, despite the opinion of Judge W. R. Hunter in Kankakee. Citing the 1915 uniform marriage evasion statute, Judge Hunter said he would not recognize runaway marriages.

This statute provides that a marriage made outside the state by an Illinois resident, who is disabled or prohibited from contracting a marriage here, shall be null and void.

"The only marriages prohibited in Illinois by statute," said Attorney Socrates, "are those of first cousins, insane persons, minors, and common law marriages. The legislature has not included in the prohibition marriages in violation of the license requirements.

"The marriage license regulations are merely directory. Hence a marriage without a license is legal, although the clergyman or official performing the marriage is liable to a penalty. A marriage performed under a license issued by a clerk without the medical certificate or three day notice is legal, but the clerk is liable to a penalty."

LIE TEST BACKS UP TALE OF DISCOVERING A $135,000 TREASURE

Joseph Nelson says there is $135,000 in Liberty bonds in a hole under a tree near Ruby, Ariz., and the lie detector at the Northwestern university crime detection laboratory says Joseph isn't fibbing.

Nelson, 29 years old, was given the test by Dr. Leonarde Keeler yesterday after he told Lieut. Edward Kelly of the detective bureau he found the bonds and came to Chicago to ask an attorney if he could keep them or if the law required him to surrender them to the state of Arizona.

After the detector test, Lieut. Kelly said he would request the department of justice to send a representative with Nelson to Ruby to get the bonds. Meanwhile Nelson was held for investigation at Central station.

2 CUTTERS HUNT A MISSING YACHT, VICTORY, ON LAKE

Coast guard headquarters said last night two cutters had been ordered to search for the sloop Victory and its crew of six, missing in a severe Lake Michigan storm that imperiled entrants in the annual Chicago to Mackinac Island boat race.

With two other boats, the Fortune and Wind Song, accounted for, the guard station said the Victory was the only craft still unreported.

3 Humming Birds Stuffed; and They Live!

Humming birds are too delicate to be very good travelers. And so Karl Plath, curator of birds at the Brookfield zoo, wasn't surprised yesterday when the delivery man said three of the nine tiny iridescent South American humming birds that had just arrived were dead.

But Mr. Plath didn't give up. Tenderly he bathed each of the three little birds in luke warm water. Then he blew his breath gently upon them, to warm them. And, ever so little, the birds began to stir.

Mr. Plath Works Fast.

Now Mr. Plath worked fast. He mixed honey and distilled water in equal parts. Into the liquid he put a few drops of brandy and poured the thin sirup into little glass feeding cups shaped like flowers.

By this time the humming birds were showing more signs of life. They were dreadfully wabbly still, but they got the idea when Mr. Plath propped them up against the feeding cups and dipped their beaks into the food.

They were persuaded to take a sip and began to feel a bit stronger. They took another, and then they flapped their wings and filled up on the stimulating nourishment.

Little Birds—Big Appetites.

Mr. Plath smiled, for he knew that in no time at all they'd be strong enough to be back with the other humming birds, some of which are ruby and topaz, and some emerald.

Humming birds, said Mr. Plath, may be delicate, but they haven't delicate appetites. They just stuff all the time. But on the long train trip from New York, their stomachs probably got upset and they couldn't eat the nectar with which they were kept supplied at all times. They grew weak and collapsed.

RESCUED WHEN NEAR DEATH ON 2,000 FOOT PEAK

Grand Junction, Colo., July 27.—(AP)—Valdemar Jessen told today the harrowing experence of awaiting death from thirst on a sun blistered ledge which trapped him in sight of a sparkling stream 2,000 feet below.

Jessen, postoffice superintendent of mails here, was rescued from the two foot ledge last night an hour after he wrote what he believed would be his last diary entry:

"This will be my tomb."

He had been without food and water fifty-six hours since becoming separated from two companions on the Colorado-Utah boundary.

TROOPS, PLANES ATTACK GARRISONS NEAR PEIPING

[Copyright: 1937: By the New York Times.]

TUNGCHOW, July 28 [Wednesday].—The last Chinese defenders between Peiping's eastern walls and Tientsin were so effectively removed Tuesday morning by Japanese airplane bombs, artillery, and machine guns, that there is nothing left but tangled and shattered barracks, containing one grimy and dazed Chinese soldier.

Japanese army headquarters at Tientsin merely contented itself with the laconic announcement that "a Chinese regiment of between 400 and 500 men was annihilated."

But smoldering ruins, tangled wires, burning buildings, bullet holes, and freshly shattered walls attested to the severity of the Japanese punitive measures. The barracks, which for the last fortnight housed a Japanese battalion, and the entire surrounding area were a shambles.

American Flag Shot Down.

The huge gate of the Jefferson academy of the American Missionary school near the former Chinese barracks was bombed and Japanese troops, artillery, and cavalry occupied positions on the school campus. The American flag, which had waved over the entrance, proved little protection and was lying in a mass of tatters near by.

A Japanese officer apologized to this correspondent for this insult to the flag and proceeded to gather up the tattered remains.

More than 300 Chinese women and children had fled the sanctuary of this American property when the hostilities began, only to be followed by the Japanese army. One Chinese woman was wounded in the fighting. The sole two remaining American missionaries, Harry S. Martin of the Broadway Tabernacle, New York City, and J. N. Hunter of Peoria, Ill., are safe.

Japanese Version Given.

Soldiers carried the wounded into the American compound, which combines with the school hospital.

The Japanese officers claim that on Sunday they issued an ultimatum to the Chinese commander demanding that he surrender or withdraw from Tungchow before 3 a. m. today. The Japanese said that at midnight yesterday Chinese troops shot and killed five Japanese soldiers.

The Japanese battalion began an artillery and machine gun barrage at dawn. Later six Japanese planes joined the attack, dropping bombs. The Chinese were driven into nearby farmhouses and open courtyards, where they were mowed down by Japanese riflemen and machine gunners.

SHANGHAI, July 28 (Wednesday).—(AP)—American officials are trying to get all United States citizens into the embassy quarter at Peiping. Embassy quarter gates are closed and manned by United States marines, British, French, and Italian troops. Fears were expressed for safety of eight Americans still at Peiping's famous Yenching university, headed by President J. L. Stuart, who declined to seek shelter in the legation quarter. Chinese newspapers here reported that Chinese troops had recaptured Nanyuan barracks from Japanese.

TOKIO, July 28.—(Wednesday.)—Prime Minister Prince Fumimaro Konoe told parliament today that China shows absolute insincerity, and therefore he fears hostilities on a large scale are unavoidable. The government is forced to take "a grave decision," he said.

TIENTSIN, China, July 28, [Wednesday.] — (AP) — Japan's North China army began its punitive offensive against Chinese troops to force their withdrawal from Peiping garrisons at 5:30 a. m. [4:30 p. m. Tuesday, Chicago daylight saving time], said a communique issued by the Japanese garrison here.

Troops and aerial bombers were used.

The bombers first attacked Nanyuan barracks, south of Peiping, and "large losses were inflicted on the enemy," the Japanese communique said. The attack began at 6:20 a. m.

The Japanese announced the capture of the barracks after desperate fighting several hours later. They said the Chinese were driven back to the walls of Peiping.

Move to Encircle Peiping.

Troops moved against the Chinese barracks at Hsiyuan, just three miles northwest of ancient Peiping itself. Hsiyuan is adjacent to the Yenching and Tsinghua universities, which are American supported.

Troops also moved to encircle Peiping itself, carrying out the Japanese command's warning that it was taking "free action" to force withdrawal of Chinese troops from Peiping and neighboring barracks. Some regarded the warning as a virtual declaration of war by the Japanese army.

Barracks west and south of Peiping were objectives of the aerial bombers, but the Japanese command insisted that Peiping itself would not be bombarded from the air.

Planes Speed for Peiping.

Forty-five Japanese army planes, including heavy bombers, roared from Tientsin airfields at dawn to support the offensive.

The Japanese, it was believed, had delayed a previous encircling movement about Peiping, begun ten days ago, because of the small force then at their command.

The present Japanese force in North China was estimated to number 20,000 troops, most of them in the Tientsin unit, 5,000 at field headquarters at Fengtai and the remaining 500 comprising the normal garrison within Peiping.

The Chinese, foreign military sources said, have an estimated seventeen divisions in all Hopei province, numbering 150,000 men. This

WAR IS ON, CHINA SAYS

BY JOHN POWELL.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

SHANGHAI, July 28 [Wednesday]. —War in North China has begun.

Japan threw down the gauntlet with attacks by air upon Chinese garrisons around Peiping today.

China apparently has accepted the challenge.

Chinese authorities at Peiping are "prepared to engage the Japanese in a war of resistance," the China Central News agency announced.

"Curtain of War Lifted."

"The curtain of war was raised in North China at midnight tonight," said a representative of the 29th Army. "But there was a precedent of guerrilla warfare throughout the Peiping district the entire day [Tuesday]."

A Central News agency report from Peiping said: "The North China situation took a dramatic turn. Chinese authorities, following twenty-four hours of continuous conference, rejected the Japanese ultimatum to remove Chinese troops from the Peiping area."

Say War Is Inevitable.

The report declared major hostilities were inevitable as a result of Japanese infantry and air attacks on Chinese positions in the last forty-eight hours—attacks which dashed Chinese peace hopes.

The Japanese offensive was precipitated by Chinese rejection of a series of ultimatums calling for the evacuation of Chinese troops from Peiping and west of Peiping. The last deadline was fixed for noon today [11 p.m. Tuesday, Chicago daylight saving time].

General Orders Offensive.

Just 12 hours before the deadline, Lieut. Gen. Kiyoshi Katsuki, commander of the Japanese North China army, notified the Chinese he was forced to take punitive action against them because of the 29th Chinese army's failure to carry out agreements.

Japanese authorities said the Chinese had requested an extension of time on the last ultimatum, but Japanese officers decided not to wait for the expiration "since units of the 37th division of the 29th army continued to hold and strengthen their positions."

Watch for Flag Signal.

Previous to the Japanese attack 1,500 Americans watched tensely for a blue and white flag to signal that China and Japan have begun a battle for Peiping. The flag called Americans to safety within the foreign section of the city.

Nelson T. Johnson, United States ambassador to China, was the last foreign envoy to order Americans within the legation compound, but nightfall found the embassy quarters crowded with the excited American civilians. Many Americans were living in tents loaned by United States marines and erected on the lawn of the embassy compound.

About 500 marines were assigned to duty guarding the western exit to the legation quarter adjoining the main Chien gate in the city wall. This was the only city gate left open.

Tokio Orders Offensive.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

TOKIO, July 28.—[Wednesday.]—The war department today sent instructions to Japanese forces in North China to take free punitive action against Chinese troops in the Peiping area. After the instructions were dispatched, the government explained its action as follows:

1. Japan has no intention to occupy North China.

2. Punitive operations are aimed at Chinese troops which insulted Japan, and not at China's 485,000,000 people.

3. All Chinese troops shall be removed from Peiping because of the danger to the lives and property of foreigners in that city.

Strongly defending Japan's attitude and vehemently denying Japan has any aggressive intentions or territorial ambitions, Prime Minister Prince Fumimaro Konoe declared: "If this was not the case North China already would have been completely occupied by the emperor's picked troops."

Move to Chastise Chinese.

Headquarters of the Japanese garrison in North China issued a statement which said:

"Japan has exhausted every peaceful means and is compelled to advance its troops for chastisement. The enemy of the Japanese army is the Chinese army, which indulged in provocative acts against Japan."

The statement added the Japanese military will not resort to armed force within the walled city of Peiping unless the Chinese purposely cause disturbances and invite an exchange of fire.

Fight on Three Fronts

The Japanese army in North China began its punitive offensive against Chinese troops in the Peiping area early today. The Japanese attacked Hsiyuan (1) three miles northwest of Peiping after Japanese planes bombed Chinese barracks at Nanyuan (2), south of Peiping. A Chinese regiment of between 400 and 500 men was annihilated by a combined air and land attack at Tungchow (3), east of the ancient city.

U.S. URGES CHINA AND JAPAN TO AVOID CONFLICT

Hull Bids Nations to Make Peace.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 27.—The United States today expressed the prayerful hope through diplomatic channels that hostilities would be avoided between Japan and China.

Secretary of State Cordell Hull revealed that instructions had been sent Joseph C. Grew, ambassador at Tokio, and Nelson T. Johnson, ambassador at Peiping, to express the American hopes to the governments concerned. They were instructed to remind the governments of the presence of a large number of American nationals in the impending battle front.

Follows Separate Policy.

Secretary Hull said this country is exerting efforts toward persuading Japan and China to settle their difficulties peacefully. Toward this end, the government is following the separate and independent policy set forth last week by Mr. Hull in his reaffirmation of the American neutrality policy.

The secretary said no consideration had been given to invoking the nine-power pact, which guarantees China territorial integrity or the Kellogg anti-war pact in the far east.

1,500 Troops in Danger Zone.

The war and navy departments disclosed that there are approximately 1,500 of the nation's armed forces in the danger zone. At Peiping the embassy guard is composed of 493 men and 18 officers under command of Col. John Marston of the marine corps. Three navy officers and a warant officer are stationed with the guard. The 15th United States infantry of 1,000 officers and men is at Tientsin. In addition the 4th regiment of marines of 1,000 officers and men is at Shanghai.

According to the state department, there are 1,500 American citizens in Peiping. Of these 675 are civilians who have registered with the embassy.

The United States has kept troops in China and patroled Chinese waters with gunboats since the Boxer uprising in 1900. The uprising was initiated by an organization, formed ostensibly for the practice of athletics and known as the Boxers, who were, in fact, armies organized against foreigners. The armies were crushed by combined action of American, British, and other outside troops.

Rebels Seize British Ship as British Warship Looks On

LONDON, July 27.—(AP)—Lloyd's reported today the capture, presumably by Spanish rebels, of the 2,539 ton British steamer Mirupanu, which was bound from Rotterdam for the Spanish government port of Gijon. The admiralty said it was informed the rebel armed trawler Ciudad de Valencia fired a shot across the freighter's bows inside Spanish territorial waters off Gijon on Saturday. The Mirupanu then submitted to capture, with a British destroyer looking on. It was the third British steamer to be captured by the rebels this month. All were taken inside Spain's territorial waters, a legal procedure under the official British interpreta-

REBELS REPORT NEW ADVANCE IN DRIVE ON MADRID

Great Battle Rages On West of Capital.

MADRID, July 27.—(AP)—Rebel troops hammered hard at government lines west of Madrid again today, but the government said all assaults had been repulsed and the attackers apparently were weakening from exhaustion.

It was the third day of fierce struggle since Gen. Francisco Franco's Fascists recaptured strategically situated Brunete, 15 miles west of Madrid. Artillery crashed almost incessantly and planes dumped bombs on the sector.

[Rebel accounts received at Hendaye, France, said the Fascists had pushed their way to the outskirts of Villanueva de la Canada, about 4½ miles north of Brunete, and nearly wiped out two government brigades—the Lister and the 16th—leaving only about 300 of an estimated 3,000 men.]

Loyalist Advance Halted.

The government's advance, designed to cut off the rebels who have been lying in the city's western outskirts since last November, had been halted definitly by the rebel conquest of Brunete.

But the government declared it had at least twice as many men in reserve as the rebels and expressed confidence it could ultimately win any major battle if Franco should push on toward the city, long since evacuated by the cabinet.

Gen. José Miaja, the Madrid defense commander, had rushed up two strong contingents of reinforcements to keep the rebels out of Villanueva de la Canada.

Shoot Down German Flyers.

The rebel airdrome at Salamanca, the government said, was bombed twice by a squadron of government bombers. It was reported that planes and hangars at the airdrome were destroyed.

The government defense ministry announced that a Junkers tri-motor bombing plane was shot down in flames by Lieut. Rodriguez Mateo tonight in a fight inside government territory near Madrid. The report said Mateo "chased other rebel planes beyond government territory."

The ministry said five German aviators descended in parachutes from the flaming bomber. Three of them were captured, another was killed, and the fate of the fifth was not reported.

HEROIC BANDIT SLAYER TAKES A TURN FOR WORSE

Lige Debowski, the heroic chef who fatally wounded two gunmen in frustrating a holdup on the night of July 7 and was himself wounded five times, was reported to be in a serious condition early today at the County hospital. Debowski had seemed on the road to recovery, but last night his temperature rose.

An infection which developed from one of his wounds has not lessened satisfactorily under treatment. Three minor operations have been performed on Debowski and he has been given several blood transfusions.

The complaint against the Lake View hospital, 4420 North Clarendon avenue, that its attaches violated a state law in refusing to operate on Debowski when he was brought there after the shooting, is scheduled to be heard today before Judge Frank M. Padden in the Felony court. The hospital is alleged to have refused Debowski other than first aid treatment because he did not have $150 for an operation.

The London Morning Post, 165 Yrs. Old, Sold to Rival

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, July 27.—Lord Camrose, one of the proprietors of the London Daily Telegraph, has acquired control of the Morning Post, it was announced today. The Morning Post, which was founded in 1772, was said to have been losing money for some years. Lord Camrose is said unofficially to have paid £150,000 [$750,000] for the Post. One report said he will kill the Post to stifle competition with the Telegraph.

Providence, R. I., July 28.—[Special.]—Mrs. George Courtot's pup was content to remain by the side of his mistress today after his amazing swim for his life in Narragansett bay. The pup tumbled overboard from a sailboat seven and one-half miles out in the bay. He crawled ashore after a fifteen hour swim in the choppy waters.

JAP PREMIER'S TALK ON CHINA CHAGRINS SON

TOKIO, July 27.—(AP)—Princetonian Fumitaka Konoye, vacationing son of the new premier, Prince Fumimaro Konoye, made his debut as a reporter today by writing this comment on his father's maiden speech to the diet:

"It may be impolite to say so, but father's speech failed to impress me. I expected more of him. Especially since his speech was discussed and polished by the cabinet.

"When I observed his hesitant manner I became nervous and felt I was making the speech myself. But I was relieved when father recovered his usual voice and manner."

Young Konoye, a Princeton junior, sat in the press gallery as a reporter for the Domei News agency while his father told the diet that Japan merely was trying to preserve peace in North China by her military movements there.

JAPS FORCE WAR, PROFESSOR FROM NANKING ASSERTS

Although anxious to maintain peace, the Chinese people will be forced to fight if Japan attempts to take North China or tries to force China into an alliance against other nations, Prof. Y. Z. Chang of the National Central university, Nanking, told the Rotary club of Chicago yesterday at a luncheon in the Palmer house.

"At present," he said, "the scales are slowly turning in the direction of conflict, but war can be averted if Japan indicates a desire for peace by withdrawing from the trouble zone and by dropping the request for China to withdraw. Also, a major conflict can be avoided if the other world powers take a frank stand against aggression of any kind and demand peaceful negotiations of all international problems."

'RESTLESS' DUKE AND WALLY PLAN VISIT TO VENICE

Expected to Motor from Austrian Castle.

NOETSCH, Austria, July 27.—(AP)—The duke of Windsor, known here as "the restless squire," prepared tonight to take his American born bride to romantic Venice.

The former King Edward VIII. and his duchess were expected to motor from their honeymoon retreat here, Wasserleonburg castle, to the Italian city of canals, where hotel accommodations have been reserved.

Dressed like a native of this south Austrian region, with a feather in his hat and bare knees showing below his short lether breeches, the duke has become a familiar figure on mountain byways.

Accepted as a Neighbor.

The natives accept him as a neighbor who, when he is roaming abroad, is friendly to all, but familiar with few. They gladly forgive him one social error—wearing a Tyrolean costume in Carinthia.

He is known throughout the countryside as "the restless squire" because he is much more active than most of the notables of the vicinity.

When Edward is not playing tennis or golf or using his sickle on the grass about Wasserleonburg castle, he is out in the hills—sometimes hunting, but more often hiking with his English aid.

The duchess [the former Mrs. Wallis Warfield Simpson], his bride of less than two months, sometimes accompanies the duke if only a simple climb is planned. But if he wants to ascend some high peak she stays at the old castle.

Take Part in Public Events.

One of Edward's mountain journeys took him to the top of Dobwatch mountain, a point just over 7,000 feet above sea level. He made the climb in four hours.

By degrees both the duke and duchess are taking an increasing part in public events. Both took part in the official opening of the Woertersee sports carnival recently. Last week they went to Vienna and motored across Austria for the first day of the Salzburg music festival.

They have entertained one party at the castle, a select group of aristocrats from the neighborhood, including Prince and Princess Alfred Windischgraetz Ziersdorf, who felt at home because the prince formerly lived at Wasserleonburg. The duke and duchess of Windsor rent the castle. Other guests were Countess Nora Fugger and Count and Countess Khevenhueller.

4,000 Extra Police Go Into Belfast.

BELFAST, Northern Ireland, July 27.—(AP)—Four thousand special police moved into Belfast today to help line the twelve mile route along which King George VI. and Queen Elizabeth of Great Britain will travel tomorrow on their coronation visit to Ulster.

The police, who will augment local forces, were drawn from other sections of Northern Ireland and were quartered in colleges, schools and private homes.

Fear Religious Riots.

Every person occupying windows to view the monarchs' procession along Lisburn road will have to be able to give an account of himself. Authorities said this order was a "formality only, as the district is intensely loyal." It was known, however, they were concerned lest Roman Catholic and Protestant enmity, which has marked Belfast's history for 50 years, should start a fresh outbreak on the occasion of the royal visit.

King George and Queen Elizabeth, who already have visited Scotland and Wales, will arrive on the royal yacht Victoria and Albert from Stranraer, Scotland, just across the north channel.

Plan Big War Display.

An impressive display of naval and air forces such as Ireland has rarely seen will serve as a protecting escort as the yacht steams up Belfast lough, a long arm of the channel.

Because of fear of trouble, authorities have curtailed the original arrangements for the visit. In Lisburn, back country from Belfast, streets have been barricaded. There the monarchs will stay only two minutes. A ceremony in which addresses of loyalty were to have been presented has been considerably shortened.

Northern Ireland, as contrasted with the Irish Free State, is predominantly Protestant and loyal to the British monarchy, but authorities fear the republican minority may stage anti-crown demonstrations.

SMALL TOWN GIRL STEALS 7 YEARS' PAY FOR PARTIES

Uncle Sam Catches Up with Postal Clerk.

A small town girl confessed yesterday to federal authorities here that she had embezzled $3,200—more than seven times her yearly salary as a postoffice clerk—spending it on drinking parties and to cut a figure in the town's social life. She is Miss Dorothy M. Earley, 21 years old, a clerk in the postoffice at Marenisco, Mich., until July 10, when she disappeared from her home.

Postal inspectors traced her to Chicago and arrested her Saturday in a hotel at 4849 Irving Park boulevard. She was arraigned yesterday before United States Commissioner Edwin K. Walker, who ordered her removed to Michigan for trial. She was in the county jail last night.

Pockets Money Order Cash.

Miss Earley was in charge of the money order department in the Marenisco postoffice. In April, 1936, a year after her appointment to the position, according to her confession, she began altering the amounts on money orders and pocketing some of the funds.

When a customer bought a money order, Miss Earley would write it out for the full amount, accept the money and then change the stubs she retained to indicate an order for a lesser amount. It took the postoffice department at Washington more than a year to catch up with the discrepancies.

Disappears from Home.

On July 10, when postal authorities in Washington demanded the Marenisco postoffice books for an audit, Dorothy left town, and came here to meet a boy friend.

"My salary was only $38 a month," Dorothy said yesterday, "but everybody in my home town believed I earned more, so I decided to keep up appearances. I spent the postoffice money on drinking parties in Marenisco and at Hurley, Wis., across the state border."

Approaching the realization of a dream of fifteen years—the completion of the $12,400,000 project for high speed trafic connection between the north and south sides—workmen yesterday dug into the sidewalk at the northeast corner of Michigan avenue and Walton place. This is for the construction of a storm sewer from Walton place a block north to Oak street.

The drainage system is the last step in the transformation—at a cost of $1,000,000—of Lake Shore drive into three forty or forty-five foot lanes from North avenue to Ohio street, where it joins the $11,000,000 outer drive link bridge project. The construction of a storm sewer in Michigan avenue from Oak street to Walton place is necessary to connect the Lake Shore drive drainage system with existing city sewers.

Projects Near Completion.

The outer drive link bridge project extends from Ohio street to Monroe street, including the Randolph street extension. At Monroe street this improvement is connected with a WPA project, costing $400,000 and extending south to Roosevelt road.

Otto K. Jelinek, trafic engineer for the Chicago park district, said that all of the projects are nearing completion and will be open for through trafic by Oct. 1.

The Lake Shore drive sewer—including the connecting link on Michigan avenue between Walton place and Oak street—will be finished in two weeks, it is estimated. The major portion of the sewer, the part from North avenue to Oak street, has already been completed.

Sewer Will Drain New Lane.

This consists of approximately 4,000 feet of reënforced concrete pipe, increasing in diameter from three and a half to six feet. The sewer will drain the new 45 foot lane—limited to high speed trafic—to be laid to the east of the two existing Lake Shore drive lanes. The increasing size of the pipe is to provide for added drainage demands as the ground becomes lower from North avenue to Oak street. Catch basins for sewers in the new Lake Shore drive from Ohio street to Oak street are connected with sewers already in existence.

North and south trafic will not be interrupted while the sewer is being completed. Three crews of 100 men each will do most of the work on the final link from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. and from 10 p. m. to 6 a. m., when trafic is at a minimum. The final excavation, at Oak street, will be accomplished in a single night.

Trafic Will Continue.

Nor will there be any trafic interference during completion of three pedestrian underpasses which have been started at North avenue, Division street and Chicago avenue. These are being built in three sections and two trafic lanes are open at all times.

Paving on the Lake Shore drive project from Oak street to Chicago avenue will be completed Friday. This section of the roadway consists of three 40 foot lanes, the old Lake Shore drive being reconstructed to form one of the lanes.

From Lake Shore drive and Oak street north to North avenue only one new 45 foot lane is under construction. Lake Shore drive, as it exists, will form the other two lanes. Concrete already has been poured for the new lane and within the next few days the pourers will begin at North avenue, working south and laying pavement over the new sewer pipe.

Opening to Be Oct. 1.

While the Lake Shore drive project and the outer drive link bridge will not be open for trafic until Oct. 1, the Monroe street to Roosevelt road project will be ready for automobiles by July 31—two months earlier.

Supplementing the three major projects in the north to south sides limited highway are surfacing improvements extending south to 67th street and including the reconstruction of Ericson and Columbus drives from 23d to 31st streets.

GERMANY'S PLAN TO GET HELIUM IN MEXICO IS BARED

Washington, D. C., July 27.—(AP)—Representative John M. O'Connell [Dem., R. I.], told the house naval committee today he had "authorative" information that Germany was planning to establish a colony in Mexico to develop helium and mineral resources.

O'Connell made this statement during a hearing on proposed construction of an airship to replace the Los Angeles at which Rear Admiral Arthur B. Cook, chief of naval aeronautics, recommended building a new airship as an experimental aircraft carrier.

IN 'KIDNAP' CASE

Mrs. Florence Mondi, who is accused of planning "kidnaping." The case was continued until Aug. 5.

Mrs. James Mondi Jr., 334 North Clark street, appeared in Woman's court yesterday where a charge of kidnaping against her was continued by Judge Eugene Holland until Aug. 5. The kidnaping charge was brought by Miss Dolores Stock, 24 years old, 817 Lakeside place, who said she was taken by three men to an apartment at 4917 Washington boulevard last Thursday night, where Mrs. Mondi and the men tried to force her to lure a woman friend to the place.

AUTO MASSACRE EASES, BUT CITY STILL TOPS LIST

National Toll Down 1st Month in 13.

The nation's motor accident death toll was 3 per cent lower in June this year than in June, 1936, despite a 9 per cent higher motor mileage, the National Safety council announced yesterday. In each of the 13 preceding months the toll had been higher than in the corresponding month of the previous year.

But in the face of the news that the nation has at last begun reducing the number of its highway deaths came the statistics that showed Chicago's deaths from motor accidents in the first half of 1937 to be 378—exactly the number of New York's. As New York's population is approximately twice Chicago's, this made New York the safest of all 13 American cities of over 500,000 population for motor trafic, with a motor death rate of 10.6 per 100,000, while Chicago stands tenth in the list of cities with a rate of 21.7—more than twice as high.

New York Has License Law.

The significance of these statistics is seen, experts said, in the fact that New York is situated in a state which has a driver's license law regarded as one of the soundest in the nation.

The Illinois legislature adjourned on July 1 after failing to pass such a safety measure for Illinois.

Only 3 of the 13 cities of over 500,000 population had increases in deaths in June over the preceding June. Chicago was one of these 3, with 57 deaths as compared to 52 in 1936. New York had 4 fewer than its 65 of June, 1936.

11 States Show Decreases.

Of the 41 states reporting for either 5 or 6 months of 1937, 11 showed decreases from last year.

Despite the reduction achieved by the nation in June the country's death toll for the first six months of the year was 17,200, an increase of 13 per cent over the 15,160 of the first half of 1936.

The June records show 2,860 deaths for the nation as a whole. There were 2,950 in June of 1936.

SEEK CAB BOOST TO 20 HIGHEST RATE IN NATION

Drivers Join in Petition to Get Pay Increase.

A joint proposal made yesterday by the Yellow and Checker cab companies and their 4,800 drivers for a flat increase of 10 cents a ride in the city taxicab fare would make the Chicago rate one of the highest in the country.

The proposition of the companies was submitted to the city council local transportation committee by Benjamin Samuels, president of Yellow; Michael Sokol, president of Checker, and William Hanley, of the Teamsters International union joint council of 25, who said he represented the companies' drivers.

The suggested increase is from 15 to 25 cents in the initial charge for the first one-third of a mile when the taxi meter flag is pulled down. There would be no change in the present charge of 10 cents for each additional two-thirds of a mile.

Only Way to Pay, Says Hanley.

Hanley told the committee that he was convinced a raise in the fare is the only way the companies can pay the drivers a living wage. This proposition was referred to Ald. James R. Quinn [50th], chairman, to a subcommittee for further study, with the committee members indicating they favored such an increase.

Since the recent taxi strike, Hanley said, the drivers now get 35 per cent of their gross receipts, but make only $12 to $15 a week, although the companies pay for all gasoline. Under the proposed increase, Hanley said the drivers would make about $4 a day and $1 in tips.

Coincidental with the increase, Mr. Sokol declared the two companies would make a reduction of between 400 and 500 in the number of cabs on the streets, tending to lessen the nuisance of cruising taxis in the loop. Of the 4,079 cabs now in operation, all except 413 are operated by the two concerns.

Only Seattle Is Higher.

The only large city with a higher rate than the one proposed yesterday is Seattle, Wash., where 25 cents in charged for the first one-quarter of a mile and 10 cents for each additional half, making the first mile rate 45 cents.

New York and Philadelphia have a rate of 20 cents for the first quarter and 5 cents for each additional quarter mile. This figures out at 35 cents for the first mile.

Detroit, Mich., and Miami, Fla., have rates of 30 cents a mile, Kansas City, Mo., 30 cents for the first 3½ miles, Cleveland, 20 cents, and Indianapolis 15 cents. A zone system gives the rider two miles in the first zone for 25 cents at Milwaukee and three miles for 20 cents in Washington.

JOCKIES PUT REIN ON BRIDGE SPEED AFTER 2 ARRESTS

Two policemen arrested two parking lot jockies on the Wabash avenue bridge yesterday and trafic immediately slowed down to a normal pace. The arrested men passed the word of warning to all their fellows who drive cars to and from the loop stores for the parking lots.

Capt. David Flynn, in charge of the police trafic detail, said he would instruct his men to keep a careful watch on future speeding and reckless driving on the bridge. A survey Monday showed that the jockies drove other people's cars twice as fast as the normal driver goes across the bridge and its approaches.

The jockies arrested were Homer McCarthy, 25 years old, colored, employed by the La Salle Parking company, 535 North La Salle street, and Edward Wortwicz, 25 years old, employed by the Central Garages, Inc., 357 North State street. Also arrested was Robert Artiber, 24 years old, 4458 Greenwood avenue, a truck driver, who was ordered to appear Aug. 5 with the two jockies in Speeders' court.

Honey's Free, but Not Worth Sharing Home with Bees

Honey's expensive, and Jacob Hilsheimer can get his for nothing. Just the same, he'd rather buy it. He's living with a swarm of bees that moved in on him without an invitation, he complained to Sergt. Marshall Harris of the Englewood police last night, and he does wish the sergeant would send some men over to the Hilsheimer home at 7411 Peoria street to ask them to leave.

SIX RECKLESS DRIVERS LOSE USE OF AUTOS

Six motorists found guilty of reckless driving were forbidden to drive their automobiles for periods ranging from three months to six months yesterday by Judge Charles S. Dougherty in the Safety court. They also were fined or sent to the county jail. The drivers and their sentences were:

NATHANIEL KELLY, 29 years old, 138 North Menard avenue; five days in jail; six months' driving suspension.

GEORGE WILLIAMS, 25, of 2501 Fulton street, colored; $10 fine; four months' driving suspension.

MICHAEL WOZGARD, 30, of 3547 Union avenue; five days in jail; 90 days driving suspension.

Judge Gibson E. Gorman put his questions on paper in Trafic court yesterday when Theodore Banks, 40 years old, 1019 East 63d street, came before him on a speeding charge. Banks is deaf. After Banks pleaded guilty Judge Gorman ordered him not to drive his automobile until Jan. 1.

SWERVES TO MISS CHILDREN; HURTS THEM AND SELF

Truck Driver Crashes in Vain Effort.

Running across the street together, a girl of 9 and a boy of 12 were seriously injured last night when they were struck by a delivery truck at Harrison street and Kildare avenue. In his vain attempt to avoid hitting them, the driver crashed into a parked car, suffering critical injuries.

The children are Irene Egan of 4312 Congress street and Garfield Lesch, a neighbor living at 508 South Kildare avenue. Amandus Anderson of 5114 North Western avenue was driving the truck. All three were taken to Garfield Park hospital.

Dies of Auto Injuries.

James Manastis, 40 years old, 7104 State street, died yesterday in Auburn Park hospital of injuries suffered Monday night when he was struck by an automobile at State and 70th streets. Edward Wright, 24, of 100 West 95th street, the driver, was held for the inquest.

Archie Lilois, 54 years old, 120 West 116th street, died in Roseland Community hospital last night of injuries incurred Saturday night when he was hit by a truck as he was crossing Michigan avenue at 116th street. The driver, Battista Grosso, 49 years old, 36 East 103d place, was ordered to appear at the inquest this morning.

57 Killed in Chicago.

On June 30 the state legislature, because of a patronage feud, missed its last opportunity to enact a drivers license law which has reduced trafic accidents in some states. Since then, and up to 4 p. m. yesterday, 57 persons have been killed and 1,865 injured in automobile accidents in Chicago. Since Jan. 1 trafic accidents have killed 584 persons in the county, including 456 in Chicago, according to the coroner's office. During the same period 12,509 have been injured in auto accidents in the city.

ADMITS SLAYING RICH MISTRESS IN JEALOUS RAGE

Feared Wife of Another Planned New Romance.

New York, July 27.—[Special.]—After day long questioning, a philandering husband admitted to police tonight that jealousy prompted him to kill a wealthy suburban wife with whom he was carrying on an illicit romance.

Stanley A. Martin Jr., 29 years old and a father, thought his attractive companion, Mrs. Florence Jackson, 37 and the mother of two children, was unfaithful to him. He said he learned she had given her telephone number to another man. So he slipped her red lether belt around her throat and strangled her.

What He First Told Police.

Before he was confronted by his own estranged wife, Martin, an unemployed automobile salesman, had told police he choked his mistress to death at her insistence. He said they were despondent over the futility of their love affair because both were married. He had planned, he said, to drive her car off a bridge and kill himself but he lost his nerve.

It was the tragic dénouement of a pickup romance that bloomed in exclusive Jackson Heights, Queens. Martin's pretty blonde wife, Evelyn, 29, learned about it and left him. Mrs. Jackson's husband, Bert, a commission broker, was suspicious and upbraided her.

But for nearly six months the illicit lovers met secretly and the unfaithful mother paid her paramour's room rent, bought his meals and gave him spending money. Martin said Mrs. Jackson "paid for all our good times and drinks."

Their Romance Ends at Dawn.

Their romance ended about dawn this morning as the couple sat brooding in Mrs. Jackson's car on a lonely road in White Stone, Queens. They had spent the night visiting one tavern after another, about seven or eight, Martin said.

After strangling the woman, Martin said, he drove around for some time with the body in the seat beside him. Then he drove up to two Flushing policemen and told them the woman was sick. They accompanied him to a hospital, where Mrs. Jackson was found dead of strangulation.

A shrinking, sobbing figure, Martin was placed in the Manhattan police lineup. Then he was taken to Queens county court where he was held without bail on a homicide charge for hearing Thursday.

DISGUISE FAILS TO SAVE MILK DRIVER BANDIT

George Cartish kept his face buried in his newspaper as he walked swiftly last night in Hirsch street near Latrobe avenue. Sergt. Edward Tighe and Policeman Edward Campion of Austin police were driving by and became suspicious. They stepped up to him, drew aside the newspaper and noticed a bulge in Cartish's shirt. The bulge turned out to be a revolver, and Cartish was taken to the station, where he was identified by eight milk wagon drivers as the gunman who had robbed them in the last few days.

In Cartish's home at 4633 Huron street, the police arrested his wife, Flodine, 23 years old, and found another revolver under a loose board in the floor. Cartish, who is 37 years old, has a police record dating to 1926. He has served sentences for automobile theft and for violation of the federal narcotics act.

Elopers Part Hour Later for Good; She Gets Divorce

2 PAROLEES HELD FOR SEX CRIMES TO BE RETURNED

2 Others Also Will Go Back to Cells.

Two parolees arrested Sunday morning in different sections of the city on charges of attempted rape will be returned to prison as parole violators regardless of the outcome of the prosecution for their new offenses. Supt. T. P. Sullivan of the parole office, in making this announcement, said that one of the men arrested, Andrew Devoni, had been recommended for a final discharge from parole, but word has been sent to Springfield to cancel the recommendation.

Devoni has been paroled three times and previous to serving a prison sentence was given probation on a larceny charge. He was sentenced for burglary in March, 1929, and after his third parole, granted last October, he was working, supposedly, at Rosehill cemetery.

Held on Girls' Complaint.

Edmund Chuski, the other parolee who will be sent back to prison, was arrested on complaint of a girl of 14 years that he held her prisoner, bound, gagged, and blindfolded, for several hours after she fought off his attempted attack. Since his parole last fall, Chuski was employed by a stockyards firm which also employs his mother.

Two other parolees, Joseph Rizzo and Joseph Esposito, will also be returned to prison as violators after police dispose of pending charges against them. They were arrested Saturday night when police found a revolver, a blackjack, and a roll of adhesive tape in their automobile.

Two Deputies Suspended.

Meanwhile, the two deputy sheriffs on duty when Lawrence Waricks walked away from the Will county jail to rape three women and attempt to rape a fourth were suspended for 30 days by Gordon S. Breen, chief deputy sherif. They are John McDonald and John Bazaar. Breen said the suspensions were for carelessness in the case.

At the same time county authorities pressed their investigation into the liberties enjoyed by the colored prisoner, who had been made a trusty despite a record of arrests in sex crimes.

The authorities were particularly interested in stories that Waricks often left the jail to call on officials and demand that they free him, as Waricks insisted, had been done unofficially in the case of a prisoner serving a sentence for drunken driving. Waricks, who was arraigned yesterday in Joliet on three charges of rape and one of attempted rape, Bond was fixed at $5,000 on each charge and he was returned to jail.

ENGINE DERAILED LEAVING CITY.

The locomotive of a North Western suburban train bound for Barrington was derailed at Lake street yesterday as the train was leaving the downtown Chicago station. It was delayed half an hour.

EXECUTIVES TO HONOR SENATE VOTE AGAINST PACKING HIGH COURT

To honor the patriotic action of the senators in Washington who defeated President Roosevelt's Supreme court packing bill, and to pledge themselves anew to the constitution, members of the Executives' club will hold a special meeting Friday noon at the Hotel Sherman, it was announced yesterday.

Floyd E. Thompson, former chief justice of the Illinois Supreme court and a prominent Democrat, will speak on "The Triumph of Democracy." In 1934, the club bulletin pointed out, while some people were referring to the constitution as an old piece of parchment, the club affirmed its belief in that historic document.

NEW YORK PAPER HAILS CHICAGO'S SYPHILIS BATTLE

New York, July 27.—[Special.]—Commenting editorially on "Chicago's Syphilis Survey," the New York Daily News said yesterday:

"Exciting news from Chicago—the city's health officials, coöperating with the United States public health service, are undertaking a comprehensive blood-test survey of Chicago's population, to determine the percentage of syphilis.

"The first step in the Chicago survey is mailing of a questionnaire to 1,000,000 Chicagoans, asking them whether they would be willing to undergo free and secret blood tests by their family doctors. If the idea proves popular enough, city and state are expected to furnish funds for the tests.

"Public health, scientific, and medical results of the Chicago survey should be very valuable. But equally valuable should be this latest and to date greatest mass attack on the false modesty that has until recently made the battle against syphilis a battle in the dark. We wish all success to the Chicago survey. If it proves practicable, New York City might well undertake a similarly comprehensive, carefully safeguarded syphilis census."

AID OF ZAHAROFF IS FOUND GUILTY OF 'SPY SLAYING'

JERUSALEM, July 27.—(AP)—Reuben Schenzvit, once South American agent for the European munitions merchant, Sir Basil Zaharoff, was convicted today of killing Jacob Zwanger, former soviet vice commissar of harbors. Schenzvit was sentenced to 15 years imprisonment. Zwanger was clubbed to death last March 10. British royal air force intelligence officers, in the investigation that followed, declared his death was linked with a fantastic international spy plot.

ENGINEER STOPS TRAIN TO GREET A LITTLE INVALID

Short Visit Follows Gift of Flowers.

Louis Garry, 61, the engineer, hopped down from his cab and waved to a little sick girl whose home is near the tracks at that point. Newspaper photographers snapped pictures of Garry and his big engine. Then he climbed back to his throttle and the train puffed on.

All this was the sequel to a kindly and sympathetic impulse which Garry obeyed a month ago. The father of a large family himself and a devoted gardener at his home on 147th street near Dolton, Garry had learned that little Mabel Dickson, 11 years old, who lives with her brother, Bobby, 8, her mother and her grandparents at 7022 Wallace street, was a very sick little girl.

He Picks Flowers for Her.

For more than two years he had seen her wave to him from the windows in winter or from a cot on her front porch near the railroad embankment in summer. And finally he picked some of his roses, peonies, and bachelor buttons and packed them away in wet moss in a big box.

The next morning when he passed her way he leaned from the cab and hurled the box almost to the steps of her porch. Before he passed from view he saw her little brother give it to her and saw her opening it. That was all Garry wanted, for the next time he passed he saw a message, "Thank you," written in chalk on a blackboard Mabel was holding up for him to read.

But a neighborhood newspaper reporter heard of the incident and wrote a story telling how happy Mabel had been made by the gift. The story also related that the name of the kindly engineer was not known.

Press Agent Delighted.

In due time last Monday the story came to the eye of the railroad's press agent. He was delighted, and arranged through officials of the line to question all engineers until he found that Garry had given the flowers.

And so he arranged for the train to be stopped at Mabel's house and Garry to wave. The press agent even arranged for Mabel, who seldom walks more than a few steps at a time, to be out in her yard to wave back.

Second Dog Bite in 24 Hrs. Sends Boy Back to Hospital

All the nurses and internes knew Dennis Long, 7 years old, when he was taken to the Evangelical hospital yesterday to be treated for a dog bite. Just 24 hours earlier he had been brought into the same hospital to be treated for a bite by another dog. Dennis lives at 5608 Halsted street, but you're more likely to find him at the hospital.

WOMAN KILLED IN AUTO CRASH.

Hillsdale, Mich., July 27.—[Special.]—Helen Mariott, 29, of Prattville, was killed here today when a car driven by Laverne Cook, 24, Frostier, crashed into a car occupied by the victim and eight other women, who were en route to work in a factory.

RUMOR IRKS HIM

Olivia De Havilland, actress whose named has been linked with that of Brian Aherne in report which caused the English actor to complain of publicity.

Aherne said the publicity interrupted the soup, because autograph hunters "barge along just as you're lifting the spoon."

Hollywood, July 27.—(AP)—Brian Aherne, English actor and devotee of the my-life-is-my-own principle, finds rumors of his infatuation with Olivia De Havilland, his current leading lady, more than a little annoying.

Earlier stories linked him romantically with Merle Oberon. They were equally annoying.

"In Hollywood," Aherne complained today, "they publicize you so much that you can't go to a restaurant without being recognized. That's nice, but it interrupts the soup very often because autograph hunters always barge along just as you're lifting the spoon."

1,000 WILL FORM MASSED BAND AT MUSIC FESTIVAL

Two Directors to Lead Players in Spectacle.

MUSIC FESTIVAL TICKETS.

Reserved seats for the Chicagoland Music Festival Aug. 21 are 50 cents each. They may be purchased at The Tribune's Public Service bureaus, 1 South Dearborn street, and in the lobby of Tribune Tower. Mail orders should be sent Festival Ticket Manager, Room 530, Tribune Tower. Make check or money order payable to Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc.

BY PHILIP MAXWELL.

A. Austin Harding and Glenn C. Bainum, directors of the University of Illinois and Northwestern university bands, respectively, will lead a massed band of more than 1,000 players Saturday night, Aug. 21, at the eighth Chicagoland Music Festival in Soldiers' field. Both musicians are beloved by thousands of young men and young women who have studied under them or have followed the work they are doing in the band field.

This massed band, another colorful feature of the festival program, will be comprised of all those entering the festival adult and juvenile band contests, and will play two numbers, "Chicago Tribune March," by Chambers, led by Mr. Bainum, and "U. S. Field Artillery March," by Sousa, conducted by Mr. Harding, who was a close friend and admirer of the late John Philip Sousa.

Sousa Cheered at Festival.

One of Mr. Sousa's last public appearances was at the 1931 festival, truly a memorable occasion. Under the glare of huge searchlights he was driven to the platform while a crowd estimated at 115,000 cheered him.

One of the famous home town bands entered in the festival this summer is the P. and O. band of Canton, Ill., directed by Frederick D. Walker. Organized in 1854, known then as the Canton Brass band, it later became the Parlin and Orendorff company, Fifth Regiment band, National Guard, and during the Lincoln-Douglas debates traveled throughout central Illinois with the great emancipator.

Other groups entered in the adult contest division are the Chicago Boys' Club Concert band, directed by John Sovinec, and Dr. Benjamin Mach and his military band.

Already Florida, Indiana, Michigan, and Illinois are represented in the juvenile competition. The Florida group is the Orlando Boys' band. The lads won first place in a National Federation of Music Clubs contest in Gainesville, Fla.

Indiana will be represented by the Wanatah school band. It will be sent to Chicago by the Band Mothers' club of Wanatah. The Michigan group will come from the Clayton High school.

Peoria Band Returning.

Returning to the festival will be the Peoria Juvenile band. Two Chicago groups entered are the Wurlitzer Concert band and the Berwyn Boys' Club band.

The deadline for all festival entries, which now include out of Cook county vocalists, instrumentalists [violin, cornet, and harmonica], bands, choruses, drum corps, and baton twirlers, is 6 o'clock Monday night, Aug. 9. Entry blanks may be obtained by writing festival headquarters in the Tribune Tower.

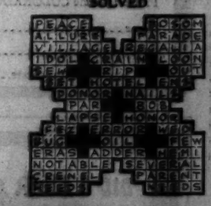
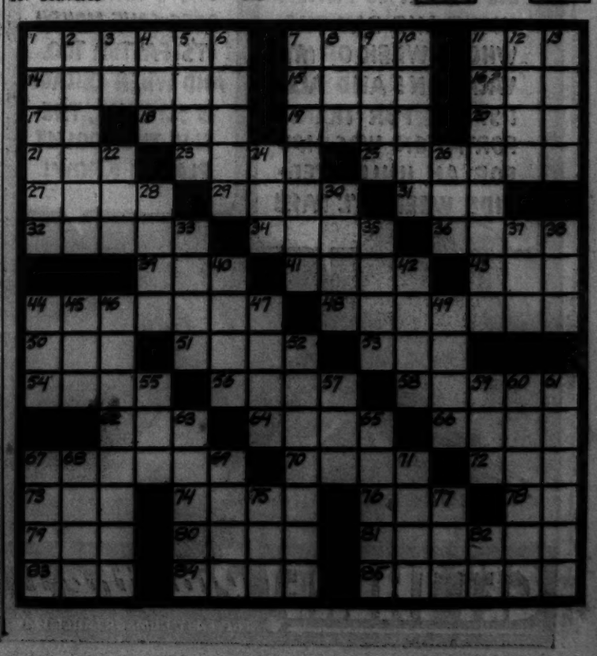
YESTERDAY'S PUZZLE SOLVED





Moving Forward

Marshall Field & Company presents here each day observations and opinions intended to be of interest and value to those it seeks to serve.

CHARLESTON AND CHARM

By CALEB

CHARLESTON, South Carolina, has a savor and a flavor of its own. I sit on a little third floor balcony and ponder the charm and distinction of this locale.

White houses and green shutters loom romantic in the moonlight just over the way. Chimney pots cast sharp shadows on creamy walls.

I hear negroes singing in a garden. There is a fragrance of green things in the air—green things lush with foliage and profligate with bloom.

Here we have marveled at the sophistication of beautiful old homes, their white verandas, their galleries overlooking walled gardens — delicately bounded by wrought iron. Complacency, peace —and eternally flowers!

Galveston and New Orleans seem to me of all American cities most like Charleston. Yet they are very different. And Charleston's charm is distinctly its own—reservedly cosmopolitan and colonial. Its historic aura, its unparalleled gardens, its antiquity, its narrow streets, its compactness, its mellowness, give it a stamp of individuality.

It is a clean city. Moreover, it is a proud city, having rejected, I am told, $200,000 for the Trumbull Washington portrait in its City Hall. Painted in 1791 at the instruction of the city council, it commemorates Washington's visit to Charleston that year.

Most things in the world bear a great similarity to many other things. Few cities, few colleges, few artists, few individuals, and few institutions are enough unlike their more or less commonmold contemporaries to stand out.

Charleston is a mecca for travelers because it adheres to its own stamp and standards. We believe it is well for any city or institution or business to remain true to its own origin and tradition—to keep "in character" with the creditable factors which set its tune and tempo.

ASKS CUMMINGS QUIZ ON SALE OF DEMOCRAT BOOK

Snell Raises Question of U. S. Law Violation.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 27.—[Special.]—Following further revelations of the magnitude and technique of the Democratic national committee's shakedown of corporations, Republican Leader Bertrand H. Snell of the house today called the scandal to the attention of the department of justice.

In a letter to Attorney General Homer S. Cummings, Mr. Snell asked whether the department had made any inquiry into the charges that the committee had violated the corrupt practices act forbidding collection of political contributions from corporations. The Republican leader also asked the attorney general's opinion of the legality of the committee's device for obtaining corporation contributions.

The Democratic committee is charged with having shaken down several hundred individuals and corporations for $165,905 in the guise of purchases at $250 a copy of the Democratic 1936 souvenir campaign book, autographed by President Roosevelt.

Intent of Scheme Told.

The committee stated in a letter to corporation officers that the sale of the campaign book had been hit upon as a scheme for getting around the law prohibiting political contributions by corporations.

Snell's letter to the attorney general read in part:

"The enforcement of the federal corrupt practices act of 1925 is obviously the duty of the department of justice.

"There has recently appeared in the public press on several occasions long lists of corporations which have contributed to the Democratic national committee substantial sums of money through the medium of purchasing, at $250 a copy, the program of the Democratic national convention held over a year ago at Philadelphia. Books at this price carry the autograph of the President.

Asks About Inquiry.

"I think it is fair to assume that the publication of the names of these corporations, together with the amounts of their contributions to the Democratic national committee, is obviously to be considered public notice to the department of justice.

"May I inquire whether the department of justice has instituted an inquiry as to whether section 313 of the federal corrupt practices act of 1925 has been violated in this matter?

"An examination of the public records of the clerk of the house of representatives disclosed that several thousand of these contributions have been reported as political contributions by corporations to the Democratic national committee.

"In my judgment, the evidence which has come to me indicates clearly that the sale of this book is an illegal device to escape the penalties of the corrupt practices act, which expressly forbids contributions by corporations to political committees.

Legal Opinion Requested.

"If the sale of this souvenir book be legal, would not the sale of any other political novelty or ornament priced exorbitantly be equally legal?

"I have introduced a resolution calling for a congressional inquiry into the matter, but before presenting my evidence to the house committee I should like to have an expression from yourself as to the legality of this device."

A resolution providing for an investigation of the scandal, which Mr. Snell introduced several weeks ago, is bottled up in the house rules committee. Democratic leaders only laughed at the notion of the Democratic house investigating the Democratic party.

Roosevelt Is Silent.

Although Mr. Roosevelt waxed extremely indignant over evasions of the income tax law, he has remained silent, Mr. Snell emphasizes, on his party's evasion of the corrupt practices act. The White House secretariat stated that Mr. Roosevelt was unaware of any purpose except that his autograph was to be used to help sell the book.

The canvassers gave the "prospects" to understand that purchase of a substantial number of the books at $250 each would be a "judicious investment in the good will of the administration."

Among the contributors to the committee through purchases of the book and the amounts they contributed follow:

Mrs. A. McCormick Blaine, Chicago, $5,000.

J. R. Williams of the Great Lakes Dredging and Dock company, Chicago, $1,000.

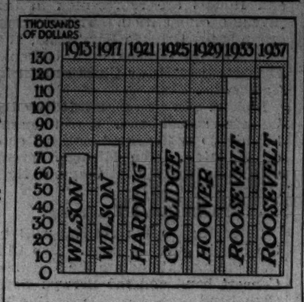
OFFICE HELP COST



Washington, D. C., July 27.—[Special.]—Salary expense for White House employés has risen in the last few years to the point where the $73,180 expended by President Wilson in 1913 would pay only a little more than half of similar expenses of President Roosevelt for 1937.

Hoover launched the practice of three presidential secretaries at $10,000 a year each, paying them additional sums from his own pocket. In his first term President Roosevelt had one $10,000 secretary and two $9,500 assistants. Now he has three $10,000 a year men and the house yesterday passed a bill to add six secretaries at $10,000 a year salary for each.

The records do not show the actual number of persons at work in the White House. The budget provides that the President may borrow such help as he needs from other departments.

power in an executive body consisting of three rather than one individual.

The general theme of the debate centered about the same possibility—that the large secretariat hinted at the assumption of dictatorial powers by the President.

Asks Six Year Presidency.

Representative Donald H. McLean [R., N. J.] introduced an amendment restricting the terms of the President to six years. It also was ruled out as not germane.

Another amendment by Representative Harold Knutson [R., Minn.] providing that no person over 70 years of age should be appointed to one of the new positions was defeated, 120 to 48.

This reference to a prominent phase of the recent Supreme court bill fight brought forth the comment from Gifford that "this bill is a sop to the President in his bitterness over defeat of his court packing measure. Instead, the congress packs the White House."

Court Upholds $306,239 Tax on James Curtis Estate

Acting County Judge Albert E. Isley yesterday upheld an inheritance tax assessment of $306,239 against the $2,123,344 estate of James C. Curtis, head of a casket manufacturing company, who died June 9, 1936. Attorneys for the First National bank, executors of the estate, had appealed to the County court from the assessment by an appraiser appointed by the court, asserting it was $240,215 too high. The bulk of the estate left by Mr. Curtis was placed in trust for a half brother, John C. Curtis, 614 Wenonah avenue, Oak Park, and a niece, Mrs. Grace Watson of Rochester, N. Y.

JUNK WORKER DIES OF BURNS.

Leland Ankebrandt, 26 years old, of 170 Pick avenue, Elmhurst, died of burns in Elmhurst hospital yesterday after a gasoline tank exploded while he was using an acetylene torch to cut up a used car at a junk yard west of Villa road in York township, Du Page county.

4,000 CROWD TAX OFFICE; MILLION PAID DURING DAY

Bring Total Receipts Above $5,000,000.

More than a million dollars in 1936 taxes was collected yesterday as a crowd of 4,000 property owners thronged the office of County Treasurer Horace G. Lindheimer in the county building to pay their bills before the penalty deadline. When the office closed at 5 p. m. total collections for the day amounted to $1,024,064.

Yesterday's receipts brought to more than $5,000,000 the payments on 1936 tax bills. Comparative figures will not be available until after the penalty deadline, but Lindheimer said the payments this year are being made more promptly and by more persons than in previous years. Many are paying their real estate tax bills in full, although the second instalment is not due until Dec. 1.

Next Sunday is the deadline for the first instalment payment as set by the legislature. Because of delay in getting out the bills Treasurer Lindheimer said there will be a thirty day period of grace after the last bill is mailed, probably by the end of this week. He urged every one, however, to pay bills promptly to avoid an even greater rush next month.

Thousands of persons telephoned the county building yesterday asking about the deadline and the possibility of an extension. Before Mr. Lindheimer explained the situation several callers were erroneously informed that the deadline was Aug. 31.

COURT ENJOINS MASS PICKETING BY C. I. O. UNION

A temporary injunction restraining members of a Committee for Industrial Organization union from mass picketing and violence at the Bike-Web Manufacturing company's plant in South Bend was issued after a hearing yesterday in the federal court of Judge Walter C. Lindley.

In issuing the opinion, which limited pickets to ten with not more than two abreast, Judge Lindley held it was the inalienable right of an individual to work and declared that striking workers may resort to peaceful persuasion but not force, intimidation, or violence on loyal workers.

The Kendall company, parent organization of the Bike-Web company, which manufactures athletic appurtenances, applied for the writ upon expiration of a preliminary injunction obtained after the plant closed June 21. Three thousand strikers resisted five attempts by United States deputy marshals to conduct sixty workers into the plant June 22.

TREASURY KEEPS SECRET LETTER TO MRS. ROOSEVELT

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 27.—[Special.]—A refusal to make public the ruling under which Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, wife of the President, was enabled to avoid income taxes on her radio income was voiced today by Acting Secretary of the Treasury Roswell B. Magill.

A controversy has raged over this subject since Representative Hamilton Fish [R., N. Y.] accused Mrs. Roosevelt of evading taxes on $40,000 she received for radio broadcasts. Of that amount $30,000 was turned directly over to charity, an agent got $6,000, and Miss Nancy Cook, friend of Mrs. Roosevelt, received $4,000.

Replying to Fish's letter today, Magill wrote, in part:

"Taxpayers frequently request the opinion of the bureau as to how a particular transaction should be dealt with on their tax returns and the bureau in large numbers of such cases has replied. Seldom are these rulings made public."

The certificate above, differently numbered, appears each day except Sunday. 12 Mark Twain Certificates, each differently numbered, qualify the holder to receive a set of two volumes of "The Complete Works of Mark Twain" (in twenty-four volumes) in accordance with the terms of the Chicago Tribune's Good Will offer.

STEEL CO. ASKS COURT ORDER TO PREVENT RIOTING

One Killed and 100 Hurt in Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., July 27.—[Special.]—The Republic Steel corporation today sought a court order limiting picketing at its Corrigan-McKinney plant in an effort to prevent a recurrence of the rioting yesterday and this morning in which one man was killed and more than 100 injured.

Over the objections of C. I. O. counsel, Chief Justice Homer G. Powell of the Common Pleas court ordered a hearing tomorrow.

Republic attorneys asked the court to fix the number of pickets at each entrance of the plant and to issue an injunction against interference with workers.

Crowd Close to Plant.

Between 2,000 and 3,000 strikers and sympathizers, who remained near the plant all of yesterday, continued nearby most of the time today.

Stones were thrown again this morning during the change of shifts, but there were no outbreaks as serious as those that sent some eighty persons to hospitals yesterday. Workers and strikers fought a five hour pitched battle in the middle of the night in one of the worst periods of violence in this city's history.

With police concentrated at the steel mill, vandalism went almost unchecked in other sections of the city. Jars of paint were thrown into homes of four knitting mill workers. A bomb did $5,000 damage to a meat market. Windows were smashed in steel workers' homes, and newly painted houses, finished without benefit of union approval, were sprayed with stain.

C. I. O. Blames Republic.

The C. I. O. claimed today it would show that "paid agents and hired thugs" of the Republic company were responsible for all of last night's fighting.

B. J. Damich, regional director of the John L. Lewis steel union and a defendant in the company's court action, requested an investigation by the senate civil liberties committee.

"All of the trouble last night," he said, "was instigated by paid agents and hired thugs of Republic Steel. This will be proved during trial of the injunction suit."

19 SAN FRANCISCO HOTELS, SHUT FOR 88 DAYS, TO OPEN

San Francisco, Cal., July 27.—(AP)—San Francisco's nineteen major hotels, closed eighty-eight days by a strike, will reopen tomorrow, operators and union spokesmen announced tonight after a conference had settled difficulties involving non-striking groups.

New contract demands of unions not on strike thwarted plans to reopen the darkened buildings today, after members of six unions which walked out May 1 had accepted peace terms by an overwhelming vote.

Negotiations between the operators, engineers, and laundrymen, last groups to present demands, were completed tonight. Operators estimated the strike had deprived them of revenue which would have totaled 6½ million dollars for the eighty-eight days, and strike headquarters placed the loss in wages at more than a half million.

BOY'S DEATH HELD ACCIDENT.

A verdict of accidental death was returned yesterday at the inquest on the death Sunday of Robert F. Christin, 5 years old, 1436 South Elmwood avenue, Berwyn. He fell from a window in the home of a friend at 6810 South Talman avenue.

MRS. VIRGINIA ARCHER.

Mrs. Virginia Flitcraft Archer, 27 years old, 435 South Grove avenue, Oak Park, was granted an uncontested divorce yesterday on grounds of desertion from Laurence Archer, 41, of Benton Harbor, Mich., district manager of the American Fruit Growers' association. Her attorney, Robert Cantwell Jr., told Judge Joseph B. David that Mrs. Archer was given a property settlement of $10,000 and $50 a month for support of Joan, 7 years old, for whom a trust fund also was established.

ROOSEVELT LISTS RULES FOR PRESS AT INTERVIEWS

Washington, D. C., July 27.—(AP)—President Roosevelt redefined today the rules governing publication of his remarks at press conferences.

Basically, he retained the four categories of treatment that have been in effect since he entered the White House. But he revised their definitions to prevent what he termed any misunderstanding by interviewers.

1. Background: Remarks which can be attributed to the President without direct quotation.

2. Direct quotation: Presidential remarks may be printed within quotation marks when specifically authorized.

3. Information not to be attributed to the President: Mr. Roosevelt said this treatment rarely would be required, but that when it is the information involved can be attributed neither to him nor the White House.

4. Off the record: Information that must be kept confidential and not published in any manner.

Correspondents had requested a new definition of "background" because of some confusion as to its meaning.

RATION FOOD IN BUFFALO TRUCK STRIKE'S TIEUP

Buffalo, N. Y., July 27.—[Special.]—Storekeepers rationed out supplies to customers here today as 2,000 striking grocery truck drivers and butchers deadlocked with employers in a new attempt to settle the week old food strike.

Butchers estimated meat supplies would last only three days. Harassed housewives found that retail stores had virtually been emptied of eggs, butter, and poultry.

Leaders of 1,000 idle American Federation of Labor drivers gave the peace conference an ultimatum that they would hold out "for a closed shop or nothing." The companion strike of 1,000 C. I. O. butchers at three major packing plants also continued deadlocked.

WAGE AND HOUR MEASURE COMES BEFORE SENATE

Current of Opposition Grows Stronger.

BY CHESLY MANLY.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 27.—[Special.]—Facing a strong undercurrent of opposition, the administration's minimum wage, maximum hour, and child labor bill was brought up for consideration in the senate today, with desultory debate led by Senator Hugo L. Black [D., Ala.], co-author and chairman of the committee on education and labor.

Senator Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky, majority leader, threatened to call sessions an hour earlier if the senate does not pass the bill tomorrow. The senate, however, did not appear much interested.

Fear House Action.

Many senators say they are not opposed to the senate bill as it stands, but that they are afraid a more drastic measure will be passed by the house. A conference committee then would be stacked against the opposition.

Organized labor is opposed to the principle of fixing wages and hours by federal decree and is distinctly cool to the drastically modified senate bill, which has guarantees designed to protect collective bargaining agreements and is intended to operate in a limited field not ordinarily reached by collective bargaining.

Senator Black recognized the widespread opposition of southern senators and representatives, who oppose the bill because they fear that the board, in the exercise of its vast discretionary authority, will upset the existing geographical wage differential between southern and northern industries.

Vandenberg War Looms.

One of the major controversies in connection with the wage and hour bill is expected to come when Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg [R., Mich.] offers his amendments to require responsibility on the part of labor unions.

Originally intended to be offered as amendments to the Wagner labor relations act, Senator Vandenberg's proposals would prohibit unions from coercing workers into becoming members; prohibit compulsory union assessments for political purposes, and prohibit strikes called without approval by a majority of the workers.

Fire Next Door Adds to 9 Jail Inmates' Troubles

Fire broke out in an unoccupied two story frame building at 119 West Chicago avenue, adjoining the Chicago avenue police station, early this morning and sent dense smoke pouring into the station and the lockup downstairs, where nine prisoners were held for the night. The blaze was extinguished by firemen before it could reach the station.

EDUCATOR TAKES STAND TO DENY ASSAULT CHARGE

Not Enthusiastic Over Prayer, He Says.

Greenfield, Mass., July 27.—[Special.]—White haired Thomas E. Elder, former dean of the Mount Hermon School for Boys, testified today of his lack of enthusiasm for a session of prayer arranged by his associates to clear up an alleged kissing episode between him and his red haired stenographer.

The educator, who is 60 years old, is on trial for assault with intent to kill S. Allen Norton, former cashier at the school. Norton said he spied on Elder and the young woman through a hole he bored for the purpose between their offices.

The defense rested its case this afternoon soon after Elder had completed four hours of testimony before a jury in the court of Justice Thomas J. Hammond.

Successor Dies in Mystery.

Elder said that Dr. Henry F. Cutler, former headmaster of the school, called him and Norton to the Cutler home to discuss the dean's reported indiscretions. Cutler was succeeded as headmaster by the youthful Dr. Elliott Speer, who was mysteriously slain in his study three years ago.

"Dr. Cutler told me of Norton's accusation," Elder testified. "I said it was a damn lie. Mrs. Elder and Mrs. Cutler were there, so I asked Dr. Cutler to take the ladies out so I could give Norton a thrashing.

"Two days later Dr. Cutler again called Norton and me to his home to pray about the affair. I told Dr. Cutler I was not enthusiastic about the prayer, but we knelt down and prayed. Norton prayed that he might be forgiven his habit of spying. I asked God to forgive him also.

"Three days after the session of prayer Norton came to my office highly agitated and asked me if I would talk to him about the accusation. He said that all his life he had been a Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde and that he couldn't help it, but he wanted to reform.

"I told him that if he really meant it, if he really wanted to reform, I would forgive him; that I bore him no malice, no ill feeling. I told him that if he ever needed help he could come to me as he had come before."

Like the stenographer, Miss Evelyn Dill, who preceded him on the stand, Elder denied he had taken liberties with her.

CROWD OF VICTIMS HEARS EMBEZZLER GET 2 YEAR TERM

Harry Besterfield, 55 years old, 6431 South Morgan street, was sentenced to two years in the Bridewell and fined $200 by Judge Frank M. Padden in Felony court yesterday on charges of obtaining money under false pretense from 25 persons, most of whom were in court. The complainants said they gave Besterfield, proprietor of a currency exchange at 1540 West 63d street, a total of about $500 to pay their real estate taxes, but that he kept the money.

CONGRESS ADDS $50,000,000 FOR USE OF THE NAVY

Washington, D. C., July 27.—(AP)—Senate action sent to the White House today a bill authorizing construction of six naval auxiliary vessels at a maximum cost of $50,000,000.

The senate agreed to house amendments to the bill, which provide for a new seaplane tender, destroyer tender, mine sweeper, submarine tender, fleet tug and oil supply ship.

The chief house amendment specified that not less than 50 per cent of the ships should be built in government navy yards, and authorized a 6 per cent preference for bids received from Pacific coast builders.

PARTY OF REDS LOSES PLACE AT NEW YORK POLLS

Albany, N. Y., July 27.—(AP)—New York's Court of Appeals today barred the communist party from the official state ballot as a recognized political organization. That party asserted it was an "official party" because it polled at least 25,000 votes for governor in 1934. Of that the court's opinion said: "This amendment became a law on May 16, 1935. There was an election to be held in November of that year, but it was not a gubernatorial election. The communist party would be a party for that election. When, however, at the election for governor in 1936 it polled less than 50,000 thereafter it ceased to be a party."

THE SOUTH MEETS THE MORE ABUNDANT LIFE.

Representative John E. Rankin, Mississippi Democrat and one of the leading members of the party in the house, has taken down his squirrel rifle and gone after the national labor relations board. He said that he would appeal to the President to remove the present members or force them to change their conduct. The only alternative, he said, was for congress to change or repeal the Wagner labor act.

"I shall oppose appropriating another dollar for the expenses of the board until its representatives cease their communistic activities by which they are stirring up strife in every section of the country and especially in the southern states."

Mr. Rankin said he had affidavits from responsible people in Tupelo that representatives of the labor relations board boasted they were going to close every factory in the city before they quit. He accused them of forcing the liquidation of the cotton mill in Tupelo, of throwing the employés out of work, and of using brutal tactics in trying to destroy the garment factories. The people of the state, he said, are in revolt.

The prejudiced attitude of representatives of this board has been noted in many sections. In Chicago in one hearing the members acted as judge, prosecutor and jury to produce an unfair investigation of a labor relations dispute.

It has been apparent for some time that most of the reformist program in Washington would receive an inhospitable reception in the south, although southern congressmen were supporting it. Subsidies and grants of money were as welcome there as they were anywhere else. Much of the AAA program benefited planters and the persons injured were the negligible classes. The people who were bad off before Mr. Wallace went to work on them were afterwards worse off, but they didn't count much politically. Such acts as the Wagner labor law and the pending minimum wage and maximum hour bill will not be accepted by southern industrialists.

Nearly everything on Mr. Roosevelt's "must" program, "desired" if you're for it, will soon find its strongest opposition in the south. The legend of one-third ill-clothed, ill-housed and ill-fed can be better authenticated by records there than anywhere else. The communist members of the C. I. O. organizing staf are eager to extend their activities into the section of the country which contains so great a diversity of population and such inequalities in standards of living. Every time they have appeared in a southern region trouble has followed immediately. The very social perplexities and inequalities of the south invite the agitator if he can be sure of anything like the governmental support he has received in the north.

In fact, the institutions which the southern politicians intend shall prevail haven't been so threatened since reconstruction days as they are now by the tactics of the C. I. O. and the labor relations board. Although the north has thought that some of these conditions ought not to continue, the general disposition has been to allow the south to work out its own difficult problems, and there are men in the south trying to do so.

The national administration's reform adventurists cannot forever throw themselves against northern industry and forever allow the south to manage its own affairs. Mr. Rankin is not the first southerner to apprehend the seriousness of the situation, but many of his associates have made it possible for the administration to press further ahead with the measures which the north has reason to know are dangerous.

Southerners cannot expect that all the trouble will be confined to the north. If the communistically directed rioters of the north find that they can rely upon government indulgence and when necessary get government support, they'll turn to the rich field offered by the south, and the battle will be on. Washington cannot very well divide the country into two sections and do everything in the one and nothing in the other.

ROUTE 54.

"All roads lead to Rome," was the proud boast of the Eternal city, but it was not faced with a problem of congested streets. In these days of motorized transport such a condition is more or less of a handicap. A highway plan fashioned after the spokes of a wheel has given way to the spider web design because, however welcome visitors may be, it is to their interest as well as that of Chicago to give them the opportunity of bypassing the business sections if they so desire.

The completion of a safety highway in route 54 over the Sag channel, the sanitary district canal, the Des Plaines river, and three railway lines marks a long step in the modernization of Chicagoland highways. Not only will it offer conveniences to motorists detouring the Chicago business district, but provide easier access to the several districts of the city. The tourist has but to determine the section of Chicago that he wishes to visit and then follow route 54 to an intersection with the main highway that will pass closest to his destination. It will also serve as a means of communication between our suburbs.

The aërial photograph as published in THE TRIBUNE will give the public an opportunity to visualize how such a road will interconnect elevated highways that must sooner or later lead from such transverse arteries toward the center of the city. The view seems to emphasize the pity that the elevated ribs should be constructed before the elevated backbones.

DEMOCRATIC FAUNTLEROY.

Vivian Burnett died Sunday of heart disease at the wheel of his yawl, Delight III., at the age of 61. He undoubtedly brought on the attack by his efforts in rescuing four persons from an overturned sailboat off Manhasset, N. Y.

Burnett was the stalwart son of Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, who wrote "Little Lord Fauntleroy." He was Mrs. Burnett's second son, born in Paris, spending his childhood in Europe and Washington, D. C., a graduate of Harvard in the class of '98 and an athlete in school.

"Little Lord Fauntleroy" was intended to have one effect and it was Vivian Burnett's misfortune that it had two. The primary value of the romantic story was as a song of triumph for democratic virtues. Little Cedric, the son of the old earl's son, disowned because he had married an American, was recalled to his ancestral acres because the gouty old man had lost his eldest son and heir.

A supposedly vulgarian American mother and her offspring therefore had to be called back to England. Something had to be done for the redemption of the son, but the mother was sequestrated in a cottage.

The real story was the story of a sturdy democratic youth whose frank and winning approach to every sort of person finally broke down the stubborn dislikes of the earl and brought everybody to a more democratic view of life.

Democracy was to have triumphed in this yarn. It did prove itself invincible in the little lord's assumptions and innocent illusion that in a caste society there was no difference between the footman, the greengrocer, and the old earl of an ancient lineage.

Unfortunately for Vivian Burnett, romantic mothers liked to dress their little boys in velvet breeches and sweet adornments and keep them in their curls. The period was one in which mother dreaded to have the kid's hair cut because she thought that when that was done it was the first step in the inevitable losing of him. So long as his curls were down to his shoulders the little cherub was hers and nobody could take him away from her.

The pictures of little Lord Fauntleroy drawn by Reginald Birch showed the opposite of one of Mark Twain's kids, giving the effect of a preposterous Oscar Wilde estheticism, and here in this country these pictures made thousands of American mothers determined that their offspring should not only be noble minded but nobly dressed.

In sections where the infection took hold badly there are men of post-meridian age who still remember "Little Lord Fauntleroy" with a feeling of horror. Burnett himself often said that he felt as if he were haunted. He said that he could write a book about what Fauntleroy had done to him, he being a boy who got himself "just as damn dirty as other boys."

Little Lord Fauntleroy went on the stage in the clothes Mr. Birch and Mrs. Burnett put on him, and Tommy Russell, who played the part as a kid, also fell under the blight. Russell and Burnett were large, muscular fellows, devoted to sports and what the movies later knew as the he-man life, and forever they wore those black velvet breeches. Burnett probably exclaimed that thank heavens when he died he would have those breeches off.

And yet the yarn has given pleasure to succeeding generations. It is still a story of democracy, and if Mrs. Burnett could have made Tom Sawyer or Huckleberry Finn break down the citadels of caste the theme would have been perfectly executed. The finish should have been a picture of Tom or Huck teaching the earl to bait a hook with angleworms and fish for bullheads.

PEP TALK CONCERNING WEEDS.

Niles Center has taken the lead in this area in the war against weeds. Under the direction of the local authorities seven square miles of weed-infested prairie are to be burned over. The work is to be completed before the plants pollenize. Hay fever victims will benefit and the appearance of the area in this and subsequent years will be greatly improved.

Because of the fire hazard the method adopted in Niles Center is not applicable in more closely settled communities. If progress is to be made within the city each neighborhood will have to organize its own campaign. Householders who expect some one else to do the work of improving the appearance of their streets will be disappointed.

The way to police up the vacant lots is to organize the neighbors for the purpose. A half dozen men and boys with scythes and rakes can do the job and it will be a wholesome and healthful experience for them.

A neighborhood which takes pride in its appearance is a good neighborhood to live in. It advertises the permanence of its real estate values. It gives prospective purchasers a substantial assurance that the people in the vicinity take pride in their homes and mean to keep them.

Neighborhood weed clubs can be improvised over night. A few dollars will buy any needed tools. Competition between adjoining blocks might stimulate interest. Prizes and side bets might help. The ladies can serve lemonade, boss the job, and look fetching in sunbonnets and ginghams. A lot of fun and wholesome exercise will reward the participants and the victims of hay fever will bless the toilers forever and ever.

MINDING ONE'S BUSINESS.

[Columbus Dispatch.]

Out in Decatur, Ill., an 83 year old man has just completed 40 years of playing Canfield solitaire. During that long period he has played over 200,000 games, which, allowing his estimate of 10 minutes to a game, means that he has put in something like 11 or 12 years out of the 40 trying to outdo his hypothetical opponent.

There are those who will decry this as a colossal waste of time on a mere game, time which they say might have been spent in some constructive endeavor. But who is wise enough to judge? We don't know the gentleman or even his name, but it's reasonable to suppose he might have occupied himself to a lot worse advantage.

At least he hasn't been giving unwelcome advice to bridge players, turning on radio programs no one else wanted to hear or in numerous other ways irritating folks. He hasn't even spent money buying or paying rental on books. His has been a quiet, inexpensive and unobstructive hobby. He has kept himself amused and out of other people's business, and if his inoffensive passion for interminable session of Canfield solitaire hasn't contributed much of anything to the thought, manners, or modes of his time, it at least has the negative value of having prevented him from making a nuisance of himself. It's hard to quarrel with a man who sits quietly in a corner and plays solitaire.

JOURNALISTIC TOUCH.

One of our weekly papers printed a special edition late Thursday night. A man from another state had confessed to a murder within the borders of our county. He was in our jail. On Saturday warm sunshine and peace were together over the village square; shoppers sought their food supplies for Sunday; cooler clothes were being bought; girls went by, just as in Chicago and New York, in shorts and slacks; a lot of our men were out on the golf course, some satisfied they would have scored better if they hadn't gone to the opera in St. Louis the night before. . . . Came strange newsboys, calling "Local Man Confessed," and we, wondering what new crime had been committed, hastily bought a copy of a city paper. A bigtown reporter had been out here and all about, and we learned from his account that Thursday's prisoner was in our jail. But the big feature was that "a mob of men and women clad in overalls and Mother Hubbards" were mad and "menacing around the jail." So now the truth is told; we're just hillbillies bad and bold.

PHLEBITIS NEED NOT BE SERIOUS.

WE are reminded of the patient who, when told that she had phlebitis, exclaimed that she did not see how that could possibly be because there were no fleas about the home; furthermore, she did not keep a dog. The word refers to veins and the condition is essentially a disease of the vessels of the lower extremities. Varicosed veins—those that are enlarged and tortuous—are favorite sites. The disease is characterized by the clotting of blood within a channel through which it returns to the heart. Later inflammation may ensue. Pressure alone can be the inciting cause, but in many patients the origin lies in some infection, in which case the term septic phlebitis is used.

As we know, the blood makes its way from the extremities toward the heart largely because of muscular activity. When this is decreased the current becomes sluggish. Changes in the walls of the blood channels may thus come about or because bacteria have fastened themselves upon the inner linings of the tubes.

Where does the infection come from? Teeth and tonsils have been blamed, and justifiably so. But many cases arise because the victim has been subjected to some surgical procedure and lowered resistance, plus rest in bed, has culminated in the formation of a clot. Childbed fever probably supplies the largest number of cases.

The first symptom may be a dull ache which, within a day or two, is followed by considerable edema [enlargement of the part] because the block [clot] within a large vein obliges the return flow to find new avenues in order to reach the pumping organ. In some instances the engorgement of the tissues is excessive, with the skin tight and the limb painful.

After any surgical operation or any long illness the posture of the patient in bed may be responsible. Remaining in one position for too long should be avoided, and sitting up for two or three hours may, at times, be particularly hazardous. We may ward off many of these affairs through the use of deep breathing and mild exercises even while the individual is at rest. Unless the disease from which the invalid is suffering prohibits its use, a diet high in calories plus thyroid extract by mouth is recommended.

This means that one with varicose veins should take due precautions from the beginning, especially if that one is obliged to remain in bed for more than a few days. The practice of putting a pillow beneath the knees may be comforting, but the pad, if used at all, should be very soft, as otherwise the very weight of the leg against the support will affect the stream of blood through important leg veins.

Unfortunately, clots that may be only an inch or so in length at the outset may increase greatly in extent; in fact, occasionally they will fill the entire vein. When this happens great care must be observed to keep the patient quiet. The leg is elevated and is bandaged tightly to prevent the upward extension of the process. Straining at stool must be avoided. If assistance is required, glycerin suppositories will be found useful.

Whenever a deep vein is involved, from two to three weeks must elapse before the swelling will begin to subside. This may require daily readjustment of the bandage, possibly the wearing of an elastic stocking. Clots occurring in the superficial veins—those that can be seen beneath the skin—can be prevented from traveling by a firm band fixed at the upper level of the block. More often than not wrappings which are tight and firm will greatly relieve the pain and be most grateful to the patient.

Because of the discomfort, many victims or their well meaning friends are tempted to stroke or massage the affected limb. We do not desire to loosen a clot and thus send it on a dangerous mission. The objective is to hold it in its present location. If free to go where it will, serious lung complications may ensue.

We may say then that phlebitis is a fairly serious affliction, but one which, if well managed, need not lead to unpleasant consequences. We may guard against it by maintaining a normal amount of activity and by avoiding infection.

GLASSES BY MAIL.

W. N. writes:

1. How successful is X-ray in the fitting of glasses? Can one use it and order glasses by mail?

2. I bought two pairs of shoes recently. I tried them on first in order to get a good fit. No two pairs had the same size numbers.

How can one know when he is correctly fitted? Is there such a thing as standardization here?

REPLY.

1. Some one is trying to "sell" you. The only way you can obtain suitable glasses is to go to an oculist or an ophthalmologist and have him test your eyes. He then will give you a prescription from which the lenses can be made. You can order by mail if you already have an accurate prescription; otherwise not. All glasses aren't the same and incorrect spectacles will do more harm than good.

2. The best way to tell if your shoes fit correctly is by the feel. If they are comfortable and offer good support to the foot, that is all one can ask.

INJURED THUMB.

C. C. writes: Recently a window slammed on my thumb. When I touch the back of it I receive a shock.

What could cause this? It feels all right otherwise.

REPLY.

A sensitive nerve filament which lies close to the surface of the skin. On general principles, have an X-ray of your thumb. A fixed, unbending joint may result when a fractured bone is allowed to heal without replacement.

MORNING HEADACHE.

J. M. H. writes: What are the causes of morning headache?

REPLY.

Constipation, eyestrain, and sinus infections are the ordinary causes. A badly ventilated bedroom or the leakage of gas or fumes from a gas range should be considered. Pillows piled too high may interfere with circulation and result in headache. A morning headache which comes on day after day may be associated with chronic kidney disease, and a careful check of the urine should be made. First of all, have the eyes examined.

BARKING DOGS.

Chicago, July 24.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—1. Can I do anything to stop the two dogs in the house next door from everlastingly barking? They bark all day at any one they see or anything they hear. At night they are put into the basement, but the windows, which are left open in warm weather, are right under my bedroom window and we are awakened by them every few minutes.

2. Does the fact that the owner is supposed to have a license for them make any difference? J. S.

We suggest that you try complaining to the police.

YACHTMAN'S PARADISE.

Chicago, July 24.—Reading what Beachcomber has to say about the lack of facilities on Chicago's great lake front leads me to believe he lacks only a little appreciation of the facilities that are provided for yachts of all types.

Having personal acquaintance with most of the yacht harbors in the United States, I feel Chicago is better supplied with better yacht harbor facilities, better supervised than any other city in the country. The fleets of this fast growing sport located along Chicago's entire thirty mile waterfront combined cannot be surpassed by any other city except New York, where, however, the city itself offers extremely meager facilities, forcing yachtsmen to travel long distances and mostly to other states to do their yachting.

One proof of Chicago's excellent yachting position is today's start of the annual race to Mackinac island, which commenced in 1898. About 45 sailing yachts will cross the starting line. They number among them this country's finest. All but a few are Chicago owned. No other city or group of cities duplicates this turnout.

HENRY W. RUBINKMAN,
Chicago Yacht Club.

UN-AMERICAN.

Chicago, July 23.—I was much interested in the letter from R. W. Stone, associate professor of industrial relations, University of Chicago, that appeared in the Voice of the People a couple of days ago. What particularly interested me about it was this statement made by the professor:

"The word un-American was not used by me in my talk, and does not properly belong in an academician's vocabulary." [The professor was denying that he had referred to the C. I. O. as un-American.]

Why does the word un-American "not properly belong in an academician's vocabulary"? It is a word in good standing in the main vocabulary of Webster, latest edition of the International. It is not marked as slang, cant, vulgar, colloquial, provincial, or obscene. It is defined as follows:

"Not American; not characteristic of, or consistent with American customs, principles, etc." HENRY C. SEITLER.

THE NOTION COUNTER.

McHenry, Ill., July 25.—A suggestion: That mail, passenger, and pleasure planes on land or sea be supplied free with a carrier pigeon, as the Boatmen's association of Freeport, N. Y., does to the boatman leaving that port. It would, perhaps, save some lives were they lost or hurt. Anyway, it would make it easier and less expensive for scouting parties to find the remains if that should be their sad fate. MCK.

THE CAMEL AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

Chicago, July 24.—I know the king and queen of England were very much disappointed when King Carol's girl friend did not find it convenient to be present at the dinner at Buckingham palace. Some folk do strain at gnats and swallow camels.

MRS. C. R. LEWIS.

PLAYGROUNDS.

Chicago, July 23.—This chasing of children out of yards and lots when there is no recreation grounds near is one of the worst crimes against children today. They end up by playing in the alleys or streets, where their natural impulse to jump or run jeopardizes their lives under the wheels of a truck or auto.

Instead of damning these children, it would be a finer tribute to the child to see that recreation facilities are adequately provided in our neighborhoods. Intelligent supervision of these centers of recreation will result in a more respectful, honest, and healthier child. It is there that they are taught self-control, loyalty, determination, initiative, and sportsmanship, that unsocial acts are punished. They learn the power and rights of others and their own power and rights. Qualities admired in later life are developed and intensified.

If we take care of these children when they are young you and I can rest at ease when we are old. The children will oe looking forward to greater successes as men and women. Our delinquents will be at a minimum. Our parole system will give us no qualms, because interested children make interesting adults. God bless them. THOMAS O'CONNOR.

AN ANALOGY PURSUED.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 23.—On returning from a trip to Colorado I had the pleasure of spending a week in Chicago. In reading THE TRIBUNE of July 20 I noticed a letter written by W. F. Fitzgerald, entitled "Salaries Compared." He said Babe Ruth had been receiving more salary than the President, and he was worth it. He also said what we needed was a $75,000 man in Washington who could really hit the ball. I agree with him. The $75,000 man has been hitting too many fouls, and the longest foul he hit was on the Supreme court, and the senate caught it, and he was out. HARRY W. TAYLOR.

INCORRECT TAX BILLS.

Chicago, July 22.—After reading your news item in today's paper regarding the payment of taxes on property never owned, I thought that it would be well for you to advise your readers of the importance of checking their tax bills with their legal description, because I have recently encountered circumstances of a similar nature wherein owners of property have discovered that they have been paying on their neighbors' property, all due to their failure to check their tax bills with their deeds.

GEORGE F. DOYLE.

THE GRAHAM BILLS.

Lombard, Ill., July 21.—The editorial, "Alimony Row and the Graham Bills," was certainly to be praised. I know of several couples who have been depending on that Graham bill to be married. I know the lawyers in Joliet, Ill., are in favor of it and are trying to get the bill passed.

I think that Gov. Horner is making a big mistake setting himself up as a one man judge of what is constitutional in this state. MRS. W. H. SCOTT.

A Charming Beach Ensemble

WOMAN'S AND MISS' BEACH ENSEMBLE.

Sturdy cottons, such as crash, piqué, shantung, chintz, or India prints, are the perfect mediums for this beach ensemble. You may wear the shorts and top to the beach instead of a swim suit, if you prefer not to go into the water, but, rather, to get a sun bath only. One may, of course, wear the garment over one's swim suit, if she so desires. The shorts outfit has a comfortable top with secure shoulder straps. A rather wide belt fits the garment snugly to the figure. The shorts are profusely plaited to give the appearance of a brief skirt. They have none of the all too revealing unpleasantness of ordinary shorts.

We think the little beach coat is a dream. It has comfortable kimono sleeves and wraps generously around the figure with a sash. If you like, a pocket may grace the skirt of the coat, just to carry things such as locker key and cigarets. One lovely thing about this coat is its new short length, so popular this season. You can make this coat in a jiffy and wear it soon to beach parties.

Style No. 2897 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, and 20 years, and 32, 34, 36, 38, and 40 inches bust measurement. Size 16 requires 2¼ yards of 39 inch material for the shorts, with 2⅛ yards of 39 inch fabric for the coat.

Men Approve Merry Widow Fashion Trend

BY DORIS LOCKERMAN.

Two thousand men went shopping with their wives last night in the Lagoon theater on the lake front. They were guests, along with an equal number of out of town buyers, of the Style Creators of Chicago, viewing the first fashion show of original Chicago dress designs that has been open to the public.

They were told, and they saw, as mannekins walked past, just what their wives will bring home to wear this fall. Now it will be no surprise to them that the Merry Widow fashions of the 1900s are back, nor that the low waists and short, split skirts of a decade ago have reclaimed the designer's fancy.

In a pageant of fashion interpolated with songs, dances, and speeches, they learned that they may expect:

In color: Demi-tasse brown, siren green, gendarme blue, king's blue, ingénue beige, and plain black.

In material: Lamé and sequins velvet and ermine, with touches of mink and sable, for evening, and nubby tweeds and woolens for street wear.

In silhouette, anything: The corselette waist for evening, the fitted, princess style for cocktail frocks, and boxlike loose coats for street.

In length: Close to knee length for street clothes, and a wavering hemline, up in front and down in back, for evening.

In adjectives: Opulent, sophisticated, and glamorous.

There were other details, too, that the women watched eagerly. One evening dress, with a lone strap over one shoulder holding it up, won a murmur of approval. Another, a draped Grecian velvet, described as patrician, earned applause.

Furs—Fox, mink, sable, and kolinsky in capes and evening wraps, and the sturdy lynx, badger and raccoon trimming day coats, were a high note. A return of the dress and coat ensemble of a few years ago was announced with a sheer wool short sleeved black dress, and over it a fur fabric jacket with a tuxedo front.

And, as the womenfolk sighed over a form fitting black sequin model, one man sized up the trend.

"As far as I can see," he said, "that dress looks like Diamond Lil . . . but, then, she's all right, too. That number and a couple of others have convinced me that you women are getting smart. Beginning to dress like women again. . . ."

Yesterday's style revue, presented as an official style event of the city's Charter Jubilee celebration, will be repeated Tuesday night, Aug. 3, at the same place.

Stage Festival Draws Throngs to Central City

BY JUDITH CASS.

JUST as in 1859, when the news of John H. Gregory's discovery of gold, "Gregory's Diggings," it was called, brought 50,000 prospectors from every part of the country to Central City, Colo., so the annual play festival in the old opera house is bringing drama lovers, dignitaries, and social figures from all parts of the globe to that glamorous little ghost mining town in the high Rockies, our correspondent reports.

The Central City Opera house was opened in 1878 for the entertainment of the boisterous, successful miners, and until the rumble of ore wagons ceased it was the scene of rich and varied dramatic fare. In 1932 the theater was lighted again for a play festival revival with Miss Lillian Gish in the title rôle of "Camille." The season was only a week long that summer, but it has been stretched to three weeks this year, with Henrik Ibsen's "The Doll House" as the featured play.

There are many Chicagoans among the huge crowds that have gone to the reawakened mining town. Included in the William Nitzes' party on opening night was their daughter, Mrs. Walter P. Paepcke, who motored to Central City from her new ranch near Colorado Springs to attend a performance of the play that is given in modern idiom supplied by Thornton Wilder from the Norwegian dramatist's work.

The old Teller house, Central City's most famous hotel, was filled and the Nitzes and their guests spent the night in the quaint Chain o' Mines hotel, farther up Eureka street. This is the street on which the opera house also is located, and which runs through Gregory gulch where gold first was discovered, at a nearby perpendicular angle.

Visit Mountain Top Studio of Boris Anisfeld.

To attend the play Mr. and Mrs. James Kearns of Winnetka motored over the peak to peak highway from Estes park, as did the Convers Goddards and their son, George. The Harold C. Pynchons and their daughter, Mrs. James A. Drain Jr., were also among the Chicagoans seen there. With them were Earl H. Reed's daughters, Dorothy and Joanne.

They all made the climb to visit Boris Anisfeld, Chicago artist, in his mountain top house and studio, which was bought in 1932 for $35 by his daughter, Marochka, now Mrs. Otis Chatfield Taylor. Many of these cliff houses, long deserted, had reverted to the city for unpaid taxes, but now are being bought and restored by art enthusiasts.

Before the play begins an orchestra is heard from the balcony of the theater. The play is a Jed Harris production, and as beautifully done as one could wish, writes our correspondent. Ruth Gordon, Dennis King, Sam Jaffee, Walter Slezak, and others are in the cast.

Other attractions for visitors are the barn dances, led by Dr. Lloyd Shaw, superintendent of the Cheyenne Mountain High school of Colorado Springs, who is an authority on pioneer dances. The dances are held in the Williams Livery stable, opposite the Teller house. Going into gold mines is another thrill for dudes.

The Arthur Cables are enthusiastic attendants of these annual drama festivals. They usually motor to Central City from their ranch in Santa Fe, N. M. Mrs. William Gold Hibbard and her sister and niece, Mrs. William B. Hale and Miss Eunice Hale, left Monday by streamline train for Denver to attend the play.

Their car and chauffeur is meeting them at Central City to take them on to Santa Fe, where the Hales have taken a house for the rest of the summer. Mr. Hale and Miss Mary Hale left Chicago Monday also, but their destination is Pasadena. George E. Hale II. departed at the same time, the only member of the family bound directly for Santa Fe. Later on the Indian dances at Gallup, N. M., will claim the attention of the family.

NEW classification of money, as discovered by Mary Ratcliffe of Chicago when she visited her uncle's farm near Benton Harbor last week:

Classification—Coincidence—Incident—Dunmovin—Costume.

Most of a family of nomadic Arkansas hillbillies—there were thirteen of them—had been hired to pick berries. After the working members had been paid, Opal, age 9, rushed up to one of her older brothers and asked: "What she pay you in—foldin' money or rattlin' money?"

A BALL of heavy rope twine found its way into a South Dearborn street shipping room. The packer tried to use it, but found that because of the waxing on the surface it would not tie. After several futile attempts he tossed it into the waste bin.

The next morning the waste bin was empty, the ball of twine back on the shipping table. Realizing that the janitors had decided it was thrown away by mistake, the packer once more tossed it into the waste bin. That happened regularly every morning for three weeks. Then he got tired of the game and fastened a note to the twine reading "throw this away." But the janitors read no English and next morning the twine was back on the shipping table. The packer then took the twine and threw it into an empty box he found outside the building, hoping that would be the last he would see of it.

The office's practical jokester happened to see it there, picked it out, wrapped it in tissue, packed it as a gift, and sent it by messenger to the shipper. This angered him, but not to be outdone, he in turn wrapped it carefully, addressed a parcel post sticker, affixed 8c in stamps, and mailed it to the jokester's home.

That ended the twine matter. It was lost in the mail. The jokester's wife, who knew it had been readdressed to him, waited for it from day to day, but it never came. What the shipper had tried for four weeks to do, Uncle Sam apparently managed in one night.

Children Earn $2.25 to Help Free Ice Fund

A play given by Chicago children on a vacation in Benton Harbor, Mich., brought $2.25 to Chicago's poor babies yesterday.

"I am sending $2.25," wrote Lenore Silver, 5415 Gladys avenue, "for your Tribune ice fund for the poor. I collected it at a children's play at Schwartz's resort. We all will be happy if it does some good."

The money will do good. It will supply ice to two poor families for a week, in answer to beseeching letters received daily at the Tribune Charities.

It may answer, say, the letter of the west side father who wrote:

"Would you please see that I get some ice? I have a 3 weeks' old baby at home, and no ice to keep her milk fresh. My wife died when the baby was born. I am working on the WPA, but there are six in the family, and I can hardly get by on $55 a month."

Yesterday's contributions to the ice fund were:

S. Wilson	$ 5.00
Mrs. Emma M. Falk	2.00
In Memoriam	1.00
Mrs. Dray	5.00
Mrs. Leon Witkowsky	2.50
L. J. F.	50.00
Children's donation, Benton Harbor	2.25
Total	$ 67.75
Previously acknowledged	$1,428.23
Grand total	$1,495.98

The generosity of TRIBUNE readers yesterday will enable five more children from hot, crowded tenement homes to join the happy vacationists at Camp Algonquin, in the Fox river valley. For many of the boys and girls who spend two weeks at Algonquin it is the first outing they have ever had. Yesterday's contributions to Camp Algonquin were:

Stephen A. Payer	$ 12.50
J. K. Salomon	5.00
Anonymous	25.00
Mrs. Leon Witkowsky	2.50
	$ 45.00
Previously acknowledged	$1,307.37
Grand total	$1,352.37

Gifts may be mailed to the Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc., Tribune Square, Chicago. Each will be gratefully acknowledged.

Crowd Cheers Templeton at Park Concert

BY EDWARD BARRY.

The tempest of applause and cheers which swept through Grant park last evening was the spontaneous tribute of an overflowing crowd to a man who has overcome the handicap of blindness and made of himself in a little over twenty years not only a fine pianist but one of the cleverest musical caricaturists of our day.

It was Alec Templeton night on the lake front, with the gifted young Briton playing the Grieg concerto with the Chicago Philharmonic orchestra and adding a generous group of improvisations at the end.

His feats are familiar enough by now, but they have lost not one iota of their wonder. In fact, the patness of his caricature and the keenness of his musical wit become more amazing as time goes on.

He took a meaningless succession of notes and improvised on them in the styles of Bach, Mozart, Johann Strauss, and Gershwin. What he produced was something better than a mere burlesque or take-off. Alec is thoroughly conversant with the peculiarities of each of these composers' styles, and he manages in phrase after phrase to catch their mannerisms with marvelous exactness and to display them lovingly and laughingly for the scrutiny of his audience. The feat was punctuated by innumerable giggles of recognition.

The whole thing would be wonderful even if he were allowed a whole day to prepare such an improvisation. As it is, all the planning is done on the spur of the moment with the notes or the tunes thrown at him from all sides.

Preceding this informal postlude to the program Alec played the Grieg concerto in his introspective, poetic style. He does not make the work brilliant.

In charge last evening was Richard Czerwonky, resident violinist and conductor. One of the program items was his own attractive symphony, a work which displays a fine sense of orchestral coloring and a sentimental regard for the musical graces of long ago.

VAN VACTOR PLEASES

BY CECIL M. SMITH.

Last night the seventh and last of the current series of composers' forums held bi-weekly at federal music headquarters brought forward a quintet for piano and strings by Philip Warner, Chicago radio pianist, and a number of songs by David Van Vactor, flutist of the Chicago Symphony orchestra.

The artists participating in the program were Agatha Lewis, soprano; Marion Hall, pianist; Royal Johnson, violinist, and the Forum string quartet.

Recently the spotlight has begun to be focused upon Mr. Van Vactor and his music. Last spring the Illinois Symphony gave him an opportunity to conduct his "Overture to a Comedy," and Robert Sanders is to repeat it with the same group in next week's outdoor concerts.

As recently as last Saturday Hans Lange led the Chicago Symphony orchestra at Ravinia in an excellent performance of his Concerto for three flutes, harp, and orchestra.

Last night's program showed the gleam of promise latent in some songs written in 1927, when the composer was 21, and the beginning of mature fulfillment in songs written within the last three years. His setting of the "Nachtlied" section of Nietsche's "Also Sprach Zarathustra," enchantingly sung by Miss Lewis, is one of those happy intuitions a good composer sometimes has. Its evasive yet touching music is an excellent mirror of the half lights of Nietsche's philosophic prose poetry.

Mr. Warner's quintet is less distinctive. He does not seem to know what he wants his music to tell us. In consequence he works too hard at his composing, writing too many notes and failing to see that all good music is economical of effort. With some one to show him how to use a pruning knife, his musical gift would flower better.

Tito Schipa's appearance at Grant park has been postponed from Aug. 11 to Monday evening, Aug. 16.

Feathers for Dress Parade

Bright Stripes Feature Fabrics for Fall Wear

BY RHEA SEEGER.

Stripes went the best places and made the smartest of clothes for sports, daytime and evening wear this summer, so the bright contrast of color will be no surprise for the early fall shopper.

Some eye-blinding wools have been unwrapped in a yardage department and promise fall street clothes that offer high visibility. A soft fuzzy wool, fifty-four inches wide, in combines of stunning color, will make the fingers of any smart designer itch to get to work.

Red, bright blue, sage green, and dull yellow are some of the colors that mix with black. There are just enough black stripes to make a stunning contrast, enough dark blue or dark brown with the other gay colors to justify a neat fitted jacket of matching plain wool. Striped wool is especially good for slim, perfectly tailored one piece dresses, or for slim skirts and can be used for jackets to top plain solid colored wool dresses or skirts. The wool is thin and supple and brand new.

Other new wools come in the most exciting new colors we've shopped in years. At last you can shop for queer colors, yellows that look like the preamble to a midsummer thundershower; lovely blues in hydrangea tones, sapphire, green blues, like old fashioned peacock blue, Prussian blue, and all the hitherto difficult blue tones that no one could find. And there are brand new shades of copper browns and the best reds and raspberries ever unpacked. If you like to get the first chance at the newest fabrics see this new showing of early fall woolens.

Arthur Crawford Jr. Wins Honors in Harvard Tests

Cambridge, Mass., July 27.—[Special.]—The highest honors in the history test of the Harvard entrance examinations went to Arthur W. Crawford Jr., 16 years old, of New York City, formerly of Chicago. More than 2,000 took the examinations. Young Crawford, son of Arthur W. Crawford, general manager of the Chicago Tribune-New York News Syndicate, Inc., also took honors in English, French, and chemistry, his test in the languages satisfying the requirements for a degree. The youth attended the Browning school in New York. He is summering with his parents at a New Jersey shore resort.

SYNOPSIS.

Michael Eden, heir to millions, postpones his marriage to Katharine McCann because his foster-father, John Millis, tells him his foster-mother is ill and needs him. Katharine's roommate, Joan, is engaged to Michael's friend, Terry Newton. Michael signs a will making Millis his heir, expecting to change it after his marriage to Katharine. Mrs. Millis attempts suicide when she discovers her husband flirting with her nurse. Michael rescues her and takes her away. Millis tricks Katharine into a ride with him and forces his kisses on her. Amos Newton, uncle of Terry, believes that Millis killed Terry's father, who was Michael's co-guardian. Michael returns to the home of Amos Newton and Katharine and he plan to be married next day, though Michael is ill. That night Michael, in delirium, returns to the Millis home, desperately ill with typhoid fever. Katharine obtains Dr. Kittredge to attend him. Newton tells Katharine that the exhumed body of Michael's real mother showed she died of poisoning. Ferenzi, a self-confessed poisoner, charges that Millis bought typhoid germs from him. Michael is moved to the home of Amos Newton. Millis is murdered in his home.

INSTALMENT XXXIX.

ANOTHER DEATH.

Jameson repeated his question.

"Dr. Kittredge, do you think that Amos Newton has a high regard for law?"

"He has an instinct for it, due to having been reared in a law-abiding family. Whatever impulse he might have to take the law into his own hands, he would inevitably be restrained by the traditions of his family."

"I gather that you do not think Newton killed Millis?"

"He would have nothing to gain, and all to lose. He had no passions involved. It is quite impossible."

"We agree with you," the man said, with a friendly smile. "You've met us in a nice spirit, doctor. Should you care to suggest any theories for us to work on?"

"I might, if I knew something of the circumstances."

Jameson rose, walked over to a door which led from the library into a small study. The study had two doors, the one opening into the library, and one opening directly on the street. He switched on a light. On a great red velvet lounge lay John Millis. The room was heavy with the smell of alcohol.

"Don't go in, please, doctor. We have scarcely disturbed it."

"Who did it?" Kittredge asked, his voice betraying his emotion. "Caught him asleep, didn't they? Shot him, didn't they?"

"Neatly. Through the heart."

"Hobson."

"Was the door locked?"

"Both doors were locked."

"Had Hobson a key?"

"No servant ever had a key to that door. Look at the lock. A beauty."

"What led Hobson to suspect anything wrong?"

"Dr. Kittredge, he did not, until early this morning, when Mrs. Scott found the key to this door in the little hallway on the third floor which led to the sickroom of Michael Eden."

Kittredge could feel the muscles of his face stiffen. It took all his self-control to keep from working them frantically, just to see how completely paralyzed they were.

"Perhaps it would be sensible for me to establish an alibi?" he suggested. He was more than willing to focus attention on his own possible guilt.

"O, do it at your convenience, doctor," Jameson said indifferently. "It is a pure formality. You are not considered promising. Even the zealous Mr. Sullivan, who was most active in pointing an accusing finger at every one within range until he was silenced by some one higher up, did not honor you with his suspicions."

"Comforting, I'm sure," Kittredge said dryly. "But if you have no further use for me I really should like to go at once and attend to the matter. I am doing no one any good here."

"You might," Jameson said quietly.

He switched off the light in the little study, and as they went out he closed the door.

"Don't go just yet, please," he said. "We will try it outside where there is a little more air." He led the way to the landing at the head of the stairs. "Nice and private," he chuckled. "I always feel better when I am sure that what I say is heard only by those for whom my conversation is intended. Have a cigar."

They sat on the window seat and smoked in silence for several minutes, outwardly casual, serene. Then Jameson spoke again.

"Do you distrust me, Dr. Kittredge?"

"On the contrary," Kittredge answered coldly.

"Don't try to hide anything. Just talk naturally and freely, and try to believe that I shall not use what you say against any innocent person. What I want, and what I am sure you want, is not to involve even slightly any innocent person. That is why I must have all possible information."

"Just what is an innocent person?" Kittredge asked angrily.

He was sorry the next moment, but the words were said. Nor was he greatly comforted by the fact that Jameson chose to ignore the question.

"You see, Dr. Kittredge, you are valuable because you know something at least of this household, and yet you are an innocent bystander," Jameson explained patiently. "Are you going to help us? What questions should you care to ask?"

"None. I am inexpressibly shocked and mentally confused, and all that I want is to go home and get a few hours of sleep."

"Very well. Will you come back, later in the day?"

"If you wish. I suppose that the physicians have decided about when Mr. Millis was shot?"

"Approximately. He was last seen at about half past eleven. His body was found at eight o'clock in the morning. It was evident at that time that he had been dead some hours. The physicians have surmised that the death occurred between two and four, but they are not certain."

"Who is in charge of—the disposal of the body?" Kittredge asked.

Jameson laughed shortly. "Hobson, I suppose."

"Until Mr. Newton arrives, to act for the son—to act for Michael Eden," he corrected himself, and then wished he had not when he saw the gleam of interest in the quiet gray eyes of the man who was following his words so closely, "until Mr. Newton comes, I will accept the responsibility. Please let me know when I may have possession."

Jameson bowed respectfully. Jameson did not know that in the doctor's inside pocket there burned five one-thousand-dollar bills, and that he had been commissioned to buy flowers.

"Had you given any thought to the man Ferenzi?" Kittredge asked.

"I had been wondering why you did not suggest Ferenzi," Jameson replied.

"I'm not suggesting him," Kittredge said impatiently. "I have not the remotest idea that Ferenzi did it."

"Why not?"

"He was not in that mood," Kittredge said firmly. "For that matter, he was never a killer."

"You disappoint me, Dr. Kittredge," Jameson said dryly. "Ferenzi would have been a most desirable person to hang it on—to the relief of the police and the convenience of the well-intrenched offender—if there is such a one."

"Has Ferenzi been arrested?" Kittredge demanded.

"Ferenzi has an alibi, a perfect alibi."

"Yes?"

"At half past eleven o'clock last night Ferenzi gave himself up to the police, with the statement that he had deliberately and actively aided John Millis in killing his ward, Michael Eden. The story was so fantastic, involving as it did a man of Mr. Millis' wealth and respectability, that they just shipped him over to the psychopathic ward for observation, where, twenty minutes later, he contrived to stab himself."

"Dead?"

"Quite."

"Thank God."

Many Reasons Why Husband Avoids Home

BY DORIS BLAKE.

[Copyright: 1937: By The Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Syndicate, Inc.]

"I have been married for three years and a half. I am 24, my husband is 29.

"I love my husband and he says that he loves me, but at times it seems that he does not care for me. He has a job in a small town, and works from 8 to 5. He takes his lunch, so I don't see him all day. He wants dinner at five, immediately he gets home. Then, after dinner, he dolls up and goes uptown, staying all evening. If I say anything he gets furious. If I talk nicely to him he says he is sorry that he still loves me but has no hold over himself about getting home early.

"I have tried going places myself to fill in the time, but he does not like that.

"I can't understand it. I keep up a nice home for him, dress economically and feel that he has no complaint against me in this way. He gives me credit for that all right. But his 'uptowns' are what bother me. Can you help?"—Mrs. D. R.

Don't you know what the uptown trips mean? Is it for drink, or to go to a poolroom, or what? There's something at that end of his trips that needs investigating. We are not holding with him, understand.

You'd better find out pronto. Then you can better decide what your next step is and whether you love the fellow enough to want to stick around and help him.

mother, Mrs. Richardson Dunham, and his stepbrother, Willard Drown Jr., and Mrs. Drown, the son and daughter-in-law of Mrs. Robert J. Dunham; Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Vose, Miss Marice Murphy, Colin Campbell, and the Richard F. Cavenaughs, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Cavenaugh, are at their California home.

Vladimir Golschmann, the attractive young Paris born Russian who is conductor of the St. Louis Symphony orchestra, will be the guest of the Ravinia Festival association at breakfast this morning in the bungalow atop the Morrison hotel.

Mr. Golschmann will conduct this week's concerts at Ravinia. Mrs. Edwin E. Tullis, Miss Mary Wood, Miss Nancy Poole, and Miss Janet Bard, all of whom have sold tickets for the festival, will be among those at the breakfast.

Frederick Childes to Visit Bucharest.

Bucharest will be the destination of Mr. and Mrs. C. Frederick Childs when they leave Sunday for a month's vacation abroad. They will spend a day or two in New York with their son, F. Newell Childs, before sailing.

Young Mr. Childs visited Bucharest on his round the world trip a year ago, and it is on his recommendation that his parents are going there. They will fly to Rumania from Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. P. Pullman are going early in August to a camp in the Adirondacks, and young Mr. Childs is joining them there for his vacation.

Mrs. Philip Wrigley is opening her house in Lake Geneva tomorrow for the annual sale at that resort of the Woman's Exchange of Chicago. Various members of the board of directors who summer on the north shore will drive to Lake Geneva to assist in selling. Among them will be Mrs. Norman Pritchard, who, with Mr. Pritchard and their two babies, are occupying Mrs. Hermon B. Butler's house in Winnetka this summer.

Edwin J. Mossers Going to Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Mosser are sailing Saturday on the Conte di Savoia to spend two months in Europe. They will visit Italy, France, and Austria and will return home on the Saturnia, arriving in New York Oct. 4.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Jackson and their daughter, Miss Amy Jackson, sailed July 20 on the Monterey from San Francisco for a seven weeks' cruise to Melbourne and Sydney, Australia. The ship stops en route at Honolulu, the Fiji Islands, Pago Pago, Samoa, and New Zealand.

Miss Marian Thomas and Warren Jay Crumbine have set Monday, Sept. 13, as their wedding date. The ceremony will take place at the Winnetka Congregational church, with a reception following at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick B. Thomas.

Dr. J. W. F. Davies, of Waukegan, who christened the bride, will read the service. The former Miss Nancy Thomas, at whose wedding last month to George W. Hines Miss Marian Thomas was maid of honor, will be the matron of honor, and several Winnetka friends will be bridesmaids.

Mr. Hines and his bride are making their home in Chicago instead of in St. Louis, as they thought at the time of the wedding, for his business brought him back. Mr. Crumbine and his bride will make their home in Cambridge, Mass., for he is to enter the Harvard School of Business Administration in the fall.

Mapes Wedding Will Take Place in New York.

The marriage of Miss Blanche Mapes to Herman Hamel will take place in New York City instead of in Evanston where the bride-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leland R. Mapes, live. The date for the ceremony has been set for Oct. 1, and the service will be read at 8:30 o'clock in the evening at the Little Church Around the Corner. Mr. and Mrs. Mapes will give a reception.

Miss Mapes is to have seven attendants, her sister, Miss Mary Virginia Mapes; Miss Jane Thrall, Miss Virginia Torcom, Miss Beth McIlraith, Mrs. Clarence O'Brien of Suffern, N. Y.; Miss Elizabeth Mendillo of New Haven, Conn., and Miss Margaret Young of Pelham, N. Y., who will be the maid of honor. The best man will be William Fitschen of New York. The ushers all are easterners.

Mr. and Mrs. Mapes and their daughters will go east the middle of September to visit relatives until after the wedding. The bride is to be the guest in Spring Valley, N. Y., of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Willis P. Inglis. Mr. Hamel and his bride will make their home in one of New York's suburbs.

Charge Plagiarism in 'You Can't Take It with You'

New York, July 27.—(AP)—The stage hit "You Can't Take It With You," about a firecracker making, ballet dancing, play writing family, was drawn into a plagiarism suit today. Virginia Gordon charged in federal court that she and Frances Ross in 1934 wrote a play called "Last Moments" and that George Kaufman and Moss Hart copied the scene, plot, technique, atmosphere and dialog of "You Can't Take It With You" from it.

Today Is Last Chance to Mail Circus Letters

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

[Activities of the Sally Joy Brown department are sponsored by Tribune Charities, Inc.]

Children frequently tell me in their letters that they intended to write for previous parties, but for some reason or other they "just couldn't get going."

All I have to say about that is that it's going to be your own hard luck if you don't "get going" on your letter today if you want to come to the circus with me. The winners will be selected early tomorrow, and if your letter isn't on my desk you can't possibly be my guest on Aug. 5. That's the day when 50 boys and 50 girls will go with me to see the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey circus.

All I want to know is why you think you'd like this party. Be sure and give your full name, where you live, and your age. Any boy or girl should be able to give me that information and, as I've told you before, you don't have to be fussy about your grammar or spelling.

Just write the best letter you can and mail it to Sally Joy Brown, THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE, Chicago.

All the youngsters who found their names printed in the list of winners in last Sunday's TRIBUNE should have received invitations by mail. If you haven't received yours let me know right away, because our party at Wrigley field takes place tomorrow, and I know a winner would hate to miss a chance to see the Cubs play Brooklyn!

Malay Puts Ban on British Film Boosting Army Life

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, July 27. — The film "Ohms"—the initials of the phrase "On his majesty's service"—has been banned in the Straits Settlements because it shows a pirate uprising. The film was produced in conjunction with the army council and shows army life overseas. But many Malay natives are descended from pirates.

It's possible, yes, for a business girl to get up just a wee bit earlier every morning to cook the dessert or peel the potatoes for the meal she must get when she returns home at six o'clock. It's possible, but it isn't much fun, especially since she probably has breakfast to get and wants an extra ten or fifteen minutes in bed.

The details of dressing and making up one's face and coiffure require time, too. It's neither pleasant nor safe to run from the dressing table mirror to the kitchen stove, trailing a wake of powder and stray hairs. And so our Wednesday business woman's meals are planned for after work preparation alone. We want no hairs in the soup! Tonight's menu is an easy and quick one.

BUSINESS WOMAN'S DINNER.
Canned Chicken Broth
Sliced Cheese-Ham Loaf
Canned Sweet Potatoes
Corn on the Cob
Graham Gems
Fresh Fruit Salad-Dessert
Iced Tea or Coffee

The cheese-meat loaf is one of the most delicious cold meats I've yet encountered. The center of the loaf is all meat, but it's bordered by a tangy cheese which blends beautifully with the flavor. When the meat is sliced it becomes a pretty two-tone delicacy which invites gobbling. One of the country's leading packing houses originated it, and the loaf has had rather sensational sales wherever it has been introduced. I'll be glad to furnish the trade name of the product and the name of the packer, upon request.

Fresh sweet corn is lower in price and of better quality than it has been for some time, although it's advisable to select the ears personally and examine them to be sure they're tender and that the kernels are well filled out.

Graham Gems [Eggless.]
[Eight muffins.]

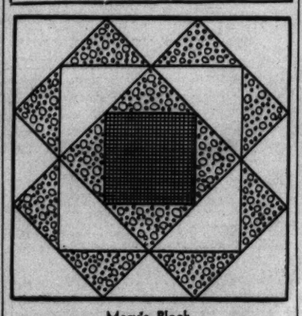
½ cup white flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
2 tablespoons sugar
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup whole wheat flour
1 tablespoon melted shortening
½ cup sour milk
¼ teaspoon soda

Sift white flour, baking powder and salt into mixing bowl and add whole wheat flour, unsifted. Combine shortening with sour milk in which soda has been dissolved. Have milk fairly warm so that shortening does not harden in lumps. Stir together vigorously just long enough to combine the ingredients, and bake for 20 to 25 minutes in a moderate [350 degrees] oven.

Sweet milk may be used in this recipe if the soda is omitted and an additional teaspoon of baking powder is used. It also is possible to add a little vinegar to sweet milk to sour it quickly.

Fresh fruit salad-dessert offers opportunity to use a little imagination. Any fresh fruits may be combined on a salad plate to make an attractive display to serve with or without dressing. Sliced fresh peaches, apricots, raspberries, loganberries and sliced plums make a good combination.

Trousseau Quilt a Big Favorite for Many Years



Mary's Block.

Patterns of this design are 5 cents, stamps or coin. Address Nancy Cabot, Chicago Tribune, or call at one of the Tribune Public Service offices, 1 South Dearborn street or Tribune Tower.

BY NANCY CABOT.

Since housekeeping was the goal of every girl's ambition in the "good old days," her "setting out" was planned several years before an eligible man appeared to court her. "Mary's Block" was the pattern of the first quilt made for her trousseau by a young girl in the east in the early colonial days. Her mother named the pattern after her daughter because the color scheme and the pattern were planned and executed by the clever miss for her initial trial at quilt making. The block is 10 inches square, and there are 81 pieced blocks required for a quilt, which measures 90 inches square.

THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS

Oddments:

If you want any kind of a swish hairdress you're going to have your hands full keeping it in shape between appointments with the hairdresser. The best system we know is to wear a comfortable but efficient cap at night. And, if you're at all fussy, one that doesn't look too silly.

There's one on the market, made of a fine English netting, that comes in eight different colors, each of them pretty. It's a drawstring affair, reminiscent of an aviatrix's flying helmet. You tuck your head into the cap, pull the drawstrings to fit, and tie the pretty colored ribbons either under the chin or on top of your head.

Your coiffure will keep beautifully, no matter how much you toss and turn—and if the house catches fire and you have to dash out into the street you'll actually look fetching. The cap is a great help, we're told, in preserving the difficult but stunning "page boy" coiffure.

In one of the swankiest beauty salons in New York there is an extremely attractive "health restaurant" which is rapidly becoming THE place for women to eat luncheon. Not only the stouts, but the thins patronize it.

The specialist who established it has a lot of sound theories about the relationship between diet and beauty—and if she has her way all women will be educated about foods. They'll eat for health and good looks maintenance and will be as intelligent about their selection of foods as any dietetic expert.

The smart little restaurant specializes in delicious and healthful salads and has, we're told, the most attractive, most delicious nonliquor cocktails to be found.

Culbertson's "Gold Book of Bidding and Play"

Herewith is presented another portion of Mr. Culbertson's latest work on contract, the "Gold Book of Bidding and Play," which is being reproduced in this column in daily instalments.

[Copyright: 1937: By Ely Culbertson.]

After a conventional four no trump bid, bid five in any lower ranking unbid suit in which the ace is held.

West:
♠ A K 10 6 4 2 ♥ none ♦ A K Q 7 3 ♣ 6 5

East:
♠ Q 9 7 ♥ K J 7 6 3 ♦ 10 5 2 ♣ A 8

West	East
1 spade	2 hearts
3 diamonds	4 spades
4 no trump	5 clubs
6 spades

Spades obviously being the eventual trump suit, it costs East nothing to show the club ace en passant, since he would have to sign off, otherwise, and then five spades would be bid by West. West, in turn, can draw a negative inference from the five club response that East does not have the two aces, since in that case he would have responded five no trump.

Bid five in an unbid suit of which you hold the ace, even if it is higher ranking than the eventual trump suit, provided your hand contains values not previously shown.

TODAY'S HAND.

"Dear Mr. Culbertson: Seldom does the opportunity occur to bring one of our dream ships home to port. My chance came in the hand below:

"The bidding:

South	West	North	East
3 spades	Pass	3 no trump	Pass
4 clubs	Pass	4 no trump	Pass
6 spades	Pass	Pass	Pass

"The scene was ideal. The last hand in a duplicate game, with the players who had finished standing around, watching. Our worst enemy would not have accused us of underbidding the hand. The opponents did their best to give me the contract by leading the ace of hearts and continuing a heart. Something seemed to whisper 'trump squeeze,' but beyond knowing I should bare the ace of clubs I could not figure out the exact technique. I plunged in, playing out six rounds of trumps, going over to dummy with the ace of clubs and trumping a heart, hoping to set up the 10. Result, down one. As soon as I got home I played the hand over and how simple it then was! This of course, is the five card position I should have reached:

NORTH
♠ None

SOUTH
♠ 2
♥ None
♦ K 2
♣ 9 8

"O, if hindsight only were foresight!

"Yours truly,

"J. H. V., Boissevain, Man."

J. H. V. need feel no shame over muffing a trump squeeze, the aristocrat of the squeeze family. The play from the five card position given is fairly easy. South leads two rounds of diamonds, ending in dummy. East cannot let go a heart. If he does declarer merely ruffs a heart to establish dummy's ten. East must therefore let go two clubs, and now declarer cashes the club ace and returns to his hand by ruffing, to cash the club nine for the final trick.

TODAY'S QUESTION.

Question: If dummy calls attention to a defender's irregularity and asks declarer if he knows his rights, and declarer asks what they are, may dummy tell him?

Answer: Yes.

Tomorrow's Hand.

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

Getting a peek behind the cosmetic counter instead of being an out-front-standee awaiting her turn to purchase throws the following high light on what goes on, as presented in the current issue of a cosmetic publication:

In the interest of a coördinated sales plan for greater cosmetic sales in department and drug stores, it is suggested that the "flower faces" idea be adopted.

"We know that Hollywood is an important background for fashion and beauty, and is becoming a great influence on makeup," the editorial to the trade reads. "Not that American women wish to use screen makeup, but they do know that the art of makeup is highly developed among makeup experts in Hollywood, where so often an 'ugly duckling' is transformed into a 'shining star,' so there's your interest.

"For effective counter presentation," the article goes on, "Dietrich may be used for the glamor case. Line the case with cream white satin or velvet. Have a beautifully framed print of Marlene for a centerpiece. Then strings of pearls, jeweled bracelets, real lace handkerchiefs, white kid gloves, a jeweled hand mirror. Add to these your most exquisite compact, jeweled lipstick, luxurious boxes of face powder, elegant jars of cream, most alluring and expensive perfume and last, but not least, a spray of orchids. A card might say, 'Are you the orchid type?'"

The sweet and simple type suggested would have Dixie Dunbar for the theme song, sprays of apple blossoms, soft apple-blossom pink to drape the case, pale green accessories. The spicy type will love the carnation theme with a portrait of Hepburn.

This is an idea some of whose principles you may adapt to yourself, if you can think of yourself as a flower type. Anyway, it is a nice game to play on a lazy summer day. If you are too modest to associate yourself with a lovely flower, try doing it on your friends.

"Massage fatty finger tips," says Antoinette Donnelly, Tribune beauty editor, in her new booklet, "Handmade Hand Beauty." Every woman needs this instructive booklet. Get your copy today. On sale at the Tribune Public Service offices, 1 South Dearborn street and Tribune Tower. Price, 5 cents. By postpaid mail, 7 cents.

Good Morning!

Linemen, those doughty, daring necessary fellows who string electrical power lines across the country, come in for their meed of attention in "Slim."

There is, you learn, a lure about linemanship. The sort of pull the stage has for any one who's ever been connected with it and that makes a newspaper man a newspaper man all his life.

Slim Kincaid, a farm lad thrilled by the work of a crew of high tension line tower builders, who are putting up towers across his farm, decides that this is the life for him. Red Blayd, an ace lineman, grows interested in the determined young fellow and helps him get a job. The two become great friends. . . . Red's beau geste in refusing to tattle re a death due to drunkenness, results in his discharge. The devoted Slim tags right along.

The two head for Chicago, where Cally Richards, a nurse whom Red loves, but to whom he's never proposed, comes into the picture.

Fate so shuffles the cards that Cally and Slim fall in love. . . . Red accepts this situation with the same carefree, hard boiled philosophy that sees him through everything. . . . The finale is shadowed by tragedy, but you feel that Cally and Slim will eventually find happiness together.

Pat O'Brien makes Red quite a character. Henry Fonda is a bit wide eyed and open mouthed, but he's a likable Slim. J. Farrell MacDonald as a work boss is splendid. Stuart Erwin turns in some pleasantly quiet comedy as one Stumpy, a member of the line crew. Margaret Lindsay hasn't much to do as Cally, but performs her bit capably. Supporting players were intelligently chosen.

Most people will, I think, find "Slim" a reasonably interesting photoplay. Certainly it gives you knowledge of and respect for linemen that you've never had before.

See you tomorrow.

Mother May Simulate Camp Life at Home

BY GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS

For the last few days we've been advising you not to fret if you haven't been able to send your child to camp, because there are things he may enjoy and gain from equally at home. But if the camp idea appeals to you, why not try to simulate its regularity by definitly planning each day? This is especially practical if you live out of town, and each year more mothers are trying this sort of plan without sending their children away.

There are several ways you may go about it, but it works out best if you can collect a group of children somewhat near each other in age, and get the really interested coöperation of several of their mothers.

With children who would be old enough to go to camp, a great diversity of activity is possible, because at that age they have quite a little endurance and are able to do a great many things. Intelligent and inventive mothers can put their heads together and evolve plenty of amusement and worthwhile occupation for them. It might help to talk with some one who is familiar with camp life, or get from the library one of the several books that have been written on the subject, like Lieberman's "Creative Camping."

Hikes, sports, camp fire councils, quiet periods for rest or reading, some duties like care of their own clothes and room [or tent], and regularity in hours, jump into our minds when we think of camp life for children.

But many of the more progressive camps are also providing outlet for aesthetic or craft interests and activity: rhythmic or folk dancing, music, dramatics, bench work, weaving, sculpting, woodcarving, painting, and drawing. Some camps will even provide tutoring in special subjects.

The best run camps also make a point of studying the children. Meetings are held at which head councilors talk and junior councilors report or ask questions for help in guiding their young charges. A group of mothers could, in a very informal way, do something similar, and it might prove very helpful.

Marriage Recipe

Hollywood, Cal., July 27.—(AP)—From the vantage point of a year's marital happiness Myrna Loy advised her sisters in wedlock today to keep their chins up and their hair waved.

Myrna Loy.

The green eyed actress was married—for the first time—to Arthur Hornblow Jr., her director in "Arrowsmith," June 2, 1936.

"A wife cannot escape the competition of other women" is Miss Loy's philosophy, "but she shares the same privileges at the beauty parlor.

"It is all very well to say men are weak where women are concerned. Of course they are. Otherwise love and marriage would be a dull pastime. But a wife must not allow herself to doubt her own powers of attraction.

"Luckily, women are finding out that the battle has just begun when the altar is reached. If they all learned to put as much effort into making marriage a success as they would into business, then Reno could be given back to the Indians."

Witnesses for Attorney Murphy O. Tate said yesterday that he could not have conspired to defraud the Chicago Surface lines through fake accident claims because on the days the alleged claims were being plotted he was busy seeing a lot of people about a dog. It was his dog and his name is Drinkmore Homebrew, champion English bulldog, son of Drinkmore Moonshine and Drinkmore Ginfizz.

Defense Attorney Werner W. Schroeder drew out this testimony yesterday from some twenty witnesses before a jury in the Criminal court of Judge Peter H. Schwaba. Tate, Attorneys Leo Tarpey and George N. Welsh, and Dr. A. B. Rotche are being tried for the conspiracy.

Tells of Treating Dog.

One of these witnesses was Dr. Bert Franklin, a veterinary surgeon, who testified that on the morning of last Nov. 20 Attorney Tate was showing Drinkmore Homebrew at the Western Specialty club dog show at the Coliseum. He said that he treated the dog for a lame leg while the attorney held the animal.

Mrs. Dale Smith of Michigan City, Ind., followed Dr. Franklin to the stand. She said that she was showing a dog right next to Attorney Tate's and that he was at the show all day on Nov. 20, as well as on the next two days.

It was on these three days—Nov. 20, 21, and 22—that Tate, according to the state's star witness, George L. West, self-styled ambulance chaser, held pep meetings with him and other chasers, urging them to go out and sign up a lot of fake accident victims.

Another Statement Contradicted.

Another defense witness contradicted another statement made by the rotund Mr. West. Philip Hare, 6139 Ellis avenue, an investigator for Tate, said the clients in the accident case in question—involving "passengers" on an empty street car—were signed up through routine channels and that Tate knew nothing of the circumstances.

Assistant State's Attorney James A. Brown objected vigorously and frequently to introduction of much of the testimony and at one point stood glaring in anger at Judge Schwaba.

"What are you looking at me for?" demanded the judge. "Are you trying to provoke this court?"

PLAN CAMPAIGN OF EDUCATION IN WEED DANGERS

A plan to educate 500,000 hay fever sufferers and other Chicagoans on the dangers of excessive weed growths was discussed yesterday by members of Mayor Kelly's weed committee at the city hall. The campaign will be carried on through newspaper articles and radio talks. Members of the committee were informed that part of a $3,000,000 WPA fund for cleaning lots and alleys is unused and will be added to other funds to pay 800 men now engaged in the weed eradication program. The committee is headed by Fred M. Lorish, president of the Chicago Real Estate board.

NATIONAL GUARD REHERSES ROLE IN JUBILEE SHOW

Some of the units of the 33d division, Illinois National Guard, which will participate in the Chicago Charter Jubilee Military show in Soldiers' field the nights of Aug. 14 and 15 went through a dress rehearsal of their parts in the show on Northerly island in Burnham park last night. The 33d division will leave for Camp Grant, Rockford, next Friday night for two weeks of field training.

A feature of the demonstration last night was the new high speed light tank belonging to the 33d tank company from Maywood. This tank, capable of traveling 60 miles an hour, is the only one possessed by the Illinois troops so far, but will be backed up for the show by similar war machines from surrounding states.

RALLY IN SIXTH; DEMAREE SENDS HOME 3 RUNS

Tex Carleton Holds Dodgers in Check.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

Frank Demaree and Tex Carleton shared the driver's seat yesterday and rode the first place Cubs to a homecoming triumph in the opener of the series with Brooklyn's puzzling Dodgers. Carleton took care of the pitching. His companion in the successful venture looked after the important matter of getting runs across the plate and this combination, with a little outside help, finally compiled a 5 to 2 victory, which with the downfall of the Giants left the Cubs with a three game lead.

Frank Demaree.

The Dodgers, who usually avoid suspense by resorting to their habitual comics right at the start, were strangely determined on this occasion. For five innings, mainly because of the mound work of Luke Hamlin, they actually tossed a scare into the pacemakers by assuming a 2 to 1 lead. Eventually, however, Hamlin slowed down, his mates began their rib tickling acts and the rest was easy, as evidenced by a pair of runs in the sixth and two more in the eighth.

Frank Goes to Work.

Demaree began his string of contributions with a double in the fourth, only to have it wasted. Not at all disturbed by this, he ripped off another two bagger in the sixth, this time driving home the tying run and eventually scoring himself to put the Cubs ahead, 3 to 2. Then in the eighth, when Hamlin was distressed by bad fielding, Demaree was heard from again. He singled to shove two more across the plate, for a day's total of three. The two other tallies were belted home by Rip Collins on a fly and one of Billy Herman's two singles.

Hit Brings a Run.

Carleton didn't attain his season's eighth victory without causing enough worry to keep the bull pen occupants in action most of the afternoon. In the third two hits didn't hurt him because a Dodger runner got lost trying to travel to the plate. In the fourth three Dodgers suddenly connected and one walked but Tex regained his balance and limited the rioting to two runs. After that he

SENATORS ROUT WHITEHEAD; BEAT SOX IN NINTH, 6-5

BY EDWARD BURNS.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 27.—The White Sox got their six-city trip under way this afternoon by falling before the Washington Senators, 6 to 5. They held onto second place because the Yanks beat the Tigers in New York, but sagged six games behind those Yanks.

While J. Dungan Rigney was the losing pitcher by virtue of a run the Senators made off him with two out in the ninth, the real culprit was John Whitehead, who was maltreated for four runs and five hits before the second putout was accomplished in the first inning.

Appleton Is Tough.

The Sox got off to a two run lead in their half of the first on a homer by Zeke Bonura with Dixie Walker on base. They made a run and got rid of Monte Weaver in the second, Luke Appling scoring after a triple. After Weaver had loaded the bases with none out in the second, Pete Jablonowski Appleton went in and held the Sox to three singles the rest of the way, though they did manage to use one of these hits in the business of scoring two tying runs in the sixth inning.

Rigney went in with one out in the first inning and held the Senators to seven hits, two in the third, one in the fourth, two in the seventh and two in the fatal ninth.

Big John Blows Lead.

Whitehead's buoyant nature did not seem to effervesce a great deal over the fact that he had been given a two run lead in the first inning by Walker's single and Bonura's No. 16 homer. Here's what happened to Large John in the first inning: Almada and Lewis singled to center and the bases were loaded after Appling fumbled Travis' double play grounder. Simmons singled to right, scoring Almada and Lewis with the tying runs and putting Travis on third. Stone flied to Radcliff, Travis scoring. Kuhel and Myer singled to right, Simmons scoring on Myers' effort. Whitehead was replaced by Rigney. Ferrell hit into a double play started by Berger.

The Sox loaded the bases with none out in the second inning, but harvested only one run. Appling opened with a triple to left and Weaver won a trip to the bathhouse by walking Berger and Sewell. Appleton went in and struck out Rigney. Hayes flied to Stone, Appling scoring. Kreevich then forced Sewell.

Simmons Gets Double.

Simmons opened the home third with a double to right center and advanced on Stone's sacrifice. Kuhel was credited with a hit when his bouncer popped out of Appling's glove, Simmons scoring. Kuhel reached second on a passed ball. Myer and Ferrell supplied easy outs before Joe could reach home.

The Sox tied the score in the sixth. Appling walked and Lewis was late with a toss to second on an attempt

Well, Miracles HAVE Happened.

Arch: In case White Sox fans still hear the pennant bee buzzing, here is the situation as it was when the club went east this week: If the Yankees maintain their present pace they will win 47 of their remaining 67 games and the Sox will have to win 50 out of their 63, which include eight games with New York. If this happened, the two teams would have 103 victories and 51 setbacks for a .662 average at the finish. I suppose they COULD rent Soldiers' field for the playoff.

At the By-Line Club.

Arch: Those film stars, who waited an hour for you, were talking about the time Duster Mails was pitching for Sacramento and Bill Guthrie was umpiring. Mails had a date and asked Guthrie if he would mind chasing him early. Guthrie promised. In the second inning Mails accused Guthrie of missing a strike and threw his glove in the air. He was all ready to leave when Guthrie called over the manager and said:

"Dis guy has got a date and asked me to bounce 'im early. I'm gonna let 'im stick as long as you do, so do me a favor, will ya? and make 'im go de distance!" Then turning to Mails, he said:

The next time Mails pitched and Guthrie umpired, Mails showed up with his glove tied on. In the first inning he let it dangle from his hand and yelled:

"Yoo hoo, Bill. Look."

DAVIS CUP COMES BACK TO U. S. AS PARKER TRIUMPHS

(Radiophoto on Back Page.)

WIMBLEDON, England, July 27.—(AP)—The United States regained the Davis Cup today as Frankie Parker and Don Budge swept the final two singles matches of the challenge round with Great Britain and brought the American forces to the end of a ten year campaign aimed at recovery of the international tennis trophy.

To Parker, compactly built 21 year old youngster from Milwaukee, went the honor of clinching the series with a 6-2, 6-4, 6-2 triumph over Charles Edgar Hare in the first of today's closing matches. Then Budge, "veteran" of the team at 22 and like Parker a grammar school student when America last held the cup, made the final series count 4-1 by whipping the British stylist, Henry Wilfred [Bunny] Austin, 8-6, 3-6, 6-4, 6-3.

When it was all over her highness ,the Princess Helena Victoria, lifted the big trophy from a table draped with the Stars and Stripes and the Union Jack and handed it over in the name of the British who had held it since 1933, when France's six year grip finally was broken.

Budge the Real Hero.

And thus the cup, which had defied all American efforts since age crept into William Tatem Tilden's legs, was ready for its first crossing of the Atlantic since 1927. That was the year that Rene Lacoste and Henri Cochet whipped Tilden and "Little Bill" Johnston on the final day of the challenge round and took the cup back to France with them.

Although deprived of the privilege of scoring the clinching point, Budge remained the heroic figure in America's successful drive. It was the singles victory the Oakland, Cal., red head scored over Hare on Saturday and the doubles triumph he and Mako earned against C. R. D. Tuckey and F. H. D. Wilde yesterday that left Parker in a position to clinch the series.

The crowd seemed to know that Parker hadn't really won the cup, that Budge actually had done the work with his memorable victory over Baron Gottfreid Von Cramm of Germany in the interzone finals. When the tall, lean red head appeared for his meaningless match with Austin, the spectators applauded long and called his name. Perhaps never in Wimbledon's history was a foreign player shown so clearly the crowd was with him.

Actually No Match.

The Budge-Austin match began and actually it wasn't a match at all. Both men experimented with their shots. They exchanged racquets for one game and laughed and joked with one another. In the middle of the fourth set, for no reason at all, they simply stopped playing, ordered tea, walked over to the gallery rail together and drank it.

The crowd howled and applauded every shot, laughed at the wrong time, did exactly as it pleased, and when Budge and Bunny left the court

Tuffy Leemans Signs Contract with Giants

New York, July 27.—[Special.]—Tuffy Leemans forwarded his signed contract to the New York football Giants today. The former George Washington star, who led the league in ground gained last season and starred against the Lions in the 1936 All-Star game at Chicago, is honeymooning in Superior, Wis. Ray Hanken, another George Washington athlete, will join the Giants next fall.

SEVEN MIDWEST PLAYERS WILL START SEPT. 1

BY ARCH WARD.

America this morning knows the names of its All-Star football players. They are not the selections of so-called newspaper or magazine experts. They haven't been chosen by a limited group of coaches. They owe their positions to 5,036,466 fans who participated in the greatest poll ever conducted for the purpose of determining the personnel of a sport team.

Sam Baugh.

The eleven players chosen in a coast to coast voting contest conducted by THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE and 150 associated newspapers will leap out of the headlines onto the gridiron of Soldiers' field the night of Sept. 1 to battle the Green Bay Packers, National Professional league champions, in Chicago's fourth annual All-Star charity football game.

And Here They Are!

CENTER—Earl Svendsen, Minnesota.

QUARTER BACK — Vernon Huffman, Indiana.

FULL BACK—Sam Francis, Nebraska.

The group includes one from the south, one from the Pacific coast, two from the east, and seven from the middle west.

Supporting this starting lineup will be the finest array of players ever assembled in one camp. All told, invitations were sent yesterday to sixty-five to join the squad for the start of practice at Northwestern university, Aug. 14. There were only fifty-three on last year's All-Star roster.

They'll Be Here, Too.

REVENGE DEFIES STORM TO WIN MACKINAC RACE

Rubaiyat Is First Yacht to Finish Long Run.

Mackinac Island, Mich., July 27.—[Special.]—One of the most thrilling races in the history of the Chicago to Mackinac Island competition, longest fresh water sailing event in the world, came to an end early tonight as Revenge, 59 foot cutter from the Chicago Yacht club, was declared winner of the Mackinac cup in the racing division, and Rubaiyat, Columbia Yacht club entry, adjudged the victor in the cruising division.

Revenge, owned and sailed by Blair Walliser and Keh Griffin, finished the 331 mile statute run at 6:48:49 p. m., after surviving a storm which had caused thirty-three of the original starting fleet of forty-two yachts to either put into port and withdraw, or accept tows, which meant disqualification.

Tow Report Untrue.

The yacht was previously reported to have accepted a tow into the Ludington harbor but this was found to be untrue when the cutter's owners rowed ashore and reported to the race committee. Revenge, participating in its first Mackinac race, had an elapsed time of 76 hours 38 minutes 49 seconds and a corrected time of 75:24:51. The yacht was skippered by Don Prather, with the crew consisting of Dudley Kelly, Don Pontius, Frank Combiths, Martin Harter, Albin Peterson, and Joseph Wolfson.

Rubaiyat, which duplicated its triumph of last year in the cruising division, is owned by Commodore Nathaniel Rubinkem. The boat was the first to finish, crossing the finish line at 5:13:21 this afternoon. Its elapsed time was 62:43:21, and the corrected time was 54:42:14. The victory gained for Rubaiyat the Chicago-Mackinac trophy, offered in alternate years to the winner of the cruising division.

Southern Cross Arrives.

Two hours later Southern Cross, owned and sailed by Robert P. Benedict Jr., commodore of the Lake Michigan Yachting association, followed Rubaiyat across the finish line, and four hours after Southern Cross' appearance Bagheera, owned and sailed by John T. [Bud] Snite of the Great Lakes Cruising club, came in. Meridian, scratch cruising vessel, finished under full sail this afternoon, an hour after Maruffa, a 67 foot yawl, had dropped anchor.

A 39 foot sloop, Victory, owned and sailed by Carl Norberg of the Columbia Y. C., was still unreported, either ashore or at sea, late tonight.

Boat.	Elapsed time.	Corrected time.
Rubaiyat, Nathaniel Rubinkam	62:43:21	54:42:14
Southern Cross, R. P. Benedict Jr.	64:05:00	59:10:14
Bagheera, John T. Snite	68:11:46	64:24:26
Meridian, Milton Knight	74:38:52	74:38:52

Some Theories on Black Bass Fishing Jolted

BY BOB BECKER.

When a small mouthed black bass is disturbed in a river and has a good look at the canoe and moving paddles the fisherman usually hasn't a chance to interest the fish in any kind of an artificial lure.

However, we found a couple of small mouths on the Yellow river near Spooner on our recent fishing trip that disproved some of our ideas on this subject.

It was a blistering hot day when we floated down the Yellow river with Otto Glueheisen of Spooner and Gene Sanborn of Madison, Wis. We had sailed forth at 5 o'clock in the morning in the hope of getting some fly fishing before the heat of the day sent the fish down into cool, shady holes.

But the fly fishing was pretty slow even in the early hours. Around 9 o'clock we slid around a pretty bend in the stream. Here there was a deep hole against the bank . . . just the kind of a place a small mouthed bass likes.

Otto dropped the anchor of our canoe so we could fish the bend very carefully. As he did this we saw a small mouth swim down stream not six feet from the canoe. The urge was to cast our fly at this fish although we felt it would be useless. But we picked up our rod and made a quick cast ahead of the small mouth. We nearly fell out of the canoe when up came the fish to hit our fly. We set the hook and then had a lot fun for a few minutes before turning the fish back.

U. S. Regains Davis Cup as Parker Wins

arm in arm, they were given a tremendous ovation.

So completely was Parker's mastery over the willing but poorly equipped Hare that after the first few strokes the end could be seen clearly. Budge had given Parker the key to the 22 year old British southpaw's weakness on Saturday. Frankie knew he must simply lob and wait and that's just what he did.

The Milwaukee star started this strategy in the first game and won it against Hare's service. From then on it was just a question of the time it would take. Parker had all the strokes he needed. He was swift and graceful. He had the superior service—Hare broke him only once in three sets—and the cleaner smash. When Hare did occasionally seem to have him beaten the American produced brilliant, winning rallies.

Concentrates on Service.

After breaking Hare's service in the first and fifth games of the opening set, Frankie simply concentrated on his own service until Hare found the games had run out. The second set went just about the same with Parker breaking the Briton's service in the third game and then holding his own steadily until the set was won in the tenth game.

Hare sat down on the court and changed his shoes at the outset of the third set and then celebrated by breaking Parker's service in the second game for a 2-0 lead. But Frankie declined to be intimidated. He broke Hare's service in the third game, with the help of a double fault by the Briton, and then smashed through again in the fifth and seventh games for the set, the match and the series.

COLUMBUS' RALLY IN 8TH DEFEATS A. A. ALL-STARS, 7-4

Columbus, O., July 27.—[Special.]—The Columbus Red Birds, trailing the American Association All-Stars 4 to 2 going into the eighth inning, pushed over five runs to whip the Stars, 7 to 4, before 12,000 in Red Bird stadium tonight.

It was the third defeat in the four games played for the All-Stars, Minneapolis having accounted for the other two. The only victory to the Stars' credit was scored at Milwaukee last summer.

Three singles, a walk, and two throwing errors by Alta Cohen, southpaw of the Toledo Mud Hens, who went to the mound for the Stars at the start of the sixth, accounted for the five runs which clinched the triumph for the Red Birds. Score:

All-Stars	000	011	110—4	8	3
Columbus	100	010	05*—7	11	1

MARS HORSES RUN WELL IN FUTURITY TRAINING DRILL

Tiger, Sky Larking Turn In Best Performances.

Tiger and Sky Larking, two of the Mrs. Ethel V. Mars' color bearers, showed the most speed when they flew over the three furlong course in :35 3-5. Warren Wright's Bull Lea went the same route a fifth of a second slower and could have done better.

Mrs. Mars will be represented not only by Tiger and Sky Larking but also by C-Note. Alfred Robertson will ride Tiger, Charley Stevenson will be in the saddle on Sky Larking and Sterling Young has been engaged to ride C-Note.

These three colts cost Mrs. Mars $32,300. They already have won themselves out in the Washington Park Futurity, the Bashford Manor stakes in Kentucky, and in overnight events. Mrs. Mars paid $14,300 for C-Note, $13,500 for Sky Larking, and $4,500 for Tiger. The latter so far has indicated he is the best of the lot.

Arlington officials received word late yesterday afternoon that Robert L. Gerry's colt Perpetuate had been shipped from Saratoga to Arlington Park yesterday to fill his engagement in the Futurity. The colt will arrive at Arlington this morning in charge of Trainer George Odom. Perpetuate won the Juvenile stakes and the Tremont stakes during the recent Belmont Park meeting.

Trainer Frank Kearns, who went to Saratoga over the week-end to saddle Warren Wright's Taken to win the first race of the Saratoga season, will return Friday to saddle Mr. Wright's Bull Lea in the Arlington Futurity.

MARICA DEFEATS HANDICAP STARS AT ARLINGTON

BY FRENCH LANE.

Thomas D. Taggart's brilliant racing mare, Marica, sizzled a mile in 1:36 at Arlington Park yesterday afternoon while winning the $1,500 Lake Zurich purse.

The daughter of Epinard-Canberra rallied gamely at the head of the stretch, soon conquered the strong running Infantry from the Millsdale stable, then went on to win by two lengths.

It was all very nice for the boss of French Lick Springs, who owns the mare, to gaze upon. Still it didn't make him particularly happy. He had overlooked the opportunity to nominate Marica for the $20,000 Arlington handicap to be run Saturday.

Beats Handicap Candidates.

When she won the Lake Zurich purse she defeated some of the leading candidates for the $20,000 race, including Infantry, Sir Jim James, Whopper, and Giant Killer. Earlier in the season she had beaten all the best western fillies and mares when she won the Arlington Matron stakes. So it may be that this 4 year old is the best horse at Arlington Park now. But she won't have a chance to prove it in the handicap.

When a ton of money rolled in on Infantry, causing him to become an odds on favorite, this son of Chance Shot began to loom up as a winner. He appeared even more so when he took the lead on the spin down the backstretch to enjoy a margin of nearly two lengths as the field headed into the lower bend. Sir Jim James was running second and Marica third.

Jocky Bobby Dotter then called upon Marica. She conquered Sir Jim in a few strides. Then she drove up on the outside to run head and head with Infantry as the stretch run started.

The Lady Steps Out.

There was a brief brush between these two leaders. Marica won it. She bounded to the front and pulled steadily away all through the late stages.

It was one of the best races run at Arlington Park this season. The first quarter was reeled off in :22 4-5, the half in :46 4-5, and the three-quarters in 1:11 1-5.

Marica was the second choice in the betting, paying $8.60. The two important victories she has scored at Arlington Park stamp her as being the best horse Epinard produced during his brief reign in the stud here. Already she is being eagerly sought as a brood mare, but there is little likelihood Owner Taggart will sell her. She is one of his own breeding.

Another splendid race mare came to the front during the afternoon when the Le Mar stock farm stable's Millie M., a full sister to the great handicap horse, Roman Soldier, captured the Elgin handicap, which also was run over the mile Hertz course.

She had won a race a few days earlier in impressive style, yet Spanish Babe, from the stable of Mrs. Fred Grabner of Chicago, went to the post as the favorite.

PANDONNA, away fast and quick to settle into full stride, raced into command while under steady restraint on the stretch turn, swerved when shaken up approaching the final eighth and came away steadily when straight. CAUTIVO, also beginning rapidly, saved ground throughout and, under stronger pressure after reaching the final quarter, held on well. WESTYS HERO came between horses on the stretch turn and, holding on gamely outstayed GATO.

SILVERY CLOUD, forced to race wide and taken under stout restraint on the turn, responded willingly when urged after reaching the stretch and, wearing down the leaders, appeared ready to draw out. VEEKS made the early pace under light restraint, opened up a good lead in the stretch but weakened in the final eighth. DENBIGH, on the extreme outside for a half mile, rallied weakly in the drive and tired in the late stages, but was getting to VEEKS.

ZORANA, under brisk urging early but taken under restraint before going a quarter, took command gradually when ready, but was vigorously ridden out. SMUGGLED IN, forced to lose much ground and a strong factor from the start, was slow to respond to pressure after reaching the final quarter, but came resolutely in the final eighth. MONKS TIME outrun for five-eighths, came with a rush thereafter.

WHITE CASTLE, going in his best form and quickest to begin, was taken to the inside after rushing into a good lead, continued with good speed despite swerving when under strong pressure the last three-sixteenths, but had little left. DRIFT ALONG, never far back, saved much ground and stood vigorous riding gamely but did not menace the winner after disposing of WICKED TIME. Latter had speed from the start, swerved out badly on the stretch turn and raced wide thereafter.

MARICA, well ridden and reserved off the pace, went to the leaders gradually after five-eighths, shook off INFANTRY without need of strong riding, came away steadily through the final eighth and might have had something left. INFANTRY, under rushing tactics from the start, drew into command, after a quarter while cutting out a terrific pace, failed to withstand the winner while sustaining keen speed to the stretch but held on well and went out one mile and a quarter in 2:03 3-5. SIR JIM JAMES had fine speed from the start but failed to keep up after three-quarters.

MILLIE M., outrun her company from the start, was under steady restraint for five-eighths, and increasing her advantage on the stretch turn, held sway thereafter, though she swerved out badly in the last eighth. NATALIE ALICE, taken back repeatedly the first three-quarters, began to move up when racing wide on the final turn, came with a rush on the outside when straightened and was up in the closing stride. PALASA worked his way up gradually the first seven-eighths and held on gamely in the drive. COLIGNY, forced very wide in the early stages, moved up to force the pace after a half mile, was under strong urging the last three-eighths and fought it out gamely to the end.

BARBARA WINS FROM CARSON IN WESTERN RING

Johnny Barbara, 1936 Golden Glove welterweight finalist, won a four round decision over Kip Carson in the feature bout at Western stadium last night. The bout was substituted after Frankie Jar, Fort Wayne featherweight, who was scheduled to meet Mickey Beal, claimed an injured hand.

PAUL LESLIE'S 139 LEADS FIELD IN AMATEUR TRIAL

Johnny Krutilla Is Second with 142.

BY CHARLES BARTLETT.

Paul Leslie, a slender young southerner whose native Missouri drawl has undergone additional softening in three years at Louisiana State university, yesterday led a field of 62 golfers in the Chicago district qualifying round for the national amateur championship. Leslie, present western amateur boss and twice runnerup in the national intercollegiate, stroked his way over the No. 4 course at Olympia Fields in 139 brilliant shots, one under par.

Young Marse Leslie's performance is rated the best consecutive job ever wrought by an amateur over Olympia Fields' favorite lot. It was handsome enough not only to lick the card, but also to head his competitors home by three strokes. Second and alone at 142 was Johnny Krutilla, who was runnerup in last year's city amateur championship.

Head Chicago Entry.

Leslie and Krutilla thus will be the head men of the Chicago delegation to the tournament proper, which will be held at the Alderwood Country club of Portland, Ore., the week of Aug. 23. The local entry, which found only two withdrawals from the fight for sixteen places, was the largest in the country.

Together with the 16 who won berths yesterday will go Chick Evans of Edgewater, exempt from sectional qualification by reason of having won the 1916 and 1920 national crowns.

Following Leslie and Krutilla were several of the best amateurs in the district. Art Doering, Stanford university student who registered from Big Oaks, was six shots back of Leslie, and a stroke better than Gus Moreland of Peoria, former Walker cup star who won the first amateur prize in the $10,000 Chicago open tournament last week-end.

Jim Frisina, the Taylorville, Ill., theater manager who once won the state medal, registered from Midlothian and did himself proud with 148 to tie Steve Williams Jr., of Evanston. Ted Adams, University of Missouri senior, had a 149. Three home town entrants followed at 150. They included Russell Martin of Flossmoor, who reached the last eight at Garden City last year; Don Armstrong, Aurora, national semi-finalist in 1934, and Charles B. Hill Jr. of Skokie, who also qualified last year.

Lehman, Hoerner Fail.

Listed in the 151 bracket were Hank Bowbeer, Riverside; Sid Richardson, Big Ten champion, from Kildeer, and Robert O. Berger Jr., Indian Hill. George Victor, who recently set a new course record at Glen View, and Tom Draper Jr. of St. Louis each had 152, while Hunter Hicks, Skokie, was the last official qualifier with a 153.

Among those who failed to make the grade were Johnny Lehman of the home club, C. D. G. A. champion, who had a 75—80—155; Jack Hoerner of North Shore, 81—74—155; Chuck McGuire of Oak Park, 81—73—154, and Johnny Ames of Glen View, 79—78—157.

GOODMAN'S 137 TIES FOR LEAD IN U. S. GOLF TRIALS

New York, July 27.—(AP)—Paced by Omaha's stocky Johnny Goodman and Ed Kingsley of Magna, Utah, favorites, survived the qualifying rounds today as the starting field for the national amateur golf tournament was completed on twenty-eight scattered courses.

Goodman, 1933 open titlist and one of the favorites last year, and Kingsley fired identical scores over par seventy-two courses at Omaha and Salt Lake City, respectively. Each posted 36 hole totals of 137.

Low Scores Plentiful.

The 153 who qualified today completed the field of 179 which will open the tournament at the Alderwood Country club, Portland, Ore., Aug. 23. Twenty previously had qualified at Boston and Tacoma, Wash., while six former champions automatically qualified.

While the sharpshooting of Goodman and Kingsley was easily the highspot of today's play, low scores were the general order. Paul Leslie of Jefferson City, Mo., carded a 139 to pace the field at Chicago. Only a stroke behind Leslie was Bobby Servis of Dayton, O., who topped the field at Cincinnati with a 36 hole total of 140.

The 1936 Walker cup players called upon to play through the qualifying rounds came through without losing a member. In addition to Goodman, they were Charley Yates, Reynolds Smith, Scotty Campbell, Harry Givan, and Walter Emery.

Haas Cards 145.

Yates was three under par with his 141 at Atlanta. Smith, Texas champion, showed the way at Dallas with a 142, while Emery, with 146, was one of three to qualify at Oklahoma City. Campbell and Givan earned their brackets last week at Tacoma. As former champions, Johnny Fischer, 1936 titlist, and Francis Ouimet were not required to qualify.

Freddy Haas Jr. of New Orleans, intercollegiate champion and Canadian title holder, posted a 145 at Detroit to lead a field that included Chuck Kocsis, Michigan's former intercollegiate king. Kocsis qualified with a 148.

Five Million Pick Eleven to Face Pros

FULL BACKS—Danbom, Notre Dame: Jankowski, Wisconsin: Geyer, Northwestern; Wilson, Illinois, and Toth, Northwestern.

Francis Leads List.

Some idea of the country's enthusiasm for the All-Star game may be gleaned from the fact that four candidates each received more than a million votes. They were Francis of Nebraska, Tinsley of Louisiana State, Widseth of Minnesota, and Reid of Northwestern. Francis was the pace setter with 1,104,372.

Congratulations are due especially to the players from the smaller schools who succeeded in landing places on the All-Star squad. It took almost the unanimous support of their communities to achieve that goal. This department wishes it could increase the squad to at least seventy-five, because the effort expended in behalf of some of the unsuccessful candidates should not go unrewarded. But housing and training facilities will be taxed, as it is.

Returns already are pouring in for the staf of coaches which will be elected to handle the All-Stars. It has been necessary to increase the coaching board to five members because of the exceptionally large squad. The voting for coaches will end at midnight, Aug. 8, so hurry along your preferences. You are invited to pick three. Your first choice will count 3 points, second 2 and third 1. Total points will decide the winner.

The Cubs were a long time getting more than one hit off Hamlin, but they made it count. After Galan had gone out in the first inning, Hack sent a fly to left center and it bumped against the temporary fence a bit too high for Cooney to reach. Hack kept moving until he had reached third. He sprinted home on Collins' fly to Cooney.

Dodgers Make Threats.

Before getting around to actual scoring, the Dodgers served Carleton with a couple of warnings. Manush walked to open the second, but Phelps rolled to Hack for a double play and Herman threw out Lavagetto. The Dodger activity in the third was a bit more pronounced. Winsett led off with a single to right and got to second on Brown's infield out. Hamlin sent a lazy liner into center and Cavarretta wasn't especially speedy about picking it up. Even with this in his favor Winsett was nailed easily on the throw to the plate.

The jolting of Carleton in the fourth, when the enemy went ahead by 2 to 1, was so severe that the first four men reached base. Stripp singled to center and skipped to third on Hassett's single to right. Manush also singled to right, Stripp scoring the tying run and Hassett going to third. Phelps walked, the gift loading the bases with none out. Lavagetto was erased on a pop foul, but Hassett had time to run home while Herman was throwing out Winsett.

Dodger Threat Fails.

Carleton didn't get through the sixth without another reminder from the funny guys. Hassett started the inning with a rakish two bagger into right center. Manush grounded to second and Herman, instead of making the orthodox throw to first, shot the ball to Hack to head off Hassett at third. Hassett tried to squirm out of the basket, but finally succumbed.

The Cub sixth started with Galan's infield out, but business picked up immediately. Hack singled to left. Collins was out when Lavegetto made a great stop of his tough grounder. A wild pitch put Hack on third and he sauntered home with the tying run on Demaree's double over third. Demaree scored on Herman's single to left, after which O'Dea fouled out.

Carleton was within an inch of complications in the eighth. Hassett produced a single to left for his third hit. Manush rammed a wicked liner toward right center, but Herman leaped, clutched the ball in his gloved hand and whipped it to Collins in time to double Hassett off first. Herman also threw out Phelps.

Hack walked in the eighth and this was the starter of Hamlin's banishment, as well as of a cluster of two runs. Collins bunted to Stripp, who took a look at second, but decided to throw to first. Lavagetto, who was covering first on the play, ducked as a matter of safety just as the throw arrived. This maneuver, which was strictly of a Brooklyn variety, cost Stripp an undeserved error and put Hack on third and Collins on second. Demaree's single to center drove them home.

Larry French will endeavor to southpaw the Cubs to victory today in the second of the series with the Dodgers. Max Butcher will do the best he can for his own team.

Rigney Dodges Trouble.

The Senators were stopped after a dangerous start in the seventh. Lewis beat out a bunt to Berger, who picked up the ball just as it was about to roll foul. Travis singled to right, Lewis taking third. Simmons bounced to Appling and Lewis was out at the plate. Stone forced Simmons and Kuhel lined to Kreevich.

Lewis opened the home ninth with his fourth single and advanced to third on Travis' grounder to Hayes and Simmons' bouncer to Bonura. Stone and Kuhel were intentionally passed, filling the bases. Myer singled to left, scoring Lewis with the winning run.

Vern Kennedy will pitch for the Sox tomorrow afternoon in the middle game of the series. Eddie Linke, pleasant Chicagoan of varying fortunes, has been designated by the Senators.

JUDGE'S OPINION GIVES MALONE'S PLEA A SETBACK

Finds Evidence Sufficient; Rules Tomorrow.

Judge William H. Holly in federal court expressed the opinion yesterday that the evidence in the income tax trial of William H. Malone, former chairman of the state tax commission, was sufficient to justify Malone's conviction. Malone was found guilty by a jury last June 7 of evading income tax payments of $59,000 for 1929 and 1930.

The judge's remark came after Attorney Albert H. Fink, counsel for Malone, had completed a three day argument on a motion for a new trial. As Assistant District Attorney Austin Hall began to speak, Judge Holly interrupted and said, "In order to limit argument I wish to state that in the opinion of the court the evidence in the trial was sufficient to justify the verdict."

Other Points Raised.

Judge Holly's remark was considered a setback for Malone, but not a final indication of the court's ruling, because other grounds besides insufficiency of evidence are being urged by Fink as grounds for a new trial.

Other points raised by Fink were misconduct on the part of government prosecutors for alleged inflammatory remarks to the jury and that the jurors were prejudiced by reading newspaper articles during the trial quoting letters from the President about rich tax dodgers.

"Juror Charles A. Pflaum said he heard one juror say, 'This would be a good place to get after the tax dodgers,' Attorney Fink read from an affidavit of two of the jurors. Fink also contended the court had allowed a faulty instruction to be read to the jurors.

Lashes Malone Counsel.

After Assistant District Attorney Hall concluded his argument, in which he made a blistering attack on Fink, court was adjourned until 11 a. m. tomorrow, when Judge Holly will give his ruling. Malone was found guilty on two counts—one for each year. The total possible punishment he faces is ten years in a federal prison and a $20,000 fine.

Changing Marquette's Cowl to Be Decided by Hewitt

Hewitt yesterday. Dr. Margery Nesbit, who is leading the movement to change the plaque, left with the commissioner a three foot model of the proposed alterations. The model was prepared by Eugene Romeo, the artist proposed as the one to make the change.

Gags His Rivals, but Circulation Lags.

MILAN, Italy, July 27.—(AP)—All of Premier Mussolini's efforts have not succeeded in getting his newspaper, Popolo d'Italia, up to the circulation level of its principal rival, the Corriere della Sera.

Various forms of pressure have been applied to increase its sales—such as requiring Fascist headquarters and branches and all chapters of the Fascist youth movement to subscribe, making all other newspapers print an advance announcement when the Popolo is about to publish an important editorial, and compelling those papers to reprint the editorial themselves on the day after, with credit to the Popolo.

Circulation Fails to Jump.

But circulation is still only about 325,000, while the Corriere has a sale of 450,000. Milan's population is just over a million.

The Popolo's advertising rates are high; the Corriere's are still higher. In fact, the latter paper's are among the highest in the world.

The Corriere charges 15 lire per millimeter per column width for one insertion of nonclassified advertising. That means about $20 per inch per column. A full page costs around $3,500.

The man who needs a job or a furnished room pays much less than he who wants to hire some one or is offering the room for rent. Help wanted ads cost 10.4 cents a word, but work wanted ads cost 5.2 cents. Rooms for rent ads cost 7.8 cents a word, and requests for rooms 5.2 cents.

Size of Newspapers Limited.

In the Popolo it costs $14.20 an inch for a marriage announcement, and only $7.10 for a death notice.

The government exacts a tax of 1.8 per cent of the total from the paper.

The high cost of paper—3.1 cents a pound—restricts the size of newspapers, and on July 15 all newspapers were limited by law to six pages daily to save cellulose.

All newspapers in Italy sell for 30 centesimi a copy, or 1.6 cents.

No financial figures are published for Popolo d'Italia, but Il Duce is generally considered to have a profitable enterprise.

M. P. PROPOSES U. S. TAKE OVER HOLY LAND RULE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, July 27.—Geoffrey le M. Mander suggested in the house of commons today that Great Britain's mandate over Palestine be transferred to the United States. Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain refused to discuss the matter.

Mander, a Liberal, asked if, "in view of the British government's unwillingness to continue to administer the mandate for Palestine," it would consent to such a transfer.

"The first part of the question is not a correct statement of the [British] position, therefore the second part does not arise," Chamberlain replied.

[The British government recently approved a plan to divide Palestine into Jewish, Arab, and British mandated states. The plan has been referred to the league of nations. Britain now has a mandate over all of Palestine.]

HOWELL PLEADS FOR FREE PRESS AS SOCIAL NEED

Atlanta, Ga. July 27.—(AP)—Clark Howell, publisher of the Constitution, declared here today that preservation of a free press is the only certain way to forestall "the depredations of plutocracy on one hand or predatory poverty on the other."

Howell, chief speaker on today's program of the Atlanta Kiwanis club, said the nation's newspapers are unfettered now, but warned that "the price of freedom is eternal vigilance."

He cited forthright criticism of President Roosevelt by widely read columnists as evidence that American newspapers are filling without fear their vital rôle of "censors" for the government.

U. S. STEEL PAYS UP ARREARS ON SENIOR SHARES

Enabled to Resume Common Dividends.

BY JOHN FISHER.

Common stock holders of the United States Steel corporation yesterday foresaw the end of five lean years as the company cleared up arrears on the preferred stock. Coincident with a $3 dividend declaration on the preferred, the company reported that June quarter earnings were the largest for any quarter since 1929.

Edward R. Stettinius [Chairman U. S. Steel finance committee.] [Blank & Stoller Photo.]

No dividends were declared on the common, but the clearing up of the last unpaid accumulation on the preferred, together with the upturn in earnings, encouraged the holders of common stock to believe that their long deferred pay day may be near. The last distribution on the common was 50 cents per share in March, 1932. Prior to that time common dividends had averaged $7 annually.

Await Return of Taylor.

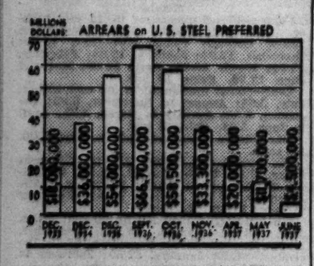
Financial quarters were of the opinion that dividend action on the common stock would have to await the return of Myron C. Taylor, chairman of the board, who is expected back early in September from a vacation in Europe. The next regular dividend meeting will be in three months, but action could be taken at a special meeting. The two preceding payments on arrears were declared at other than dividend meetings.

Other steel companies threatened to steal the spotlight from "Big Steel" yesterday. Inland Steel company, despite the recent serious strike, reported relatively favorable earnings, and declared an extra dividend of 50 cents on the capital stock in addition to the regular one dollar quarterly payment. Jones & Laughlin, Allegheny and Ludlum reported sharp profit gains.

The United States Steel dividend was split into $1.25 on accumulations and the regular quarterly payment of $1.75, both payable Aug. 30 to stock of record Aug. 2. The total distribution amounts to more than $10,000,000.

Earnings Above Year Ago.

The company reported that net income available for dividends on the preferred and common stocks amounted to $36,173,682 in the June quarter, equal to $3.43 a share on the common, after preferred dividend requirements. This compared with $28,561,533, or $2.55 a common share, in the preceding quarter, and $12,682,423, or 75 cents a common share, in the June quarter last year.



Six months' earnings amounted to $64,735,215, or $5.99 a common share, against $16,238,727, or 41 cents a common share, for the first half of 1936.

Edward R. Stettinius, chairman of the finance committee, presided at the directors' meeting in New York, where the report was presented.

Report Steel Demand Good.

"Steel products continued in good demand and showed some further improvement during the second quarter," the company's report said, adding that "practically all lines participated in this better showing."

The company reported that in the June quarter it was operating at 88.4 per cent plant capacity, and that shipments were at 97½ per cent of capacity. Shipments of steel products in the quarter totaled 3,916,233 tons,

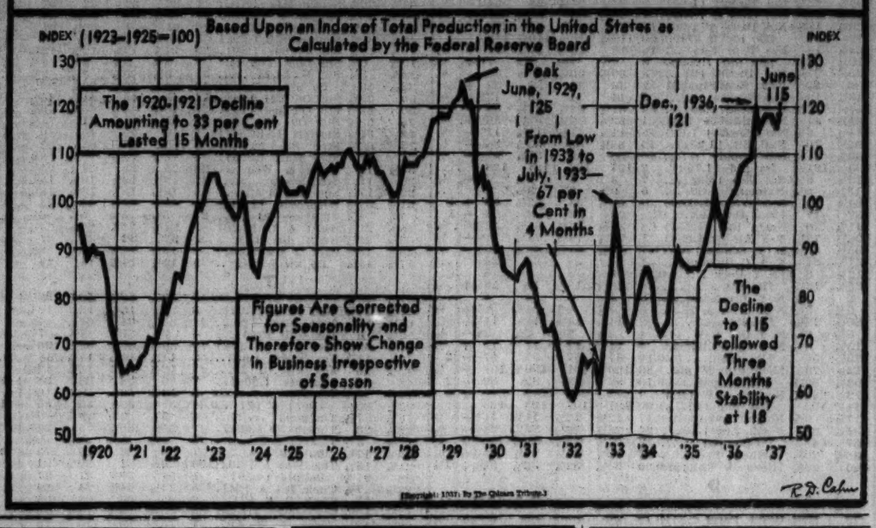
Industrial Production of the United States Declined Moderately in June



[Copyright, 1937, By The Chicago Tribune.]

Several Firms in Varied Lines Boost Profits

Results of operations for the first half of 1937 were reported yesterday by several corporations in different fields. Concerns reporting profits for the six month period exceeding the comparable 1936 period included Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing company, makers of heavy machinery, Studebaker corporation, and the National Lead company.

Net profit of $4,141,748, or $2.34 per share on the common stock, was shown by Allis-Chalmers for the six month period. This was nearly double the $2,088,600, or $1.35 a share, earned in the first half of 1936. June quarter profit was $2,636,850, or $1.49 a share, against $1,334,473, or 99 cents a share, last year.

Studebaker Earns More.

Studebaker operations yielded a half year profit of $1,174,518, equal to 54 cents a share, compared with $1,005,928, or 46 cents a share, in the corresponding 1936 period. Second quarter operations, however, proved less profitable than the corresponding 1936 period, although the volume of business was larger, June quarter sales were $22,216,310 and net profit was $475,058, compared with $19,422,067 and $900,175, respectively, in the June quarter of 1936.

Net income of $5,192,266, or $1.36 a share, was reported for the first half of 1937 by National Lead, fabricator of lead, tin, zinc, and other metals. Income included $1,100,000 nonrecurring profit. Net income was $2,740,927, or 57 cents a share, in the corresponding 1936 period.

Raps Federal Profits Tax.

The federal undistributed profits tax was criticized as "an unfortunate law" by Edward J. Cornish, board chairman of National Lead, in the semi-annual report.

"If it influences all corporations in the United States to declare out everything they have in dividends, instead of growing along the lines of past growth, you are likely at some time to see an epidemic of failures that would be terrific," said Cornish.

"I don't think this is coming soon, but I consider that that law is very bad and I will not undertake to tell you how long we can continue to pay our usual dividends if we are going to be punished for creating a surplus for further use.

"I do not know what we will have to do before the year is over. Naturally, we do not like to give money that belongs to our common stock holders to the federal government."

Savage Arms Profit Soars.

Savage Arms corporation, firearms manufacturers, reported net profit of $153,335, equal to 91 cents a share, for the three months ended June 30, compared with $55,016, or 32 cents a share, in the corresponding 1936 quarter.

The Crane company, manufacturer of valves, heating apparatus, and plumbing equipment, reported consolidated net income of $9,944,354 for the twelve months ended June 30.

Chicago Mail Order company reported a profit of $93,632 for the six months ended June 30, compared with a profit of $282,094 in the corresponding 1935 period. Sales for the period totaled $12,560,512 against $11,979,126. E. M. Schnadig, president,

BANK ACQUIRES COLLATERAL OF INSULL CONCERN

New York, July 27.—(AP)—The Chase National bank, with a bid of $444,360, today acquired collateral behind a loan made by the bank in 1932 to the Corporation Securities company, Chicago, bankrupt holding company which once was part of the vast $2,000,000,000 Insull Utility network.

The bank is understood to have loaned Corporation Securities company $500,000 shortly before the Insull empire collapsed. The regular legal procedure of foreclosing on the securities pledged behind this loan culminated today at an auction sale. The Chase bank was the only bidder. Its bid was said to be ½ of a point above the market value of the collateral.

The loan collateral consisted of three parcels. The first parcel was 2,093 shares of capital stock of the Commonwealth Edison company, for which the bank bid $116.75 a share, or $244,357. The second parcel was 2,068 shares of capital stock of the Peoples Gas, Light and Coke company, for which the bid was $51.75 a share, or $107,019. The third parcel was 1,177 shares of no par value of common stock of the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois, for which the bank bid $79 a share, or $92,983.

Crude Oil Production Is Highest on Record

New York, July 27.—(AP)—Crude oil production jumped to the highest level on record in the week ended July 24, the weekly summary by the American Petroleum institute today indicated. The flow stepped up to 3,576,400 barrels daily, an increase of 18,450 barrels from the preceding week. The heavy demand for gasoline from vacation bound motorists was said in trade circles to have been an important factor in lifting production.

Germany Will Seize Crops of Wheat and Rye

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, July 27.—Every German farmer must deliver to the reich his harvest of wheat and rye this year, except what he requires to make bread for his own family and employés, and for the next sowing of his own land. A decree to this effect was issued today by Col. Gen. Hermann Wilhelm Goering, chief of Germany's four year plan for economic self-sufficiency, and Walter Darre, minister of agriculture.

The grain, it was explained, is needed for bread for the population. Farmers are forbidden, under threats of severe penalties—they may be sent to prison for a year for defying the decree—to use any wheat and rye for feeding animals. An official statement mentioned that 35,000 tons of wheat alone were used for fodder during June.

Enough Grain Until Harvest.

Assurances were given that Germany has sufficient grain in hand until the new harvest is ready. Involved official statistics indicate the present holdings of farmers, mills and granaries amount to 720,000 tons of rye and 408,000 tons of wheat.

As a further measure to save foodstuffs in view of the expected poor harvest this year, Heinrich Himmler, chief of police, instructed police of the entire country to take energetic steps to prevent fires and punish those responsible for fires. He declared the annual destruction of the harvest crops through fires would suffice to feed 200,000 persons. He warned especially that there must be no smoking when threshing.

Orders Increase in Hogs.

A warning was issued to farmers that they must increase the number of sows in farrow, else there be a renewed shortage of pork next year. While the total number of swine was increased in the last year by 400,000 to 22,700,000, the number of sows in farrow declined by 210,000 to 1,180,000.

ALLEGHANY BOND LISTING REQUEST IS WITHDRAWN

New York, July 27.—[Special.]—The New York Stock exchange announced today that applications to list bonds of the Alleghany corporation deposited in favor of a merger with the Chesapeake corporation, and the latter's stamped stock also in favor of the merger, had been withdrawn by their sponsors.

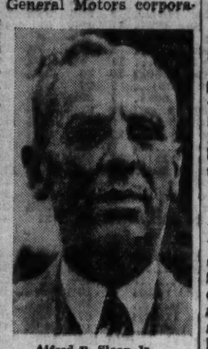
Withdrawal by the applicants possibly saved the exchange from embarrassment which might have developed over any action taken by it. Some of the exchange authorities believed that listing would have laid the exchange open to a further denunciation from Senator Wheeler.

Robert R. Young, chairman of both the railroad holding companies, said the decision to withdraw was made this afternoon. He said the fact that the issues would not be listed would not hinder the merger.

BLAME STRIKES FOR GEN. MOTORS LOWER PROFITS

Sloan Assails Union as Irresponsible.

New York, July 27.—(AP)—Net earnings of the General Motors corporation in the second quarter of 1937 declined $22,377,277, compared with the similar period a year ago, Alfred P. Sloan Jr., chairman, disclosed in a financial statement today.



Alfred P. Sloan Jr.

In a vigorously worded explanation he blamed "materially higher costs" together with inability, because of strikes, to make full use of production capacities. After assailing inability of labor leadership to control its own followers, he suggested a "proper respect" for understandings with industry might have to be "superimposed from without by due process of law." He referred directly to the United Automobile Workers of America.

Brands Union Irresponsible.

"It cannot be said that so far the United Automobile Workers of America have proven themselves to be a responsible body, with ability to live up to their contractual obligations," said Sloan. "Manifestly, neither industry in general, nor General Motors in particular, can be expected to long tolerate such a complete disregard of its own rights."

Net earnings for the three month period, he said, totaled $65,731,100, including a nonoperating profit of $1,473,079, equal to $1.48 a share on the common stock after preferred stock requirements. This compared with $88,108,372, or $2 a share, in the second quarter of 1936. For the first six months net earnings were placed at $110,545,266, or $2.47 a share, against $140,872,546, or $3.17 a share, in the corresponding period last year.

Predicts Higher Auto Prices.

The trend toward rapidly increasing costs, due in part to increased wages, "a certain decrease in labor efficiency" and higher material costs, must naturally "reflect itself in a substantial increase in selling prices," Sloan declared. He would not predict how much such an increase would be, as "the facts are not yet available."

There were only ten working days in the second quarter "without interruptions of some sort or other" from unauthorized walkouts, Sloan said.

"While all the corporation's car manufacturing divisions were adversely affected," he added, "circumstances were such that the greatest part of the burden fell on the Chevrolet Motor division.

"All this occurred notwithstanding the fact that the contract entered into with the United Automobile Workers of America specifically sets forth that there would be no interruptions, so far as that organization was concerned, either through strikes or otherwise, until the machinery specifically set forth in the agreement to eliminate same had been exhausted. Such machinery was not even called into play.

"It seems perfectly clear that the leadership of such organizations as workers may elect to support for the purpose of 'collective bargaining' must develop a proper respect for such understandings as may result therefrom, whether covered by written agreements or otherwise. A possible alternative is that such responsibility must be superimposed from without by the due process of law."

Discusses Wages and Hours.

"Much might be said as to the effect of increased selling prices on the course of the recovery movement, and as affecting the economic trend in general and the problem of employment in particular. The hope might be expressed that sooner or later the fact will be recognized that sound and desirable progress, reflecting a higher standard of living, never can be made possible by the policy of arbitrarily increasing wages, shortening hours and reducing efficiency, without regard to the effect on real prices.

"Higher wages and shorter hours—highly desirable objectives—are a by-product of technological advance. It is an evolutionary and cannot be a revolutionary process."

Negotiate New Agreement.

Detroit, Mich., July 27.—(AP)—Conferees negotiating a revised agreement between the General Motors corporation and the United Automobile Workers of America would say only that preliminary conversations had been "general" as they ended their first session tonight. They will meet again tomorrow.

Export Buying Boosts Wheat; Prices Advance 2⅛ to 4½ Cents

	Yesterday.	Monday.	Year ago.
Wheat	$1.18¼	$1.15⅝	$1.06⅛
Corn	.97½	.96⅝	.91¼
Oats	.30⅞	.30¼	.37¼
Rye	.82	.81¼	.74⅝
Soy beans (October)	1.04¾	1.03¼	.....

More active support for the buying side of the active deliveries of grain was in evidence yesterday, and at no time did wheat futures sell below the closing level of Monday on the Chicago Board of Trade.

Further reports of a good export business in domestic wheat, with sales estimated as high as 750,000 bushels, a sharp falling off in the movement in the southwest and persistent buying, which the trade attributed to mills, readily absorbed hedging sales, and closing trades were within small fractions of a cent a bushel of the highest level of the day. Net gains were 2¼ to 4½ cents a bushel, the latter on July which went to 4¼ cents over September.

Other Grains Unsettled.

Other grains were somewhat unsettled, with evening up in July contracts having some effect. July corn declined 4½ cents at the extreme to 99½ cents, the lowest level for that delivery since late in February, but a rally came later on short covering and the close was at $1.02¼, a net loss of 1⅞ cents. The deferred deliveries of corn were ⅝ to ⅞ cent higher. Oats closed unchanged to ⅛ cent a bushel higher in the face of persistent hedging sales.

An effort to cover short sales of July rye disclosed a lack of offerings and the price advanced 7⅛ cents, or within ½ cent a bushel of the permissible limit, closing at the top figure of the day, 92 cents. The distant futures gained ⅝ cent. The trade had reports of further export business in domestic and Canadian rye. Soy bean futures closed ¼ to 1 cent lower.

Independent strength in July wheat yesterday tended to increase the belief in some quarters that exporters wanted a delivery of cash grain on their contracts. At the opening of the session the open interest in July wheat was 2,305,000 bushels. There have been only 55,000 bushels of wheat delivered on July contracts so far this month. Trading in July wheat and other grains will cease at the close today.

Considerable attention was given by brokers to a rumor that the United Kingdom might remove the 6 cent a bushel duty on non-empire wheat. The report was said to have originated in New York late last week. It lacked confirmation.

Winnipeg Price Weak.

While American grain markets showed strength yesterday, Winnipeg was independently weak, with July closing 1⅛ cents a bushel lower. The selling there was attributed to traders who did not care to pay for the Garnet variety of wheat which was being delivered. This variety of wheat is said to be rather unfavorable from a milling standpoint. It was quoted yesterday at 6 cents a bushel discount as compared with No. 1 northern.

Crop prospects in Illinois are the best since 1932 it was announced yesterday by A. J. Surratt of the Illinois and federal departments of agriculture. Condition of the crops, with the exception of some army worm damage, was maintained during the last week. The prospect for a large corn crop continues one of the best in years. Corn has made exceptional growth up to this time.

The price of grain for delivery in May, 1938, will be officially quoted on the Chicago Board of Trade starting July 29.

GETTY INTERESTS RENEW DRIVE TO RULE TIDEWATER

New York, July 27.—(AP)—Stockholders of Tidewater Associated Oil company have been asked by the J. Paul Getty interests to support a move for a change in management policies of Tidewater, it was learned today. In a letter signed by William G. Skelly, president of Mission corporation, a Getty company, the Tidewater shareholders were urged to oppose any further increase in Tidewater common stock and to seek restoration of one year terms for directors and a reduction in their number.

The Getty interests, of which J. Paul Getty of San Francisco is the leader, are opposed to election of directors for terms longer than one year, the letter stated. Under its present charter Tidewater directors are elected for three year terms.

Commenting on the Skelly letter, Tidewater Associated officials said the company had no desire to put out new stock except under conditions which made such action advantageous to the company. The Skelly communication was viewed in Wall street financial circles as another step in the campaign long waged by the Getty interests to increase their influence in the Tidewater management. The Getty companies, including the Pacific Western Oil corporation, have large holdings in Tidewater Associated.

Former Finance Minister Made Bank of Japan Head

TOKIO, July 27.—(AP)—Toyotaro Yuki, former finance minister, was appointed governor of the Bank of Japan today, replacing Seihin Ikeda, who has been in ill health.

FIELD'S PROFIT FOR SIX MONTHS IS $1,268,746

Equal to 29 Cents on Common Shares.

BY HERBERT VEDDER.

Marshall Field & Co. yesterday announced that its earnings in the first six months of this year were the best in eight years. Net income after normal federal income tax but before provision for surtax on undistributed profits was $1,268,746, or 29 cents per common share. This compared with net income of $30,457, or only a fraction of preferred dividend requirements in the first half of 1936.

The 1937 net income topped the figure of $1,122,800 for the first half of 1930, but could not be compared with 1929 results because the company at that time did not have stock outstanding in the hands of the general public and did not issue a statement for the first half of the year.

Loss for Five Years.

Fields operated at a loss in the first half of each of the five years after 1930. Department stores ordinarily depend upon the last half of the calendar year—particularly the final three months—for the major part of their profits.

Net income in the second quarter of this year was $655,734 or 15 cents a share, compared with $124,989, less than preferred dividend needs, in the second quarter of 1936. First quarter net income was $613,012 or 14 cents a share in 1937, contrasted with a loss of $94,532 in the first three months of 1936.

Sales showed a slight decline, amounting to $47,693,053 in the first half of 1937, compared with $48,317,471 in the first six months of 1936. This was the result of second quarter operations, when sales receded to $23,657,942 from $24,506,056 reported in the second quarter of 1936.

Explains Sales Loss.

In issuing his report, however, Chairman James O. McKinsey explained that an increase would be shown if 1936 sales of discontinued lines of merchandise and of the Davis store were eliminated. On this basis, sales were $40,654,997 in the first half of 1936, and the 1937 figures represent an improvement of 17.3 per cent. The rate of gain was 18.7 per cent in the first quarter and 15.9 per cent in the second quarter.

Per share figures used in computing earnings are not strictly comparable because of a comprehensive readjustment of capital structure of the company during the latter part of 1936. Debt and interest charges were reduced as 7 per cent preferred stock was exchanged for 6 per cent stock and dividend arrears paid.

SUITABLE FOR "A" BUT NOT FOR "B"

An investment program should be "tailored" to individual requirements. What is suitable for "A" may not be at all suitable for "B", whose circumstances and personal needs are different.

As Investment Counsellors, serving a group of substantial investors, we have no ready-made programs, no master investment formulas. Each fund is individually considered. Its specific objective is carefully defined and a systematic program is planned to achieve it, through continuous and efficient supervision.

We still serve some clients who retained Investment Counsel more than twelve years ago. Inquiries are invited from investors with funds of $100,000 or more. Our booklet will be sent on request.

New York Stocks.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, July 27.—With many traders showing a disposition to await the United States Steel corporation's report—which was not due until after the close of the market—stocks were put through their paces by a somewhat diminished speculative group today, with the result that prices generally worked toward lower levels.

Declines, however, were limited in most cases as issues displayed an ability to absorb sales without too much damage. The tone throughout the session was generally firm. In consequence, activity slowed down appreciably, volume for the day receding to 739,150 shares.

U. S. Steel common, which declined almost a point at the start of trading, recovered practically all the loss before the close to show only a minor fractional decline. Bethlehem and Youngstown sagged fractionally on light dealings, while Republic held steady for most of the session to close unchanged.

Power stocks came in for some profit taking and values were lowered moderately in the majority of instances. Consolidated Edison led the decline, with a 1½ point drop. American Power and Light and Standard Gas and Electric declined fractions. Communication issues also declined fractionally.

Motors declined with other pivotal issues. Chrysler dropped 1½ points while General Motors and lower priced auto stocks dropped fractionally.

However, all was not minus on the board. Sugar shares, reflecting the belief that congress would extend the present sugar legislation, showed good energy.

Aviation issues also reflected increased interest.

Merchandising issues came into prominence in late trading on prospects of good fall and winter business. Woolworth up 1½ and Marshall Field, up a fraction, attracted considerable attention.

New York Bonds.

New York, July 27.—[Special.]—A moderate increase today in volume of trading in bonds was, in general, at the expense of prices. Pivotal issues in the major groups were in supply at slightly lower levels. Both the higher grade investment bonds and many of the secondary loans—reflected the lack of support. There was, however, no sign of any severe selling pressure.

The softening in prices of federal obligations stood out as the main group movement. Although values rallied somewhat from their lows, closing quotations showed losses of 1-32 to 8-32 point, and gains of 1-32 to 4-32 point. Traders could point to no specific development which might have caused the reversal in the trend. Other than that federal issues have enjoyed a steady upward movement and consequently a normal consolidation of the recent gains was in order.

Easing tendencies also predominated in domestic corporation bonds. Secondary railroad liens were irregularly lower. About the only bright spot in the corporate list were the sugar bonds which responded to a brisk demand with substantial gains.

Chicago Stocks.

Chicago stocks were irregularly lower yesterday. Trading totaled 38,000 shares, or slightly less than on Monday. Cord was the most active issue—sales amounting to 6,550 shares—and rose ⅜ point. Marshall Field advanced ¾ in active trading. Middle West dipped ⅝, General Finance lost ⅛, and Chicago corporation common rose ⅛. Twenty-eight issues advanced, 45 declined and 31 remained unchanged.

Bank Stocks.

Chicago bank stocks were irregular yesterday. Continental Illinois advanced $1 a share, First National declined $2, National Boulevard and National Builders each declined $5, and Terminal National rose $1. City National gained $2.

Commodities

Rubber, cotton, and grains, heavily liquidated in recent trading sessions on leading world markets, yesterday assumed the leadership in a rally which carried prices of most staples moderately above the previous close. Best prices for most commodities developed near the end of trading.

Rubber futures, which opened down nearly 0.25 cent a pound for some contracts, finished with gains of from 0.04 to 0.07 cent and smoked ribbed sheets for immediate delivery gained 0.06 cent to close at 18.38 cents a pound.

Cottonseed oil futures advanced 0.06 to 0.09 cent a pound along with allied markets. Silk and cocoa were irregular, but wool tops advanced another ½ cent in the New York cash market to $1.16 a pound and futures unchanged to moderately higher.

Lead was in demand in the New York cash market, and a brisk business in copper for immediate delivery was reported in both New York and London. Sales of export copper in New York were made at from 14.20 to 14.35 cents a pound. Lead futures closed unchanged to 0.02 cent higher, and copper futures finished unchanged to 0.11 cent higher.

Some grades of hides in the Chicago cash market were quoted as much as ½ cent a pound higher, and hide futures in New York closed unchanged to 0.03 cent higher.

CHICAGO FLAT SHORTAGE SEEN GROWING CLOSER

Apartment Occupancy Put at 97.15 Per Cent.

BY AL CHASE.

Chicago's long predicted housing shortage is now closer than it has been since the post-war residential crisis, when would-be tenants were bidding against each other for needed living space. According to the second annual survey made public yesterday by the Apartment Building Owners and Managers' association of Chicago, of which Louis Sudler is president, 97.15 per cent of this city's apartment buildings were occupied on May 15. This compares with an occupancy percentage of 94.78 per cent a year ago.

Stating this situation in another way, the survey shows that only 2.85 per cent of Chicago's apartments were vacant. This is considerably less than normal, it was pointed out. The rate of occupancy is much higher than in normal times. Only 608 apartments were vacant out of a total of 21,311 from which reports were received.

Unfurnished Apartments.

The association's survey showed that the highest occupancy was in the smaller unfurnished apartments, of one to four rooms, with the one room units reporting a vacancy of only 1.26 per cent. Unfurnished suites as a whole showed a higher occupancy ratio than did the furnished. Of the 18,400 unfurnished apartments from which reports were received, only 483, or 2.62 per cent, were vacant.

The south side reported the highest apartment occupancy, with only 137 empty flats out of a total of 6,020 reporting, or a vacancy ratio of 2.28 per cent.

North Side Lags.

Occupancy on the north side was slightly behind the other parts of the city, according to the survey. Out of 11,883 apartments reporting, 376 were vacant, or 3.16 per cent.

Stating it from an occupancy standpoint the south side flats were 97.72 per cent rented; those on the west side, 97.21 per cent occupied, and the north side apartments, 96.84 per cent full.

A point emphasized in the survey was the trend toward unfurnished in preference to furnished apartments. Of the reports eceived, 86.34 pe cent were from unfurnished units this year, as compared with a percentage of 80.45 last year.

Thirty-five property owners and management offices, including banks, insurance companies, liquidation trusts and estates, filed returns this year, all as of May 15, covering 21,311 apartments of all sizes, both furnished and unfurnished.

PROPERTY VALUE CUT BY ILLINOIS TAX COMMISSION

Springfield, Ill., July 27.—[Special.]—The Illinois tax commission today announced 1936 valuations for tax purposes totaled $5,153,117,648. This is the lowest figure since the depression began, being a decrease of $114,485,522 from 1935, and continuing the steady decline in assessment valuations. The figure was above 6 billion dollars in 1932.

Cook county assessments totaled $2,377,075,504, compared with $2,463,044,300 in 1935. The figure for the downstate counties was cut to $2,776,042,144 from $2,804,558,970 in 1935. The largest decrease in 1936 came from reduction in assessment of railroad property from $299,736,837 to $264,195,385.

Real estate valuations were shaved from $2,050,925,833 to $2,048,725,369. Personal property, however, was boosted from $419,723,346 to $426,878,629. Capital stock assessments also were higher, value being placed at $30,860,079 in 1936, compared with $28,701,955 in 1935.

RFC IS READY TO SELL BANKS UNISSUED NOTES

Washington, D. C., July 27.—[Special.]—Officials of the Reconstruction Finance corporation said today that the remaining $5,000,000 of unissued 1½ per cent notes of the corporation may be sold if application for them is made. About $42,000,000 of the notes have been sold to banks on a 1¼ per cent baiss since July 1.

The RFC is authorized to sell $300,000,000 of these tax exempt notes, of which $295,051,000 are now outstanding. Most of the notes were issued to banks in exchange for preferred stock. The $42,000,000 issued since July 1, however, represent new borrowings by the corporation.

A membership in the Chicago Mercantile exchange has been posted for transfer to Meyer Friedman, partner of S. Friedman & Sons, Chicago.

Four applicants were elected members of the Chicago Board of Trade yesterday. They are Jerome A. Bomash, secretary and treasurer of M. J. Bomash Realty company, Chicago; Horace B. Earle, agent and attorney for Earle, Stoddard, Clayton of New York and Liverpool; Raymond A. McMann, broker, Hillside, N. J., and Leslie J. Healy, partner of Leslie J. Healy & Co., New Orleans cotton brokers.

In an item in Tuesday's TRIBUNE on the election of officers of Bell Savings Building and Loan association, the name of the organization was incorrectly given as Bell Telephone Building and Loan association.

PENSION CREDITS CAUSE BOOST IN RAIL INCOMES

Help Keep Earnings from Showing Decline.

Returns by 51 class I railways, representing about 70 per cent of the industry, show that credits taken from accruals under the railway pension law of 1935 resulted in an aggregate net gain in June for the group which would not have been obtained if the credits had not been taken.

The combined net operating income of these companies was $41,310,000 in June, against $40,013,000 in June, 1936, an increase of 3.2 per cent. Their gross was $274,923,000, a gain of 5.3 per cent from June, 1936.

It is indicated that, had it not been for the credits, the aggregate net operating income would have been $32,242,000 in June, a decline of 19.4 per cent from June, 1936.

Burlington Has Profit.

The Burlington railroad, an important carrier of grains and other agricultural products, yesterday reported net income for June of $599,743, or 35 cents a common share, against a loss of $442,378 in June, 1936. More than 97 per cent of the Burlington's 1,708,591 common shares are owned in equal parts by Northern Pacific and Great Northern railroads.

Net income of the Burlington for the six months ended June 30, 1937, was $452,639, equal to 26 cents a common share, against a loss of $942,194 in the first half of 1936. The road had a substantial loss in May.

Gross operating revenues for June were $7,740,216 and net operating income, or income before fixed charges, was $1,346,297, against gross of $7,488,032 and net operating income of $263,655 in June, 1936. For the six months this year, gross operating revenues were $46,500,905, and net operating income was $4,757,906, against gross revenues of $43,963,246 and net operating income of $3,221,621 for the period last year.

C. & E. I. Reports Deficit.

Chicago and Eastern Illinois reported gross revenues for June of $1,236,656 and operating deficit, or deficit before fixed charges are considered, of $30,473, against gross revenues of $1,165,110 and operating income of $35,571 in June, 1936. Six months gross this year was $8,231,743, and net operating income was $612,282, against gross of $7,577,948 and net operating income of $393,592 in the first half of 1936.

The Southern Railway reported a decline in June net operating income to $978,370 from $1,247,593 in June, 1936.

Price 86 Plus Accrued Interest

These bonds combine basic security and strong current position in an unusually favorable way. With most municipal issues of similar security selling above par, these bonds at 86 are attractive.

- Location is in the heart of the famous "black waxy" agricultural area of Texas just south of Dallas.
- The County which includes Mexia would rank as the 3rd agricultural County in Iowa if located there—2nd in Wisconsin—and 1st in either Michigan or Indiana.
- Population is 6,579, this being the principal trading center for 2 wealthy agricultural Counties.
- Bond Fund Cash has been sufficient at all times since last January to pay all 1937 Debt Service in advance.
- A minimum Bond Tax is pledged, so large that tax collections of only 37% would fully provide this year's debt requirements. Actual Collections averaged 85.4% for last 3 years.
- Debt Reduction since 1935 exceeds 10% of City's total Debt.

FEDERAL CREDIT AGENCY OFFERS BIG NOTE ISSUE

Secured by Cotton Held in Warehouses.

The Commodity Credit corporation yesterday announced plans for the sale of $60,000,000 of 1 per cent notes. Subscriptions for the issue, which is dated Aug. 1 and matures May 2, 1938, were sought by the corporation.

The notes will be secured by warehouse receipts against 1,679,082 bales of cotton and by a guaranty by the Reconstruction Finance corporation to pay principal and interest. Holders of the notes have the right to declare them immediately payable if the market value of the collateral drops to less than 120 per cent of the face amount of the notes outstanding. The estimated market value of the cotton securing the notes was $90,000,000 on July 26.

Land Bank Bonds Oversubscribed.

The $28,000,000 issue of one year debentures of the Federal Home Loan Bank system, which was offered yesterday, was quickly oversubscribed. Banks were heavy purchasers of the issue.

The Home Owners Loan corporation will redeem $49,843,000, or its 1¾ per cent bonds maturing Aug. 15 out of cash on hand, officials said yesterday. No refunding issue will be offered. The corporation had more than 87 million dollars on hand July 17. Under the law money received as repayments of principal on mortgages held by the HOLC must be used to redeem bonds.

Hammons & Co. and Walter Lyon & Co. will offer 117,500 shares of common stock, par $1, of the Consumers Steel Products corporation, Detroit, at $3.20 a share.

The Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh railroad yesterday sought permission from the interstate commerce commission to issue $4,427,000 of 4½ per cent consolidated mortgage bonds, to redeem a corresponding amount of 5 per cent general mortgage bonds, maturing Sept. 1.

Investors' Guide

Wednesday, July 28, 1937.

[Copyright: 1937: By The Chicago Tribune.]

Pacific Mutual Life.

Investors' Guide: I have a paid up annuity policy with Pacific Mutual Life Insurance company, which has had some difficulty. Please advise if the company is safe.—A. B.

Answer: This company, which has been in business since 1868, was placed in the hands of the insurance commissioner of California in 1936 because the extremely unprofitable noncancelable disability policies had impaired capital and surplus. A plan of rehabilitation was placed in effect, however, and no changes were made in life and annuity contracts and in disability benefits in life policies or straight accident policies.

Benefits on the noncancelable disability policies, however, were reduced by amounts ranging from 10 per cent on newly issued forms to 80 per cent on the older and more generous policies.

One of the unusual phases of the rehabilitation is the specific division of assets among the various departments. Earnings of nonparticipating and accident and health departments and not more than 10 per cent of earnings of the participating department not required for protection of the business as a whole are to be used to restore benefits on noncancelable policies.

Admitted assets of the participating department amounted to $138,344,000 at the end of 1936. Income of the department was $8,868,000 and disbursements were $7,507,000 during 1936. The nonparticipating department had admitted assets of $54,385,000. Its income in 1936 was $3,565,000 and disbursements were $3,628,000.

Bonds considered of excellent quality represent 27 per cent of the company's physical assets, and mortgages which seem of good quality represent 34 per cent. Real estate, including the $10,928,000 home office [which is regarded as a single investment of too large size], makes up 15 per cent of assets.

Financial results of the company's ordinary life departments have been materially above the average in the past, and adjustment of noncancelable policies indicates that all operations should be satisfactory in the future. The management has been completely reorganized and rigid economies effected. A sufficient period of time has not elapsed, however, in which to judge benefits to be expected from the rehabilitation.

The company sets up about one-third of policy reserves on the strongest basis in general use and the rest on the minimum safe and adequate valuation basis in general use. Yield on assets was 3.3 per cent in 1936, a fair rate of return. Mortality has been favorable and net cost to policyholders has been low.

Day By Day Story of the Experimental Farms

By Frank Ridgway

Steers Butchered

July 27, 1937.

THE six blue gray steers produced in a special cross-breeding experiment at THE TRIBUNE experimental farm near Plano and Yorkville yielded 61½ per cent of live weight in beef according to a report from Swift & Co. On June 22 the steers were sold to Swift at $15.50 a hundredweight. They averaged 1,173⅓ pound, and brought an average of $178.60. The steers were a year and a half old at the time they were sold. Immediately after the sale they were slaughtered and the carcasses hung in coolers to be aged.

Since the steers were the first calves of young hefers used in the test, beef experts consider the dressing percentage satisfactory. The blue grays were the result of crossing pure bred Aberdeen-Angus, solid black, with a snow white pure bred Shorthorn bull.

Special Test Made.

Some of the cuts from the high quality carcasses already have been sold. To learn what all the various cuts would bring on the basis of recent wholesale market quotations, P. C. Smith, vice president of Swift in charge of beef operations, had a special test made on one of the Tribune farm steers. The test revealed:

Round	22.30	159	$ .24	$38.16
Loin end	7.43	55	.30	16.50
Short loin	8.35	59½	.72	42.84
Flank	5.23	38	.08	3.04

Shrink	.28	....	....	....
Total	100.00	713	*$ .24½	$174.74

*Average wholesale price per pound.

"Beef of this quality, which gives a high yield of dressed weight as compared with the live animal, is in particular demand by hotels, restaurants, and consumers who want their broiled steaks or roasts rare and tender," said Mr. Smith. "In fact, this grade of beef is 'rare' in another sense. Not more than 4 per cent of the cattle received in the Chicago market will come to this standard.

Color, Texture Excellent.

"In respect to the color and texture of the meat, the six beeves are excellent. There is also good marbling [intermixture of creamy-white fat with lean] and the age is right. It was noticed, however, that the conformation [shape and general structure of the carcass] was not entirely perfect. Although this cannot be taken as criticism of the method of cross-breeding, because of the small sample from which to judge, they appeared to be a little longer in the legs and not as 'blocky' as some other animals of this weight and quality," he added.

The Swift report explains that the prices given in the summary above are wholesale for the various cuts. Retail prices will be somewhat higher for the smaller cuts better known to consumers — porterhouse, sirloin, T-bone, and club steaks, as well as roasts from the rib and rump. The retail price includes the cost of shrinkage, ageing, carving into the individual cuts with the necessary loss in trimmings, and marketing through retail outlets.

The cost of slaughter and the difference of $3.86 between the average live weight price of $178.60 and the total wholesale value of $174.74 for the test steer carcass is covered by the returns from the hide and byproducts, including hoofs, bones, and glands.

Paves Way for Resumption of Common Dividends.

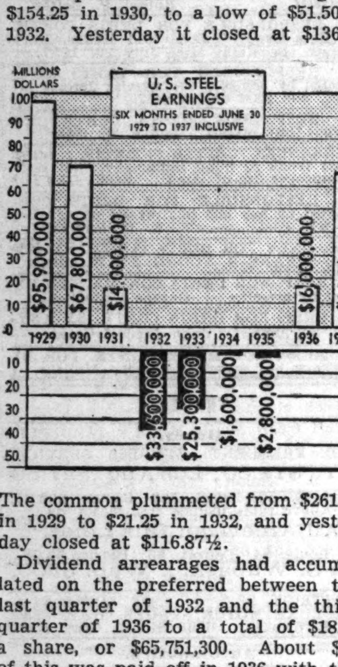
The company's dividend and report were of interest not only to 224,000 common and preferred stock holders, but also to business men and investors in general. It was looked upon as an index of business conditions, because of the wide distribution of the company's products and their diversified uses.

Act After Close of Market.

Announcement of the dividend and earnings was not made until after the close of the New York Stock exchange yesterday, but the closing prices of the company's stocks were in striking contrast to depression lows and peaks of the more prosperous years.

The preferred fell from a high of $154.25 in 1930, to a low of $51.50 in 1932. Yesterday it closed at $136.75.



The common plummeted from $261.75 in 1929 to $21.25 in 1932, and yesterday closed at $116.87½.

Dividend arrearages had accumulated on the preferred between the last quarter of 1932 and the third quarter of 1936 to a total of $18.25 a share, or $65,751,300. About $12 of this was paid off in 1936 with the revival of business.

Dividend Cut After 30 Years.

After an unbroken record of thirty years of $7 annual dividend payments on the preferred, the company in the first quarter of 1933 reduced quarterly disbursements from $1.75 to 50 cents. This rate was maintained until July 1936, when it was doubled. The regular rate was restored in October, 1936.

Accumulations were reduced through payments of $2 in October, 1936, $7 in November, $4 in April, 1937, $2 in May and $2 in June.

Employés of United States Steel received 50.3 per cent more in total salaries and wages during the first half of 1937 than in the corresponding period of 1936. The total pay roll for the first half of this year was $229,676,854, against $152,835,471 a year earlier. Employment reached a new high in June at 272,000 persons, or well above the peak for 1929. Average employment in the first six months of 1937 was 257,168 persons, against 208,096 in the first half of last year, a gain of 23.6 per cent.

Inland Steel Earnings.

Inland Steel's net profit for the June quarter amounted to $3,178,383 before surtax, equal to $2.02 a capital share. This compared with $5,008,774, or $3.34 a share, in the preceding quarter and $3,298,191, or $2.29 a share, in the June quarter of 1936.

For the first half year Inland Steel had indicated earnings of $8,187,157, or $5.20 a share, against $5,232,823, or $3.63 a share, in the first half of 1936.

The regular and extra dividends are both payable Sept. 1 to stock of record Aug. 13.

Jones & Laughlin and subsidiaries in the June quarter had a net profit of $2,451,976 before surtax on undistributed earnings, or $2.47 a common share after quarterly dividend requirements on the preferred on which unpaid dividends totaled $26.25 a share. This compared with $1,982,394, or $1.65 a common share, in the preceding quarter, and $1,115,733, or 15 cents a common share, in the June quarter of 1936.

Six months earnings amounted to $4,434,370, or $4.13 a common share, against $182,454, or 31 cents a common share in the first half of 1936.

Other Steel Earnings Rise.

Allegheny reported June quarter net profit of $864,449, or $1.07 a common share, a new peak, against $551,054, or 65 cents a share, in the preceding quarter, and $610,805, or 90 cents a share, in the June quarter of 1936. Indicated net income for the first half of 1937 was $1,415,503, or $1.72 a common share, against $947,769, or $1.35 a share, in the first six months of last year.

Net profit of $506,087, or $1.02 a common share, for Ludlum Steel company and subsidiaries in the June quarter compared with $393,116, or 79 cents a share, in the preceding quarter, and $271,369, or 55 cents a share, in the June quarter of 1936.

For the six months ended June 30 the company reported net profit of $899,203, or $1.81 a share, against $434,381, or 75 cents a share, for the first half of 1936.

Utility Officials Cleared of Wasting Firm's Assets

New York, July 27.—[Special.]—The Long Island Lighting company, its directors and subsidiary companies, were cleared today of charges of wasting the company's assets. Supreme Court Justice Aaron J. Levy dismissed a suit brought by a group of minority stockholders for an accounting of $20,000,000 allegedly wasted. The plaintiffs charged that the company paid excessive bills for work performed by E. I. Phillips & Co., a contracting engineering firm owned by Ellis I. Phillips, president of the lighting company.

ALUMINUM COMPANY WINS RIGHT TO APPEAL TO SUPREME COURT

Philadelphia, Pa., July 27.—(AP)—The Aluminum company of America won today the right to appeal to the United States Supreme court from a ruling of a special expediting court permitting the government to proceed in New York with its anti-trust suit against the company.

The expediting court—composed of Judges J. Warren Davis, J. Whitaker Thompson, and John Biggs Jr.—refused the company a supersedeas, however, which would stay proceedings in the New York Federal District court until the Supreme court has acted upon the appeal.

The government brought suit last April to dissolve the Aluminum company, charging it violated the Sherman anti-trust laws. Judge Robert M. Gibson of the United States District court at Pittsburgh granted the company an injunction staying the proceedings in New York. He held the suit was similar to one filed in Pittsburgh in 1912, and that any further action should be brought at Pittsburgh.

The special expediting court was set up to determine jurisdiction. It held the New York and Pittsburgh suits were not similar and that the government had the right to proceed in New York.

Permission to Abandon Fall River Line Granted

Everyday Economics

Commission Broker.

The commission broker in commodities and securities executes orders for others for the purchase or sale of commodities or securities. For his service he receives a fixed commission. Most of the large brokerage houses are members of both the leading commodity and security markets and will handle either type of business.

Many brokers do not operate in the markets for their own account at all, acting merely as agents for others. Some speculate and act as brokers as well.

The principal commodity and security markets in the United States are organized along the line of private clubs. In order to transact business on the exchange one must first become a member by purchasing a "seat." Each exchange has definite qualifications for membership. As in the case of a private club the exchange has the authority to expel, suspend and discipline its members in other ways.

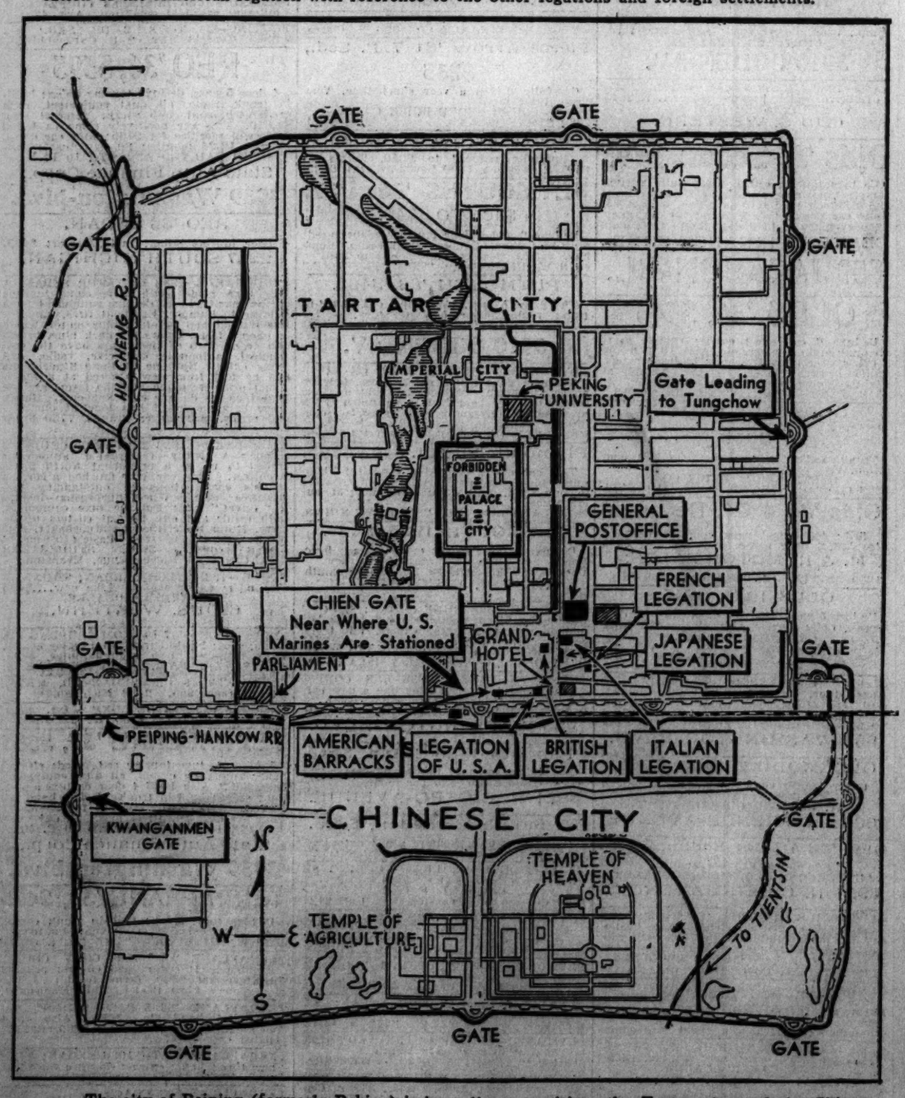
Japs Launch Major Offensive Against Peiping; Chinese Say War Is On—Slays Sweetheart in Jealous Rage

Legation May Be Refuge for 1,500 Americans in Peiping

The American legation in Peiping, China, with a color guard bearing the Stars and Stripes at the entrance. General fighting between the Chinese and Japanese broke out today around the city, making this legation and those of other foreign countries places of refuge for their nationals.

The marines on guard inside the gate of the American legation during a previous North China crisis. The situation became critical again yesterday when China rejected the latest demands of the Japs for withdrawal of troops. [Acme Photos.] (Story on page 1.)

The officers' quarters inside the American legation compound. There are 1,500 Americans in Peiping who may be called into the compound if fighting spreads. The map on this page shows the location of the American legation with reference to the other legations and foreign settlements.



The city of Peiping (formerly Peking) is in reality two cities—the Tartar city and the Chinese city. Inside the Tartar city's walls is the imperial city and within the latter is the inner or forbidden city. On this map the artist has placed points of importance in the light of the offensive launched against Peiping by the Japanese. At the southwest is Kwanganmen gate, from which an attack is feared. The legation area is the haven to which all foreigners are expected to flee in case of danger. U. S. marines are stationed near the Chien gate to protect Americans. On the northwest is the gate leading to Tungchow, which has already been attacked by the Japanese. At the extreme south of Peiping is the Temple of Heaven, one of the seven wonders of the world, and 35 miles to the north of the city stands another, the Great Wall.
